This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The General Assembly's Committee charged with the supervision of The Church at Home and Abroad would respectfully report as follows:

At the last General Assembly there were three chief directions issued to your Committee—first, the reduction of the price of the magazine to one dollar a copy; second, the insertion of advertisements; and third, the use of all means to increase the circulation of the periodical. To each of these instructions we have given our most careful attention, and have carried them out to the best of our ability. The price of the magazine was reduced at the beginning of the current year, your Committee cheerfully complying with the manifest desire of the Church. The matter of advertising demanded longer time and more thorough examination. Of the possible courses of procedure, we resolved to select a person of experience, who should be our agent in conducting this work, and who should be under the oversight and control of the Committee. Already the wisdom of this course has been abundantly proved. As our first year of experiment is not yet completed, we cannot as yet say what sum may possibly be realized; but it cannot, from the necessary restrictions, be very large. To the improvement of the magazine and its wider usefulness we have given most earnest heed. Working in fullest harmony with our trusted editor, we have adopted various changes in the make-up of the periodical, and the style of the articles and correspondence, and we are happy to say that we have received many and cheering encouragements Your Committee meets the Assembly this year with a larger hope of growing usefulness for the magazine than we have heretofore been able to cherish. The circulation has been pushed with all possible energy by those engaged in its oversight and management. We are convinced that, from the manifestly enlarging confidence in and satisfaction with our periodical, we may reasonably hope next year to go beyond the circulation of this present year. By a very little timely and concerted effort on the part of our pastors, elders and Sabbath-school superintendents we might easily secure for 1891, twenty-five thousand or even thirty-five thousand subscribers.

Your Committee and editor are at present carefully and earnestly considering methods by which our magazine may be greatly improved for the next year; and we hope soon to mature our plans and to give the Church timely notice of our advance.

In order that we may carry forward this most important department of the Assembly's work, that we may mature our plans, that we may add fresh and larger interest to the magazine, and that we may be given the opportunity of solving some still unsettled problems, your Committee recommend that the Special Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad be continued with the same powers which have been already conferred, and be directed to report to the Assembly of 1891; and that the expenses of the Committee be paid out of the funds.

All which is respectfully submitted by your Committee.

JOHN S. MACINTOSH, Chairman.

The Records of Synods, Statistical Reports, Narratives, and other papers from the Presbyteries were called for, and put in the hands of the Stated Clerk.

The Annual Reports, of the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, of the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Missions for Freedmen, and Aid for Colleges, the Committees on Systematic Beneficence and Temperance, the Trustees of the General Assembly, and of the Theological Seminaries, were called for and referred to the appropriate Committees.

The Rules for Judicatories, appended to the Constitution, were adopted as the Rules of this Assembly.

The Docket was read by the Stated Clerk.

The Special Committee to present to the President of the United States the evils of the traffic in intoxicating liquors in the Free State of Congo ("Minutes," 1889, pp. 99 and 111), presented its Report, which was accepted and approved, and is as follows:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly to bear the Assembly's protest against the liquor traffic carried on in the Congo Free State respectfully report:

That they carefully examined the relation of the United States to this traffic, and discovered that the United States had no official responsibility in the matter. Hence any initiative must be made by one of the Signatories of the Berlin Treaty, who alone have jurisdiction in the premises. Your Committee therefore presented the protest to the President, with the request that the Government would heartily second the movement when the initiative should be taken, and should further use such means as were becoming to suggest such initiative action.

Your Committee, under the circumstances, did not deem it proper or expedient to lay the protest before Congress, discretion having been left to them by the Assembly in this regard.

In behalf of the Committee,
HOWARD CROSBY, Chairman.

The Committee at its own request was discharged.

The Stated Clerk presented a Report on the answers of the

Presbyteries to the Overture on Revision ("Minutes," 1889, p. 79), as follows:

The Stated Clerk reports to the General Assembly that the Answers to the Overture of Inquiry concerning a Revision of the Confession of Faith, sent down to the Presbyteries by the last General Assembly, are in his hands. The number of Presbyteries answering the Overture is 202. Seven Presbyteries have declined to answer; and four Presbyteries, viz., Furrukhabad, Ningpo, Shanghai and Shantung, have as yet made no report. The Stated Clerk would also state that it is the custom of the General Assembly, to appoint a Committee of Canvass, to report upon the Answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures sent down to them.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Report was received, and it was

Resolved, That a Special Committee of five be appointed by the Moderator to canvass the Answers to the Overture.

The Moderator announced the Special Committee of Canvass as follows: Ministers—Francis L. Patton, D.D., Henry M. McCracken, D.D., Maurice D. Edwards, D.D.; Elders—Robert P. Shanklin, James D. Thornton.

The Special Committee on Procuring a Publishing Outfit for the Board of Publication ("Minutes," 1889, pp. 91, 111), presented its Report through its Chairman, Elder Henry E. Simmons.

The Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., in behalf of the Business Committee of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, also presented a Report.

These Reports were received, ordered to be printed as pamphlets for the use of the Assembly, and were referred to the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

The Special Committee on Religious Instruction in the Army ("Minutes," 1888, p. 29; 1889, p. 26), presented its Report, which was received, and its recommendations adopted:

The Committee on Religious Instruction in the Army begs leave to report:

Your Committee was appointed by the General Assembly of 1887, and was continued by the two following Assemblies. At the close of the war, with the dispersion of its large armies and the cessation of the labors of the Christian Commission, the Army as a field of evangelistic effort seems for a time to have been almost entirely neglected. Ours was the first of all the great religious bodies in the land to take action on the subject, and call attention to the great moral and religious needs of the Army. As pioneers in this work, it became the first duty of your Committee to prospect and explore, so as to ascertain and map out the exact situation.

Our relation to the Army and Navy is altogether peculiar, and evangelistic work among soldiers and sailors is in one important respect unlike any other. Chaplains, the only authorized religious teachers of the Army, are officers of the Government; they are appointed and salaried and their field of labor assigned by the State. Their status is defined and their duties prescribed by statute, and in the discharge of their functions they are subjected to Army regulations. As subordinates, their influence and usefulness depend largely on their relations to the superior officers of the post, and on orders issued from time to time from the War Department. As the State is not a religious leader, and legislators and military officers are not chosen as such, and are burdened with their other exacting duties, it is not to be expected that they of their own motion would make adequate provision for the spiritual welfare of the Army.

The delicacy and difficulty of the situation is at once apparent when we remember the attitude in which Church and State stand to each other in this country, and the jealousy, often extreme, of any seeming interference of one with the prerogatives of the other. And yet the obligation is imperative, either to come into harmonious coöperation with the State, or abnegate altogether or largely our duties as religious teachers of the Army and the world. It gives your Committee pleasure to say that while at all times they have studied to keep strictly within their own sphere, they have been received by Government officials with the greatest kindness. In nearly every instance hearty sympathy was expressed, and assurances given of a readiness to coöperate with us, in all practicable ways, for the religious improvement of the Army.

Some of the desired improvements could be secured only by new legislation, while others could be reached through orders from the War Department. To secure the first, your Committee, soon after its appointment, met in Washington, conferred with the President and the officers of the War Department and the Military Committees of the Senate and House, and as the result of these conferences, had bills prepared which are now before Congress awaiting its action. These bills relate chiefly to the number, qualifications, rank and general status of chaplains. Their number is altogether inadequate. With some 120 Army posts, there are only thirty-four chaplains, and the qualifications of these are not always such as is desired. Should the bills be passed without serious mutilation, as is hoped, much will be accomplished. Other needed improvements, as in the arrangements of barracks, canteens, guard-houses, and the provision of chapels used exclusively for religious services, etc., might be secured through orders from the War office.

Since this Assembly first took action on this subject, it gives us pleasure to report that five of our largest national churches have taken similar action—the Methodist Episcopal, the Baptist, the Congregational, the Evangelical Lutheran and the United Presbyterian. For obvious reasons, it was deemed desirable to combine these, as representing the religious sentiment of the country at large, in one organization. During the past month two meetings were held in Washington by the representatives of four of the churches, at which your Committee was represented by its Chairman, and an organization effected, so as to bring their united influence to bear in behalf of these interests, which require perpetual watching and perpetual pressing. Many local bodies, like some of our own Synods and Presbyteries, have taken action already, and as our legislators in Congress come from all parts of the land, and are largely influenced by the wishes of their immediate constituents, it is to be desired that local bodies all over the country should make their wishes known.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. The Assembly approves of the body recently organized in Washington under the name of the Christian Commission, and instructs its Committee to unite and coöperate with it.
2. It is recommended to Synods and Presbyteries who have not already done so, to appoint Committees on Religious Instruction in the Army, and take such further action as they may deem appropriate.
3. That the Committee on Religious Instruction in the Army be continued, with instructions to report to the next Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were directed to send the fraternal greetings of this Assembly to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States; to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church; to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church; and to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

The Special Committee on the Revision of the Proof Texts of our Standards ("Minutes," 1888, p. 59; 1889, p. 19), presented a Report, which was accepted, and placed on the docket.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented its Report, which, after an address by the Rev. William C. Cattell, D.D., the Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief, having examined the minutes and the Report of the Board, recommend them to the approval of the General Assembly.

Your Committee invite the attention of the General Assembly to the following facts. During the year from April 1, 1889, to April 1, 1890, in compliance with the recommendation of Presbyteries, remittances of money were sent to 241 ministers, to 358 widows of ministers, and to 24 orphan families of ministers; the whole number of families provided for during the year at the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, N. J., was 18, making a total of 642 families on the roll of the Board—an increase of 27 over last year.

The contributions during the year from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals amounted to $105,369, a little more than two-thirds of the sum named by the last General Assembly as necessary to carry on the work of the Board. The contributions of the previous year amounted to $108,586, which was less by $2000 than the contributions of the preceding centennial year. This steady decrease in the gifts of the churches to this most sacred cause may well be regarded with anxiety, if not with alarm. But for the interest of the permanent fund, amounting to $34,911.84, the Board would close the year in debt. If the effect of the endowment raised during the centennial year is to release our people from a sense of their obligation to contribute annually to this cause, that endowment will prove to be a calamity rather than a blessing. No more sacred duty can rest upon the Church than the duty to provide for the adequate support of her aged and infirm ministers, and the helpless families who are dependent upon them. No more tender appeal can be made to the hearts of God's people, than that which interprets the silent sufferings of those who have worn themselves out in the service of the Church, and whose devotion to the spiritual welfare of others has prevented them from making provision for the time of sickness and old age. If to visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction is an essential fruit and evidence of pure and undefiled religion, and if, in the final judgment, the test of fitness for the kingdom of heaven will be the question whether we have ministered to Christ represented in His brethren, surely these elementary principles of our holy religion, apply with double force, to the care which the Church owes to her aged and infirm ministers. The obligation to save these faithful and afflicted servants of Christ, not only from bodily want, but from the humiliation of being regarded as objects of common charity or pensioners upon the bounty of the Church, is not a mere matter of voluntary benevolence, but a sacred debt, for the payment of which the Head of the Church holds the Church to a strict account.

In view of the facts above recited, and of the obligation thus acknowledged, your Committee recommend to the General Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That this General Assembly acknowledges in behalf of the whole Church which we represent, the solemn obligation to provide for our infirm and aged ministers, not as a matter of charity, but as a debt due alike to them and to Christ; and while expressing our tender sympathy for all those who, in the providence of God, are in circumstances which require the aid this Board is designed to furnish, we affectionately exhort them not to regard themselves as pensioners upon the charity of the Church in any humiliating sense.

2. This Assembly solemnly enjoins upon all the churches under our care, the duty of contributing annually to the funds of this Board, and we repeat the earnest exhortation of former Assemblies to our ruling elders to see to it that every church makes contribution to this sacred cause.

3. This Assembly recommends to the churches under its care, to contribute to this Board during the coming year not less than $150,000, which in our judgment is the lowest amount needed for the adequate prosecution of the work of the Board.

4. Your Committee recommend that the following members of the Board, whose term of service expires with this Assembly, be reappointed: Ministers—John A. Liggitt, D.D., J. Henry Sharpe, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Robert C. Ogden and John D. Wattles.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY J. VAN DYKE, Chairman.

JAMES PARKE, Moderator.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Missions for Freedmen presented its Report, and after an address by the Rev. R. H. Allen, D.D., Secretary of the Board, it was adopted, except the fourth recommendation,* which was placed upon the docket. The Report as adopted is as follows:

---

*See proceedings of Monday afternoon, May 26.

The Standing Committee on the subject of Missions among the Freedmen present the following Report:

We have examined the records of the Board to which these Missions are entrusted, and also the Report of the Treasurer of the Board. We find it necessary to make certain exceptions to the records on the ground of incompleteness, but with these exceptions as recorded in the book, we recommend that the records be approved by the Assembly.

After a careful examination of the annual expenditures of the Board for service in the home office, as indicated in the reports of the Treasurer for 1889 and 1890, and in the records for the past year, we are constrained unanimously to recommend to the Assembly that the Board be instructed to reduce, at the earliest practicable date, the amount paid for such service to an aggregate of $2000 annually. This reduction shall apply exclusively to the office secretary and treasurer, and to the clerk or clerks employed in the home office. It is not intended to include the general secretary, or the field secretary, or the lady employed to take charge of the Women's Department. The judgment of the Committee is that the salary of this lady should be increased rather than diminished.

The financial exhibit of the year is remarkably encouraging. The gross receipts are $176,325.60, an advance of more than forty thousand dollars on those of any preceding year in the history of the Board. This is due in part to the unusual sums received in the form of bequests, but also in part to the larger number of churches and auxiliary societies and bands contributing, and to the growing interest of our membership in this large and urgent work. It is a gratifying feature of the exhibit for the year, that over $40,000 of the sum total of receipts have been contributed by the colored people themselves for the support of their churches, and the support and endowment of the schools established among them.

It is now a quarter of a century since this work was undertaken, and the steady advance in the popular interest may well be indicated by the following statement: for the first period of five years the receipts were $140,917.64; for the second period of five years, $238,025.15; for the third period, $226,117.66; for the fourth period, during which Dr. R. H. Allen became Secretary, and the Permanent Committee was made one of the Boards of the Church, $398,089.68; and for the fifth period, just now closing, $645,579.10. With slight variations, attributable probably to special causes, there has been a steady advance in contributions from the beginning. The receipts of the last five years are nearly five times as great as those of the first five, and nearly twice as great as those of the period just preceding. The total amount of donations received during the twenty-five years is $1,648,729.23; a sum indeed far below the claims of so grand and pressing a work, and yet worthy of grateful mention as we complete the record of the first quarter of a century in the history of this Board.

An advance equally gratifying appears in the religious and evangelizing work which is the first and chief business of this Board. Its primal mission is and ever must be to establish and sustain, an organized form of Christianity among the colored people of the South. To this end preachers and other Christian teachers and helpers must be secured, churches and Sunday-schools organized, and a beneficent series of denominational agencies set in operation. Twenty-five years ago there was not a single colored preacher or teacher, or a single church composed of colored members under the care of this Board. Now there are not less than 245 churches, with as many Sunday-schools; 10 white and 117 colored preachers, and 12 licentiates and catechists, sustained wholly or in part through its beneficence. If we add to this the aggregate of 78 schools of various grades, containing 10,169 pupils, and employing 171 teachers — schools in which a positively religious instruction and influence are enjoyed—we gain still better impressions respecting what this agency has accomplished. The additions to these colored churches by profession of faith during the past year was 1290, and the aggregate for the quarter of a century is 22,253. It is estimated that not less than half a million of the colored race in the South, and mainly along the Atlantic coast, where the best representatives of that race are to be found, have thus been brought under the direct influence of our Church.

This religious work appears to be in a thoroughly healthful condition, and is steadily increasing both in magnitude and in interest. Thus far, it has been confined, however, mainly to the two Carolinas and Florida, with one vigorous Presbytery in Georgia. The organization last year of the Presbytery of Southern Virginia is an encouraging movement in a new direction. But the extensive migration of the colored population from the Atlantic line to the Gulf States, and to the States west of the Mississippi, is a fact which suggests the duty of widening greatly the area of our denominational work in this department, wherever this can be done without interfering with the labors of other Christian bodies, and without setting up a color line with its invidious distinctions in Presbytery and Synod. The great central States of Tennessee and Kentucky also offer a wide and promising field for such evangelizing work. Indeed, however extensive or successful the efforts of other churches have been in this department of evangelistic activity, it is not too much to say that half a continent, and an uncounted multitude of souls are at this moment inviting, entreating us, as a Church, to far broader charities and far more extended endeavors. When the next quarter of a century comes, it may and should witness a thousand churches planted, and many hundreds of schools established, and a great multitude of preachers and teachers sent forth, and millions of the colored race blessed, with that Gospel which we as a Church are commissioned to proclaim everywhere to sinful men.

The educational work conducted by the Board has been carried on during the year with energy and with marked success. The number of schools, teachers and pupils has already been mentioned, and the specific statements of the Report show that this department is hardly secondary in importance to the more direct religious work already noted. Special progress has been made during the year, in the erection or purchase of new buildings such as the growing needs of this work demand. We make particular mention of the Haines Memorial School at Augusta, Ga., erected largely through a generous gift from the estate of the late Mr. Thompson Bell, of Pittsburgh; of the additional hall provided for the Mary Allen Seminary, through the munificence of Hon. James McMillan, of Detroit, an honored member of our Church and a Senator of the United States from Michigan; of the school-buildings at Aiken, S. C., heretofore under the care of the Rev. W. R. Coles, and of the new building for the Academy at Cotton Plant, Ark., chiefly erected through the efforts of Christian women residing in the State of Illinois. Every such school should be provided with substantial and adequate accommodations of this class, and there is hardly any direction in which individual charity, seeking to help and bless the colored race in the South, can better be applied. Much of the advance made during the year is traceable to such individual benefactions, outside of the regular contributions to this cause.

Industrial training has been made a special feature in the educational system sustained by the Board. One interesting illustration of this appears in the fact, that most of the buildings needed at the Brainerd Institute, have been erected largely through the labors of the students themselves. In all the seminaries and academies under the care of the Board, this rule of self-help has been established as one important element in the education given. When we remember that the colored people must, for a long period, if not always, constitute mainly the laboring population of the South, and that the rapidly developing industries of that region are, more and more, demanding intelligent and reliable labor in order to their success, we begin to appreciate properly this feature in our educational work. And if to this we add the careful training imparted in these schools touching that fear of the Lord, that primal law of obedience to Him and devotion to His service, which is the beginning of wisdom, and also the beginning of all true prosperity, we may still more fully appreciate what our Church is doing through this Board to benefit and bless this portion of the Republic.

The large service rendered by the women of our Church in organizing societies and bands, in raising funds, in providing clothing, in securing annual and permanent scholarships, in building and repairing school-houses and otherwise aiding the Board in its work, deserves special mention in this Report. But six years have passed since this tributary agency was established, yet it has already done much, very much, to bring the good cause to the knowledge and secure for it the sympathies of Christian womanhood in many sections of the Church. The total amount of money secured in this way during the last year was more than thirty thousand dollars, or one-sixth of the entire receipts of the Board. Ninety-two full scholarships and eighty-two partial scholarships and the salaries of thirty teachers have been provided for, wholly or in part, through this department. The excellent women thus engaged deserve the grateful recognition and praise of the entire Church.

In reviewing this work at the end of the first quarter of a century in its history, remembering, meanwhile the peculiar difficulties which at the outset and for a long time confronted it, your Committee believe that this General Assembly has great occasion to be encouraged, in view of the past, and to sound the bugle note of vigorous advance for the future. We have done little more, as a Church, than to lay the foundations of things—little more than to ascertain by experiment what can be done, and to determine the principles upon which the work should be carried on in coming years, probably in coming generations. The experiment has been successful. The line and method of advance are clear, the promise of large results, if the work be earnestly and generously pushed on, is hanging before us in the serene sky of Providence like some wondrous vision of glory. More laborers, more money, more schools, more churches, wider and more comprehensive plans, larger interest and consecration, greater resoluteness and energy in the prosecution of each specific scheme, profounder conviction that we are doing a great, a vital, a noble and blessed work for God and for humanity—these are the things to be realized and illustrated by our Church, as it stands on the threshold of the second quarter of a century in the history of this grand work.

In accordance with a request from the Board, we recommend that, in cases where there is a surplus of money for scholarships or for other specific purposes at any particular institution supported by the Board, the Board shall be authorized to use the said surplus for the specified purpose at other and needier points, wherever this can be done with the consent of the donors, or without violating any of the terms or conditions on which their gifts were originally made. In cases where this cannot be done with propriety, the Board is directed to hold and keep such moneys in reserve for future needs, the income to be expended meanwhile from year to year, at any point, for the particular purpose specified in the original gift.

The Board also desires permission to recommend to the Presbyteries containing churches under its care, that all applications made to these Presbyteries for aid from the Board shall be voted upon by ballot. As this is substantially the rule approved by the General Assembly, in the case of applications for aid from the Board of Home Missions, and generally observed by our Presbyteries in that connection, we recommend that this permission be granted.

The term of service of the following members of the Board expires at this time, namely: Ministers—S. J. Fisher, John Fox, J. P. E. Kumler, D.D.; Elders—John C. McCombs and Robert S. Davis. Two members of the Board have been removed by death during the past year—Mr. John F. Loy and Rev. W. C. Burchard. We recommend that the five brethren whose term of service now expires be appointed again for the period of three years; and that Elder T. A. Parke be appointed to fill the place of Mr. Loy in the class of 1891, and Rev. D. S. Kennedy to fill the place of Rev. Mr. Burchard in the class of 1892.

In behalf of the Committee.

E. D. MORRIS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, made a preliminary Report, recommending that the Special Committee on a Publishing Outfit be heard, which was accepted, and the Report of the Special Committee was made the second Order of the Day for Tuesday P.M.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 19, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommended the reference to the Committee on Ministerial Relief of an Overture from the Presbytery of Baltimore, on a change of name for the Board of Relief. The recommendation was adopted.

It was made the first Order of the Day for Saturday, A.M., to hear the Representatives of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches; the first Order for Thursday, A.M., to receive the Report of the Committee on the Canvass of the Votes of the Presbyteries on Revision; and the Report of the Committee on Correspondence was made the first Order for Friday, A.M.

The Standing Committee on Education presented its Report, which, after an address by the Rev. Daniel W. Poor, D.D., Secretary, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Education respectfully reports that it has examined the Seventy-first Annual Report of the Board of Education, from which it gleans the following facts:

The whole amount of money received from all sources during the year was $84,963.34, an advance of $4001.65 upon that of the previous year. The payment of the preceding year's debt, however, and the necessary appropriations to an enlarged number of students compelled the Board to close its accounts with a deficit of $8700, which was reduced by the receipt two days thereafter of a gift of $3000, intended to go in with the contributions of the year, leaving the real deficit, therefore, $5700, a sum, the Committee is glad to note, less than that of the previous year.

The number of churches contributing this year is 3008, 336 more than last year, but still leaving 3511 non-contributing.

The number of candidates under the care of the Board has increased from 772 to 839.

The number recommended by their Presbyteries was 913, a larger number than ever before, of which 332 were new cases, but of the whole number forty-seven were declined from apprehensions of incurring too heavy a debt at the end of the year. It thus appears that while the contributions have increased they have not increased in proportion to the number of candidates, and the Board had to reject worthy cases because the Church did not furnish it with the means for their support. The Lord is answering the prayer for the sending of more laborers into the harvest by putting into the hearts of an increasing number of young men the desire to be trained for the work, and the people should unite in the answer to the prayer by aiding the young men in their preparation.

The number of graduates from our theological seminaries last year was 213, a happy advance on that of the preceding year by eighteen, and of that number 106 were under the care of the Board. These figures suggest the great value of the Board. As it is, with those who come to us from other denominations, the annual supply of ministers is inadequate to meet the demands of the Church. How destitute would be our condition without those who, unless aided as they are by the Board, could not pass through the curriculum required?

Special attention is directed in the Annual Report to prize scholarships, suggested by a gift of $10,000 by John S. Newberry, of Detroit, Mich., the income to be appropriated, after a competitive examination, for the education in some theological institution of one young man for the time being, and, from time to time, for the ministry. The Report adds very judiciously:

"One advantage resulting from such prize scholarships is that it insures the direction of the funds to the worthiest, so far as rigid examination can ascertain who is the worthiest, and furnishes to such a candidate still further the means of cultivating his fine gifts and multiplying his attainments to the utmost, and thus of qualifying himself for some eminent position, either as pastor of some important church, or as professor or president in some of our literary or theological institutions. Such men are called for more and more as the population of our country increases; and we are not raising enough of them. Our candidates, most of them, are too much straitened in resources to obtain the means for a large and liberal culture, and are obliged often to hasten into service for support when a longer course of study might help to lift them into the highest ranks of Christian scholarship. These ranks are by no means full. Might not, therefore, the example of Mr. Newberry be profitably followed by others, and the number of these prize funds be increased, to the great benefit of our Church? The Board of Education at present allows its candidates but $100 per year, a sum by no means sufficient to cover the expenses of board, clothing, books and travel. Only to double or treble this amount would, therefore, still be a prize worthy of consideration and prove very helpful."

It would, in the judgment of the Committee, be highly beneficial to establish more such scholarships, so as to enable young men of special ability under the care of the Board, to prosecute without anxiety, studies that will fit them for important work in the Church.

The Secretary of the Board, in his intercourse with the Committee, in which he has frankly and clearly met every inquiry and fully explained the principle on which the Board acts, desires the Committee to emphasize the fact that, the number of vacant churches and of pulpits occupied by stated supplies, have an injurious influence in a twofold way on the work of the Board. 1. In such churches the cause is either not presented at all, or presented in a way that is not effective; hence, non-contributing churches, or merely nominal contributions. 2. They discourage young men from desiring to enter the ministry. The candidate system is not alluring to them. The subject is touched upon in one of the Special Reports that has been set down for consideration in connection with this Report. The Committee alludes to it here for the purpose of emphasizing its importance, and turning the minds of the General Assembly the more intently upon the recommendations of the Special Committee.

In view of these statements the Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the fidelity to their trust of the members and officers of the Board of Education be approved, and that they be commended anew to the churches in the prosecution of the important work committed to them.

2. That the General Assembly mourns the loss of the valuable services of Elder H. W. Pitkin, a member of the Board, who, after twelve years' service, has been removed by death.

3. That the General Assembly expresses its pleasure at the increasing interest in the work of the Board as manifested by the increased number of contributing churches, but regrets to note that so many are still non-contributing. As a matter of loyalty to our Church the General Assembly emphasizes the duty of all Sessions, to afford their congregations the opportunity to contribute, to this as well as to the other agencies by which the Church carries on its work; and it directs Presbyteries to make diligent inquiry as to compliance with this duty, and to press its observance upon those whose reasons for non-compliance are insufficient.

4. That the Board be advised to support its candidates only at institutions which are under or in harmony with our Church; and that it is against sound principle and policy for those who are aided by the contributions of our people, to be committed to the care of institutions of learning, where they are likely to be diverted from our own seminaries and ministry.

5. The General Assembly calls the attention of wealthy members of our Church to the system of prize scholarships, by which they can help to prepare young men of special ability under the care of the Board, for important literary and theological positions in the Church.

6. The members of the Board whose term of service expires this year are: Ministers—George D. Baker, D.D., James M. Crowell, D.D.; Elders—George W. Barr, Andrew Blair. The Committee recommend that they be reëlected.

There are two vacancies caused by the resignation of John Dixon, D.D., and the death of Mr. H. W. Pitkin.

The Committee recommend the election of the Rev. William C. Rommel to fill the former, and Mr. James F. Magee the latter.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. M. PATTERSON, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Increasing the Number of Ministers ("Minutes," 1889, p. 107) presented its Report, which was accepted. Pending its consideration, the discussion was arrested.

A telegram was received announcing the death, at Utica, N. Y., of the Rev. James Lamb, a Commissioner to this Assembly from the Presbytery of Petoskey. The Rev. Henry H. Northrup, of the Presbytery of Flint, was appointed to prepare a suitable minute.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 20, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee appointed to prepare a minute on the death of the Rev. James Lamb, presented the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, 1. That it is with sorrow that the General Assembly has learned of the sudden death, at Utica, N. Y., of the Rev. James Lamb, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Cadillac, Mich., and a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Petoskey, on his way to the sessions of this Assembly.

2. That we tenderly sympathize with our departed brother's family in this hour of bereavement, praying that the same Lord who wept with Martha and Mary, will sustain and comfort them in this sore bereavement.

3. That we recognize in our departed brother a faithful, laborious and self-denying servant of Christ, who has done a good work as a pastor and a home missionary upon the fields in which he has been called to labor.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family by the Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, which was accepted, and its recommendations severally adopted.

Paper No. 1. Memorial from the Presbytery of Muskogee.

The Stated Clerk of that Presbytery having written to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly to have the paper withdrawn, the Committee recommend that leave be granted to withdraw said Memorial.

Paper No. 2. Overture from the Presbytery of Lima, seeking a reduction in the number of Secretaries in some of our Boards.

Answer: That no action is called for on the part of the Assembly, for the reason that the only instances of excess in the number of Secretaries, are those which have been created by the necessity of relieving the infirmities caused by the advancing years of brethren, distinguished and beloved for long-continued and most faithful service, in the departments to which they were appointed by the General Assembly; and in which they are still able to render efficient and indeed indispensable assistance, such as no increase of clerical force could possibly afford.

Paper No. 3. Overture from the Presbytery of Chillicothe, on a change in the mode of enrollment of ministers' names in the "Minutes."

Answer: It is deemed inexpedient to make any change in the mode of enrollment.

Paper No. 4. Overture from the Presbytery of Lima, on a change in the manner of electing the Secretaries of the Boards, so that there shall be a change every four years.

Answer: The action proposed is unnecessary because the Secretaries are elected each year by the several Boards.

Paper No. 5. Overture from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, on the celebration of the fifth semi-centennial of the Westminster Assembly.

Answer: We recommend that the Assembly refer this matter to the American Branch of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, to be presented by them to the fifth meeting of the Alliance, to be held in Toronto, in 1892.

Paper No. 6. Overture from the Presbytery of Bismarck on lotteries.

Answer: In view of recent notorious attempts to force the lottery system upon some portions of our land by legislative enactments, the General Assembly does hereby reiterate in the most emphatic manner its condemnation of all lotteries as immoral in their nature and ruinous in their effects upon individual character and public welfare. The members of our Church are exhorted to discountenance all forms of resorting to chance even for professedly praiseworthy objects; inasmuch as it is not allowable to do evil that good may come. The Presbyteries under our care are also recommended, to press upon the consideration of ministers and Sessions the vicious influence of lotteries, and urge them to do what they can to arouse public conscience against this and every other species of gambling.

Papers Nos. 7 and 8. Overtures from the Presbytery of Olympia and from the Presbytery of Puget Sound, asking for the erection of the Synod of Washington.

Answer: We recommend that the General Assembly erect a Synod to be called the Synod of Washington, which Synod shall be composed of the four Presbyteries of Puget Sound, Idaho, Alaska and Olympia. The said Synod of Washington shall meet in the First Presbyterian Church of Tacoma, in the State of Washington, October 9, 1890, at 7.30 o'clock P.M., and be opened with a sermon by the Rev. J. R. Thompson, D.D., or, in his absence, by the minister present who has been longest within the bounds of the new Synod. We also recommend that the Church of Sumner remain in connection with the Presbytery of Puget Sound.

Paper No. 9. Overture from the Synod of Columbia, seeking an earlier distribution of the Reports of the Boards.

Answer: We recommend that the Stated Clerk be directed to send out to the ministers and churches the Reports of the Boards, as soon as possible after the adjournment of the Assembly, and that he be authorized to expend the additional amount of money necessary for clerk hire to accomplish it.

Papers Nos. 10 and 11. Overtures from the Presbytery of Hudson and the Presbytery of Erie, seeking an earlier distribution of the "Minutes of the Assembly."

Answer: Under the conditions of the case it is impossible to have the "Minutes" printed and distributed much earlier than at present. Since there is some delay occasioned by the delay of Stated Clerks of Presbyteries to send in their Reports in time, they are hereby directed to send such Reports to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, not later than April 25, of each year.

Paper No. 12. Report of the Executive Committee of the Western Section of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, asking for our quota of money and the appointment of delegates.

Answer: We recommend that the General Assembly hereby authorize the Stated Clerk to pay to the Executive Commission of that body, out of moneys in his hands otherwise unappropriated, the sum of $735, which is the proportion of expense to be borne by our Church according to its representation.

We also recommend that the Moderator and Stated Clerk, with Ministers—Charles L. Thompson, D.D., James G. K. McClure, Thomas H. Robinson, D.D.; Elders—Ralph E. Prime and Thomas Kane, be a Committee to nominate delegates to attend the Fifth Council of the Alliance, to be held in Toronto, Canada, in 1892, and that the Committee report to the next General Assembly.

Paper No. 13. Memorial of ministers and elders in Oklahoma, asking to be placed within the bounds of the Presbytery of Chickasaw.

Answer: We recommend that the Assembly extend the bounds of the Presbytery of Chickasaw so as to include the territory of Oklahoma, which was formerly in the bounds of the Presbytery of Muskogee, and that the ministers and churches in Oklahoma be and hereby are placed under the care of and do constitute a part of the Presbytery of Chickasaw.

Respectfully submitted, WM. C. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Rev. William Irvin, D.D., and the Rev. Henry Kendall, D.D., Secretaries of the Board, was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

He has lived a generation who has served Home Missions during the past year. He has witnessed changes in populations, in possessions, in facilities for education and in the development of Christianity, which thirty years could not compass a century ago. The Home Missionary does business without capital or collaterals; is often poor and poorly supported. His thirst for books is tantalized by the advertisement of volumes he can never hope to purchase. He frequently preaches without a house of worship, without Christian and social fellowship, without the aid of church-going habits of older communities; but with all this God has used him in securing phenomenal success, for with only one-eighth of the membership of the Presbyterian Church he has received one-fifth of the additions the past year.

The missionaries of the Board have gathered into the churches 17,886 souls, 9795 of them on profession. They have organized two Sunday-schools a day for the entire year, and every second day a church. They have a church membership of 100,778, and a Sunday-school membership of 160,111, and all this is accomplished at an average cost of $450 per minister, including all the expenses of the Board. Was ever such a marvel preceded by such seemingly inadequate causes? You cannot explain it unless you say, "These men have been with Jesus and learned of Him." The day is coming when young ministers will cease to ask, "Ought I to be a Home Missionary?" and will say, "May I be a Home Missionary?" For they will come to us "out of Israel in abundance when they see that the Lord is with us."

Success has been all the more noteworthy, because it has prevailed in Dakota with its 5000 starving families, California with a failure of a chief industry, and in Kansas and Texas where the Oklahoma boom drew hundreds of church members away.

The different sections of our country throng with interest. For instance, the revival of Presbyterianism in New England is a striking example. It began about seven years ago. Boston Presbytery at that time had some fifteen churches. Now it has thirty-four. They extend from New Brunswick on the north to Newport at the south. These churches are largely composed of those who came to New England as Presbyterians. They are located mainly in large manufacturing centres, and have developed a rapid and surprising strength. Their membership in all but two instances exceeds one hundred, and in several instances reaches nearly three hundred. The value of church property added to the Presbyterian denomination in New England will aggregate somewhere near $140,000. The membership of these new churches will aggregate about 3000. We question if any part of the Home Mission territory has yielded returns more satisfactory than this. As an illustration, some six years ago, a church was organized at Quincy. On last April it reported 270 members, a Sunday-school of 250, a church and a manse worth $12,500. The people raised last year $2100. This is no isolated instance. About three years ago the Scotch church was organized in Boston. It now has an attendance of from 600 to 800, a membership of nearly 300, and owns a house costing $27,000. The attitude of other churches, especially the Congregational, is friendly. One Congregational church gave $4000 to build a Presbyterian church; others have helped by endorsements and money. Our Church does not proselyte but simply reaches and cares for its own. Presbyterians are coming from Scotland, Ireland and the Canadian provinces, and will continue to come. We must provide churches for these people, else leave them to the world, where they will be lost to every phase of Christianity.

Then, too, the work in the Indian Territory is as interesting as it is unique in character. The population truly represents the gradations of civilization. From the savage and blanketed Indian of the Western reservation, through the five civilized nations to the representatives of our advanced American culture, we have here exhibited the successive stages of progress, and are enabled to see at a glance the methods of political development. Our missionaries have labored long and successfully there, and the prosperity, education and degree of civilization enjoyed by the Indians, are due solely to the efforts of consecrated men and women who have devoted their lives to this special work. Although their names may not be known as household words among the churches, none truly deserve more honorable mention than these servants of the Master, who have undertaken work in this particular field. Events are moving rapidly in the Indian Territory. Many new lines of railroad are projected, which when built will give it more railroads in proportion than are now in Kansas. A new judicial system, with a complete code of laws, has lately been provided, and with liberal provision for Indian citizenship and settlement of the land questions, it is safe to predict a speedy end to tribal autonomy. This means the opening of a vast region to settlement, the establishment of churches and the thorough organization of every form of Christian work. For this we must prepare, and there is no time to lose. Our churches and schools must be multiplied, and our brethren of the ministry must be fully reinforced by competent educated men trained for Christian work. What the future has in store for the whole territory was illustrated by the marvelous rush into and settlement of Oklahoma during the past year. A wonderful transformation has taken place. Where all was unbroken prairie one year ago, are now cultivated farms. The tents and dug-outs of the boomers have given place to well-built homes, substantial blocks of stone and brick. The unorganized communities are now all members of a legally constituted commonwealth. All the elements of great progress and general prosperity are there, and Oklahoma's future is one of great promise. Here our Church has shown itself capable of wrestling with critical social problems, and stands to-day as the leading denomination in enterprise. Every county has its minister, and many churches have been organized. Others are under way. With more ministers and liberal aid for the erection of churches, the Presbyterian Church will do for Oklahoma what it has done for Kansas and Dakota. But these are imperative. When the Cherokee strip is opened to settlement there will be as great a rush as was made into Oklahoma. On a false report last March 20,000 men crossed into the strip from Kansas, to be driven out later by soldiers. What then will happen when the country is legally opened to settlement? Our Board must be ready when the time comes, for it is almost impossible to recover ground lost in such a critical time. If in Oklahoma in the first year we have been able to organize ten vigorous churches, what may we not expect when a region three times as large is opened? Twelve thousand people were in Guthrie two days after Oklahoma opened, 7000 in Oklahoma City, 5000 in Kingfisher. In the Cherokee strip we shall have a dozen towns of equal size. We must be ready for the emergency with a chosen corps of able ministers to organize the churches.

A similar opportunity is ours in New Mexico. A general feeling of dissatisfaction pervades the Roman Catholics of the territory. They are looking to us for religious instruction. Almost every community in the territory is ready to welcome a minister or teacher. In the face of bitter persecution, many of the Spanish-speaking people are turning from the priests and renouncing allegiance to Rome. The progressive spirit of American civilization has penetrated the Pueblos, and New Mexico is awakening to intellectual, commercial and spiritual activity. Nowhere else is opened a wider door, and in no other region will evangelistic work produce more far-reaching effects. To thoroughly win New Mexico is to insure success in all Spanish-speaking countries on this continent. The connection is so close that efforts there are felt as far south as the Isthmus. Here a new departure is producing good results. Native teachers and catechists are sent out who can go where our ministers cannot, and from these we are getting a corps of native ministers who will do a great work among the people. Through these and our schools we hope to reach in time every home in New Mexico. We say, "through our schools." We may justly regard them as equally important with the ministry. In several towns, had we room and facilities, in our schools, we could have 500 pupils, bright young men and women eager for Christian education. In Las Vegas and Santa Fé especially do we need large and well-equipped buildings. In both of these places we have been compelled to turn away a great number of children for the lack of room. New Mexico must be filled with Christian schools equal in capacity with those established by Roman Catholics. At Las Vegas the Jesuit school has room for 300, we can care for 75 only. They have good buildings, ours are adobe huts. So too elsewhere. This work must be pressed, even though it makes large demands upon our treasury, for the money thus expended will bring immediate and large returns.

Similar opportunities are open to us in the South. It is gratifying to notice the advance of the Board's work in this region, comprehending Southern Virginia, Western North Carolina, North and South Carolina, Northern Georgia, Alabama, Texas, Tennessee and Kentucky, popularly known as the New South. The revelations in recent years of the salubrious climate, and the exhaustless varied natural resources for the production of wealth, have attracted millions of capital for investment, and wide streams of intelligent, enterprising and progressive immigration. So that the prospect for enlarging the Board's work is imperative in its need, and encouraging in the cordial reception extended to its efforts. The mingling of the best element from the North and the best element of the South in commercial, industrial, civil, social, educational and religious pursuits, tends to produce the elimination of sectional prejudices, and the New South is appearing. Accordingly the obstructions hitherto impeding the Board's work in the South, diminish in gravity in the ratio of the Board's ability to produce men and means to meet the expanding opportunities. A hopeful evidence of this work is the organization of the Presbytery of Birmingham in the State of Alabama, with five churches and as many ministers. The organization of such work presses itself upon the Board from every side, as the establishment of new towns and the enlargement of older ones is unprecedented in the history of the South.

A prosperous phase of the Board's work in the South is the hopeful growth of the schools of the Woman's Executive Committee. They have been established at Asheville, North Carolina, Elizabethton and New Market, in Tennessee, and at numerous other points in the destitute mountain regions of the Central South, and they are proving a great blessing to these localities, besides laying the foundations for future churches. Your Committee cordially recommends the mountain school work of the Board to this Assembly, with the hope that enlarged effort may meet with still greater results.

Then, too, the work of city evangelization has interesting features peculiar to itself. Just think of it! There are 50,000 Bohemians in Chicago. They are singularly accessible. What might not be done, if only there were men to go and means to sustain them? There are also 50,000 Polanders without a single Protestant missionary among them. There are 20,000 Italians. The Pope has lost them. They will follow anybody who will teach them to read. Many are becoming infidels. A little church organized six years ago numbers 150. Their building is too small for those that are accessible. The Scandinavians number 75,000, and in four years four large self-sustaining churches have been built up. Three hundred thousand Germans have a half dozen churches. One hundred thousand Irish belong to the foreign classes of Chicago. Will their chains of superstition ever be broken? A similar state of things exists in all our large cities. City evangelization and self-protection are twin sisters, to say nothing of the Master's command to evangelize the world. But the cities are not alone threatened. Whole counties are settled up with a foreign population. The best cotton in the world is raised in Texas, and the best cotton in Texas is raised in a strictly German county. In a town in that vicinity the annual public school picnic is held on the Sabbath; and another town boasts that there is not a Bible in it, and that none is wanted. The proportion of foreigners in the West is still more marked. What urgency then for Home Missionary effort!

The Northwest, what cannot be said of it? It has all the elements of wealth. Much of it is unequaled as an agricultural region. Montana and Idaho are noted for precious metals, copper, iron and great coal fields. Lumber abounds in Washington and Oregon. There are vast harbors to encourage commerce, and the railways bring hundreds of immigrants every day. Whatever is done for them must be done now. Seattle grew from 10,000 to 20,000 in five years. Multiplied places are growing even more rapidly. Seventy-five Home Missionaries are needed in the Northwest at once. Helena has a population of 20,000, and her Protestant churches will not seat more than 1200. "Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

Your Committee enters upon a statement of the condition of the Home Missionary treasury with mingled feelings of astonishment and pain. They are compelled to look in the face a debt of $80,819.34. What is to become of the Home Missionaries?

Worse still, what is to become of the cause of Christ? There are 1880 churches, twenty-eight per cent of the whole number, that gave nothing last year to Home Missions. Many of them are weak, to be sure, but too many of them are strong. There ought to be Presbyterial oversight to prevent such neglect of duty.

Your Committee is of the opinion that if the churches only knew more about Home Missions, they would give more to Home Missions, and they therefore recommend an urgent effort to put our Church magazine, as well as the Home Missionary Monthly, published by the Woman's Executive Committee, into every hand. There should be wide use of Home Missionary literature, and, better still, every preacher ought to crowd his work full to overflowing with the Home Missionary spirit.

The Annual Report of the Woman's Executive Committee is a marvel of business clearness, but the success of their work is of chief interest. In 1889, the churches gave $266,395.20. In the same year the women gave $278,940.93, an excess on the part of the women of $12,645.73. In 1890, the one gave $246,580.49, the other $286,627.51, an excess on the part of the women of $40,047.02. That is to say, the women of the Church raised last year $12.645.73 more than the combined offerings of all the churches, and this year $40,047.02 more. To be sure, they received $50,000 in their school work from the Government, and consequently that much less from regular sources, but then it remains true that they received it. It is fairly due to their school work that this sum was secured, and even if you throw out this $50,000, they are then but $10,000 behind the contributions of the entire Church. No wonder the Board is $80,000 in debt. But this is not all. These women have $92,000 pledged to support 139 teachers and 600 scholars next year. The women get their money by the multiplication of small offerings, together with pledged, stated amounts.

Your Committee believe that the Board's policy of grouping churches should be wisely, firmly and kindly pushed by the Presbyteries, so as to relieve its treasury and give the widest proclamation to the truth. And that further great care should be taken not to crowd into fields already sufficiently supplied with the Gospel.

We wish to call the attention of the Assembly to the good Home Missionary results growing out of the work of the Sabbath-school missionaries of our Church. They organize schools, and the schools become churches. All praise to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

The Committee believe that the minutes of this Board are not as full as they ought to be. These minutes constitute the only authentic history of the work of the Board, but they are little more than a record of the appropriations made by the Board, with the names of the parties to whom the money of the Board is given. They do not bring to view, or even allude to the efforts of the Board to provide funds for carrying on their work. The Treasurer of the Board reports to the Board at each monthly meeting. The report is not recorded on the minutes. The simple record is "That the report was received, approved, and ordered to be filed." There are no figures in the record that tell the amount of money received and expended. Our judgment is that in the monthly report of the Treasurer, the amount of money received and expended should be stated and appear on the minutes, and that at the close of the year a statement corresponding to the brief summary in the Annual Report to the Assembly should be spread on the minutes of the Board. The fact that all the receipts of the Board come out in the printed Reports prepared for the Assembly, should not interfere with a full statement of the Board's financial condition in its own minutes.

In conclusion, your Committee would offer the following recommendations:

1. In view of the financial embarrassments of the Boards of Home Missions and Foreign Missions, we recommend that the churches take a special collection, to be equally divided between the two Boards, and that where it is possible, this collection should be taken in the month of June, but in any event, not later than the month of October.

2. It is recommended that the Sabbath-schools take a collection for this cause during the year, as advised by the Assembly of last year, and we suggest the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving, in November, as a fitting time for such offerings.

3. The Assembly has heard with thankfulness of the growth of Presbyterianism in New England; and it is recommended that they approve heartily of the help afforded to our churches there by the Board of Home Missions, and that they favor the widest and most rapid development of our New England work that shall seem wise to the Board.

4. Your Committee has examined the minutes of the Board and recommend their approval by the Assembly.

5. The term of service of the following members of the Board of Home Missions expires with this Assembly, viz.: Ministers—Thomas A. Nelson, D.D., James M. Ludlow, D.D.; Laymen—John S. Kennedy, John Taylor Johnston, John E. Parsons. Their reëlection is recommended.

6. This Assembly heartily approves the efficiency and fidelity of the Board of Home Missions in its work during the past year, and in order that the Board may effectively carry on its work, it is hereby recommended to the churches to raise the sum of $900,000 for the cause of Home Missions during the present ecclesiastical year, and this to be additional to the special collection for the debt of the two Boards.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. S. LITTLE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions also presented a supplementary Report, as follows:

Concerning the Overture from the Presbytery of Marion, submitted to our Committee, we report that, as this Overture from a single Presbytery concerning the return of certain moneys to the Synod of Ohio, involves the creation of a general law for our Church, we deem it inexpedient that the Assembly take action upon the matter, and we recommend that this be the deliverance of the General Assembly; also that the Presbytery, upon the specific matter of the return of certain sums for this present year, be advised to confer with the Board of Home Missions.

The Chairman of the Mileage Committee was authorized to pay to the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, the Contingent and Entertainment Funds.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 20, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church presented the following Report on the Overtures referred to it, which was accepted and the answers adopted.

Overture No. 1, from the Presbytery of Bellefontaine, asking the Assembly to provide a plan for the more convenient change of the place of meeting of the Presbyteries, similar to that provided for the Synods, as found in "Moore's Digest," p. 509.

Answer: Whenever from any cause it shall be necessary to change the place of the regularly appointed meeting of a Presbytery, its Stated Clerk shall, at the request of at least three-fourths of the Clerks of its Church Sessions, be authorized to secure another place of meeting, and to issue his official call for the meeting of the Presbytery accordingly. (See Digest of 1886, p. 509, similar action as to Synod.)

Paper No. 2. A Petition asking the Assembly to send the following Overture to the Presbyteries: "Shall the Form of Government, Chap. xiii, Sec. 4, be so amended that in the service of ordination, the question, 'Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Confession of Faith of this Church, as containing the System of Doctrine taught in the Scriptures?' shall be propounded to the eldership only?"

Answer: The Committee recommend no action.

Overture No. 3, from the Presbytery of the Cherokee Nation, asking, "What is the standing of an elder or member of the Presbyterian Church, who becoming dissatisfied with his baptism by sprinkling, secures rebaptism by immersion, by one not a minister of the Presbyterian Church?"

Answer: The action is clearly disorderly and in violation of Chap. xxviii, Sec. 7, of the Confession of Faith. But as it concerns the mode, rather than the substance, of a sacrament, whether the act is to be regarded as disciplinable, must be determined by the Session, in the light of the circumstances attending each particular case.

In the case of an elder, the Form of Government (Chap. xiii, Secs. 6, 7) makes it clear that in certain circumstances he should at least "cease to be an acting elder," and the Session should "take order on the subject."

Overture No. 4, from the Presbytery of Baltimore, asking, "Is the provision of the Form of Government (Chap. xii, Sec. 2) for sending Commissioners to the General Assembly by each Presbytery mandatory or discretionary? 1. As to sending an equal number of bishops and elders? 2. As to sending the full number to which each Presbytery is entitled?

Answer: Mandatory as to both.

Overture No. 5, from the Presbytery of Lake Superior, as to the Presbyterial relation of the county of Gogebic, Mich.:

Answer: Since the churches in Gogebic county, Mich., seem to prefer their existing connection with the Synod of Wisconsin, and to be greatly convenienced thereby, and since no manifest gain to the two churches in Gogebic county, or to the Presbytery of Lake Superior, would be secured thereby, beyond adjustment of boundaries by lines coterminous with those of the State, your Committee recommend that Gogebic county, Mich., be retained for the time being in the Synod of Wisconsin.

Overture No. 6, from the Presbytery of Chicago, on the subject of divorce.

Answer: In view of the discussion now in progress with reference both to the method and extent of Revision, the Committee recommend that no action be taken by this Assembly, and that the Overture be referred to the Special Committee on Revision to be appointed by this Assembly.

Overture No. 7, from the Presbytery of Cayuga. The following action was taken by the General Assembly of 1874 (see "Minutes," p. 82):

"When two churches in different Presbyteries, or Synods, are so situated as to make it apparent to the Presbyteries to which they belong that they should be united in one pastoral charge, the pastoral relation may be constituted; and both churches shall for the time being be under the care of that Presbytery of which the pastor is a member, and this Presbyterial relation shall continue only so long as they retain the same pastor."

The above action is silent as to how and by whom this pastoral relation over two churches in different Presbyteries is to be constituted, and as to the time when, and the process by which, one of such churches shall be transferred to the jurisdiction of the other Presbytery.

The Presbytery of Cayuga, having experienced certain difficulties in carrying out said "action," and having had our act under it declared "irregular" by the Synod of New York (see printed "Minutes" of the Synod of New York for 1889, p. 47), respectfully overtures the General Assembly to take such further action, supplementing the action of 1874, and in harmony therewith, as shall specifically authorize either of the Presbyteries to which the two congregations belong, upon the consent and concurrence of the other Presbytery, to constitute the pastoral relation over the two congregations; and as shall authorize the Stated Clerks of said Presbyteries to transfer, for the time being, either church, as required, to the roll and jurisdiction of the Presbytery of which the pastor is a member. Without presuming to judge the matter, we also respectfully suggest that the Presbytery of which the minister is a member, and to the care of which the congregation is to be transferred, is naturally the one to constitute, with the consent and concurrence of the other Presbytery, the pastoral relation over both congregations.

Answer: The Committee recommend the following answer as supplemental to the action of 1874 (Digest, p. 491):

The Presbytery of which the minister is a member, and to the care of which, for the time being, one of the churches is to be transferred, shall constitute, with the consent and concurrence of the other Presbytery, the pastoral relation over both churches. But the Presbytery from which the church is temporarily to be removed, should first authorize the transfer of said church, and direct its Stated Clerk to give notice of the same both to the church and to the other Presbytery.

Overture No. 8, from the Synod of Missouri, asking: 1. Is it legal for a Presbytery to dissolve a pastoral relation without a regularly called meeting of the congregation being had, and its action touching the pastoral relation reported to the Presbytery? 2. Is a pastor a member of a Session when by the action of Session another minister acts as moderator, and is he such a member of the Session that he may be appointed by the Session as prosecutor in a trial of a member?

Answer: To the first question, yes. To the second question, yes.

Respectfully submitted, HERRICK JOHNSON, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Continental Presbyterian Churches reported as follows:

The Committee on Coöperation with the Protestant Churches on the Continent report that, although the Committee was continued by the Assembly of last year, there has not been any occasion for a meeting, the Secretaries and Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches being relied on to ascertain and report the fields on the Continent that need, and that may be properly commended for, aid from American churches.

The necessity for this Committee does not appear to continue, and it is suggested that it be discharged, and that the American Secretary of the Alliance be requested to communicate with the Secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions, through which Board aid has been rendered to Continental churches.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN HALL, Chairman.

The Report was adopted, and the Committee discharged.

The Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges and Academies presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by the Rev. Hervey D. Ganse, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges and Academies reports that this—the youngest born of our Boards—is a remarkable child for its years. It has been healthy and vigorous from the hour of its birth. It is healthy and vigorous still. It is no longer in swaddling-clothes. It has "fulfilled its work" of years, and appears before you to-day with "the promise and potency" of a still more healthy and vigorous life in the years to come. It has come; and it has come to stay. It is no longer an experiment—it is a fact.

That such an agency is needed to superintend and push forward the work of higher Christian education in this land, is too evident to admit of argument. The wonder is that such an educational agency did not appear in such a Church as ours long before. The mighty tide of population is flowing westward in irresistible currents, and some of us will live to see a vaster empire west of the Mississippi than east of it. Prof. Fisk, a cautious and conservative thinker, estimates that a hundred years hence the United States will contain a population of not less than six hundred millions. This may be exaggeration, or it may not. The undisputed fact remains, that our population is increasing very fast. All missionary work is important at all times, but there are times when special forms of missionary work call for immediate action. The Board of Aid is doing such missionary work, and the time to push that work is now. Grants of land for school and college sites are now offered to us which will not be available later on. And as the population we have is now shaped under the redeeming and uplifting influences of the Gospel, by means of school, and academy, and college, and toiling missionary, so shall be the larger population of the years to come.

Your Committee have read attentively and considered carefully the able and elaborate Report of the Board submitted to this Assembly. We congratulate the Assembly and the Board on the work accomplished by it. Some of us said sadly, when this Board was created: "Another Board for an annual collection." But it has already more than proved its right to an annual collection, and, therefore, its right to be. We call the attention of the Assembly to the following facts stated in the Report:

The number of contributing churches has risen steadily from year to year. In its first year it had 480 contributing churches; in its second, 1330; in its third, 1529; in its fourth, 1761; in its fifth, 1865; in its sixth, 1902; and its seventh, 2030. And the increase of its receipts has kept step with the increase of contributing churches. In its first year it received less than $15,000; this year more than $84,000.

This is the bright side of the picture. Look at the other side. Of the $84,000 received by the Board, only $32,000 came from the churches, the rest being gifts from individual donors and legacies; and of the 6800 churches on the roll of the Assembly, only 2030 contributed to this Board. We have inquired diligently into the causes of this lack of loyalty on the part of more than two-thirds of our churches, to the recommendations of Assembly after Assembly, which call upon every church to take up a yearly collection for this Board; and we are persuaded that the neglect arises, partly from misconception, and partly from carelessness on the part of pastors and church Sessions. Many churches take annual collections for this Board, and then pay the same, not into its treasury, but into the treasury of some local institution of learning, very needy and highly deserving, but not under the Board's care, thinking that thereby they have fulfilled their obligations to the Board and to the Assembly. Hence it is that so many churches reported as contributing to "Aid for Colleges" in the "Minutes of the Assembly," appear as non-contributors in the Report of this Board. This is not right. Every collection for this Board ought to be paid promptly into the treasury of the same. We trust that the members of this Assembly will return to their Presbyteries with this Board as a special burden upon their hearts, and do what they can to bring light concerning this Board, where now there is dense darkness, that so the non-contributing churches may come up to the full measure of Gospel requirement in respect to this important arm of our denominational life and work.

There are so many things worthy of special commendation and emphasis in the policy of the Board, that we hardly know where to begin, or which to commend the most. In its wise caution in withholding aid from institutions whose prospects of permanence are not hopeful; in its settled purpose to help only those which manifest a disposition to help themselves; in its discouragement of the multiplication of useless schools and colleges; in its unswerving loyalty to its original determination to keep out of debt, never having "carried a dollar of deficit to a new year;" in its reduction of old debts and its prevention of new ones; in all these things and many more the policy and work of the Board are worthy of all praise.

Your Committee desire to call special attention to the Board's policy of preventing new debts. Such debts for current expenses were being created from year to year in many of the aided institutions. For example, the balance-sheets of 1888–9 of the aided institutions showed, that the outgo for current expenses had exceeded the income by about $30,000. This was putting money into "bags with holes." The evil must be arrested, and it has been, by an arrangement made for the emergency between trustees, teachers and the Board. It has been so successful as to secure for every institution the important result of balanced books, and at the same time greatly to increase the teachers' income for the year. In the future, the Board's arrangement for the prevention of this great evil, is made by stipulation between itself and the several boards of trustees.

Your Committee have carefully examined the minutes of the Board, and find them correctly kept, and recommend their approval.

In view of the foregoing facts we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That this Assembly recognizes with gratitude the manifold blessings of God upon the work of this Board in the seven years of its history, and earnestly prays that these blessings may be multiplied in the years to come.

2. That we heartily appreciate the fidelity, zeal and businesslike sagacity with which the Board has carried forward the work committed to its care.

3. That its Seventh Annual Report shows it to have reached such a stage, both of results and of efficiency, as warrants a great and immediate increase of its resources.

4. That its success in removing all debt from many of its most valuable school properties, its good prospect of rapidly reducing what debt remains, and its twofold policy of preventing future debt and of securing all property gifts by lien, deserve the attention and coöperation of all who wish to make safe investments in behalf of Christian education.

5. That as rapidly as any college or academy is cleared of debt the Board be advised to state in the Church magazine, and in its Annual Report, the nature and value of the property so cleared, and that individual givers are hereby urged to arrange with the Board for so endowing such schools by secured investments, that they shall be established in their work, and relieve the Board from yearly contributing to their support.

6. That in order to encourage the work of endowment by personal gifts, it is of the first importance that the churches by their annual collections, make adequate provision for the Board's supply of current aid to unendowed institutions; and that for the year now begun the churches be urged to raise their joint contributions for this purpose to the sum of $60,000; and to hold all collections taken in the Board's name sacred to its distinctive work as administered by itself.

7. That the following persons be and hereby are elected members of the Board to serve three years, namely: Ministers—S. J. Niccolls, D.D., J. H. Worcester, Jr., D.D., Robert Christie, D.D., H. D. Jenkins, D.D., and Thomas C. Hall to fill the unexpired term of John F. Kendall, D.D., deceased; Laymen—John C. Grant, W. O. Hughart, Henry W. Johnson, Dexter A. Knowlton.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN HEMPHILL, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges also presented a supplementary Report, as follows:

An Overture from the Synod of Catawba, on the matter of directing the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies to change their rule, inhibiting them from giving aid to colleges and academies for freedmen, having been referred to this Committee, we recommend the following:

That the Overture be answered in the negative, as the matter of planting and nurturing schools for the freedmen, more properly belongs to the Board of Freedmen, than to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

The Report of the Special Committee on the Publishing Outfit of the Board of Publication was taken up, and Elder H. E. Simmons, Chairman, was heard. Pending discussion, the time of adjournment arrived, and the Report was made the Order of the Day for to-morrow at 2.30 P.M.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 20, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of the cause of Home Missions, in accordance with the programme submitted by the Committee of Arrangements.

WEDNESDAY, May 21, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Special Committee to Memorialize the National Congress on the Liquor Traffic presented its Report, which was received, and referred to the Standing Committee on Temperance. A resolution on the decision of the Supreme Court concerning the sale of liquor in the original packages, was also referred to the Standing Committee on Temperance.

A resolution on the subject of coöperation of churches was referred to the Standing Committee on Church Polity.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by the Rev. Frank F. Ellinwood, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions beg leave to report that, the work of the past year in foreign fields under the direction of our Board, bears witness to the faithfulness of the great Head of the Church, who, on giving the commission, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," gave also the promise, "Lo! I am with you alway, even unto the end."

The Board has suffered an unusual number of losses from its force during the past year. On May 22, 1889, Rev. James P. Wilson, D.D., who had been a member of the Board since the reunion of the Presbyterian Church, was called to his rest after a brief illness, leaving in the Board and throughout the Church a deep impression of the sincerity and earnestness of his character, and of the depth of his missionary interest.

On October 26, 1889, Hon. Hooper C. Van Vorst, a Judge of the Superior Court of New York, died very suddenly, entailing a great loss upon the Board, of which he had been for a number of years a member and a legal adviser.

On December 28, 1889, Robert Carter, a name well known throughout the Church and the country, was called to his rest. He had been a member of the Board since 1843.

Of our workers in the field, Rev. William Calderwood, of the India Mission, died May 22, 1889, after a long term of service.

Rev. C. DeHeer, long a successful missionary in West Africa, died October 20, 1889.

Prof. W. T. Findley and Miss Addie T. Ramsey, both of whom contracted yellow fever on their way to South America, died just upon the threshold of their work. We deplore the loss of these devoted missionaries, but rejoice that, though the worker dies, the work goes on.

Liberia.—The work in Liberia during the past year has not fulfilled the expectations of the workers on the field, or the Church. But three were added on confession of faith. We should therefore unite in special prayers for this field, that next year may show a large harvest from this year's sowing. The Board's Report suggests that the lack of success in Liberia may in some measure be due, to the exclusive employment of persons of color in prosecuting the work, and intimates a partial change of policy. It also suggests a seminary for girls, and a theological hall for boys, in order to the training of efficient Christian workers.

Gaboon and Corisco.—In spite of the restrictions of the French Government and the opposition of the Roman Catholics, the work in the Gaboon and Corisco mission has been bravely pushed and greatly prospered. A new house of worship has been dedicated at Baraka, two new churches, one of seventy-six members and the other of fifty-two, have been organized in the Kangwe station, and sixty-five persons received during the first six months.

Dr. Nassau writes from Talaguga, "The aspect of my work in 1889 is more encouraging than in any previous year."

Mr. Good, now in this country, found a class of fifty inquirers at Bata, another of over fifty at Evuni, and was greeted with audiences of 300 to 400 three times a day at Egara.

At Batanga, in German territory, where a quiet work has been carried on, a station and church have been established after correspondence with the German Government, which granted liberty to teach in the vernacular.

One hundred and fifty-three have been added to the churches of the Gaboon and Corisco mission during the past year.

Brazil.—No one who loves the coming of Christ's kingdom can read the reports from Brazil without feeling his pulses bound.

The marvelous political revolution which has taken place brought in the fullest political liberty. It has been like the quickening rays of spring on the repressed life of Protestantism.

The new work laid on our already overworked missionaries is simply overwhelming. They must have immediate reinforcements—large reinforcements—if Protestant Christianity is going to enter in and help in the remoulding of society.

The Report calls attention to the fact that the largest ingatherings were made by native pastors. This argues in favor of all the measures inaugurated for the training of a native ministry. Two hundred and seventy souls were received into the churches and $5775 contributed to the National Missions Fund.

Chili.—Decided steps in advance have also been taken in Chili. Among them the installation of the first Chilian pastor, the securing of a lot for a permanent home for the Instituto Internacional, and the entrusting of the work of publication, heretofore managed by the mission, to the native Presbytery. From all directions come reports of the declining power of Romanism.

Colombia.—This is a field occupied by a small corps of workers. The progress has been encouraging, and the Church may look forward with assured hope to the conversion of many to the true Christian faith.

Mexico appeals with peculiar interest to the people of the United States. It is our nearest neighbor, and linked to us by bands of steel. Our mission work makes steady progress. "The Yankees are exerting a notable influence on our language, our commerce and our religion," is the testimony of a daily paper in Mexico City.

A most cordial spirit of harmony exists among the various Protestant missions. The Temperance Society organized by the women at the Missionary Assembly of 1888, has already produced good results. Encouraging progress is reported in the matter of self-help. Young people's societies and mission bands are being organized, and the question of organizing a Mexican Home Mission Board was agitated at the last meeting of the Presbytery of Mexico.

Papal Europe.—In Papal Europe there is much ground for encouragement. The Waldenses are striving, with historic bravery, to grasp from the hands of Rome the fair land of Italy. All France is open to evangelistic effort, and the churches are successfully striving, in the face of Rome, to give the people a pure Gospel. Our Church sent the past year $6418 to bid them a substantial God-speed.

Persia.—In general it may be said of Persia that an awakening has begun. The Shah has made a third visit to Europe, and now leads the new era of progress. Banks, railways, mines, manufactories, highways are projected and being built. With this general advance our mission work is trying to keep pace. The schools and the college are being well equipped and gather in a large number of students. Special thanksgiving is demanded by the cheering news that no less than 400 persons have been converted at Oroomiah, and the blessed work still continues.

China.—To the great field of China our Board sent an unusual number of new missionaries last year. Sixteen went to the Shantung province alone. But there has been much sickness intermitting the labors of some of the ablest workers. Notwithstanding the policy of our Government towards the Chinese, which cannot fail to have a repressive influence on mission work in proportion as it becomes known, there have been good ingatherings, especially in the famine districts, where the high quality of Christian charity has been exhibited during the past year.

Itinerating preaching has been diligently pursued. Two colleges, one at Tungchow, with 115 students, and one at Canton, with 66, besides 120 other schools with 2500 pupils, are spreading the leaven of civilization and Christianity.

The hospitals and dispensaries have drawn at least 100,000 persons under the influence of the Christian teacher, in most advantageous surroundings. In this connection we note the splendid success of the female physicians. Medical missions open the doors to the lofty and lowly alike. They deserve increased support.

The greatest discouragement in China is the vast amount of work waiting to be done, if there were only somebody there to do it. Report comes from the Shantung province alone that there are over 450 inquirers, and others coming daily.

Chinese and Japanese in America.—As to the Chinese in America, the "Exclusion Act" is keeping them out and driving them out, and it vastly increases the difficulties of work for those who remain. Nevertheless thirty-nine Chinese and Japanese confessed Christ in our land last year. Those who go back carry a knowledge of Christ. One of these Chinaman gave a lot for the erection of a church. Of the Japanese coming to this country, it is said that a large number have been baptized in the United Church of Christ in Japan. Better facilities for caring for the young men are needed at San Francisco.

Siam.—The third mission station in this interesting Presbyterian mission field was opened this year, at Ratburee, where our missionaries took possession of a brick house given them by the government and founded a new station at a cost of less than $500. This indicates the spirit of the government towards the cause of missions. No wonder a missionary writes, "The doors in all parts of Siam are wide open," nor that the toilers in that vineyard appeal strongly for reinforcements.

Laos.—The Church in the Laos field has been of remarkably steady and rapid growth. There have been adult accessions at each monthly communion for the last twenty-two consecutive months, and fifty-five out of the last sixty-one months.

The closing examinations in the schools were attended by all the missionaries, and His Royal Highness, the heir apparent to the throne of Siam, was so highly pleased with the result that he promised a donation of Siamese text-books.

The medical work under care of Dr. Peoples has won such favor with the rulers that the First Governor gave a location for a hospital, and the Second Governor gave a lot for Mr. Taylor's residence.

The First Church of Cheung Mai received last year 136 adults and 82 children. It now has 524 members, and all the forms of regular church work.

Korea.—The results of the mission in Korea are almost marvelous. Providential openings are appearing in every direction. Dr. Arthur Mitchell writes from the field:

"I want you to tell the Board that notwithstanding all the perplexities which have attended the work in Korea, if they could see this group of young, intelligent and ardent men and women—the seed and certain prophecy of the true Church of Christ in Korea—if they could see their work and hear their prayers, they would stand up and sing a hymn of praise to God."

Japan.—At least four noteworthy causes have operated during the year against more rapid mission progress, viz.:

1. The indefinite postponement of treaty revision.
2. The abandonment, for the present, of Church Union.
3. The general poverty succeeding typhoons and floods.
4. The unique political situation.

Yet in spite of these unfavorable causes, the United Church of Japan (embracing seven Presbyterian bodies) received on confession last year 1348 new members.

One of the missions at its annual meeting passed the following resolution: "All who are acquainted with Japan, her history, her present condition, and the work of the United Church, agree that now is the time to push matters there."

India.—India presents one of the largest and most promising fields, yet one of the most difficult. The record of the year shows progress. The following items may be noted, viz.:

The increasing efficiency of native preachers; the growing disposition on the part of the churches to assume their support; the constantly widening influence of the schools; the gradual outreach of the work into ranks of the high-caste Brahmans, and best of all the quiet extension of woman's work in the Zenanas.

The medical work is also worthy of special mention. If Roman Catholicism boasts of the devotion of her priests to the lepers of the South Sea Islands, Presbyterianism cannot afford to forget the heroism of her own missionaries in the leper asylums of India.

One of the most significant signs of progress in India was the decision of the Supreme Court of Allahabad, that a convert of minor age may be baptized as a Christian, if his act is intelligent and free.

Syria.—In regard to Syria, the Board's Report says:

"The year's work has been much like that of the previous year in its obstacles, its trials, its successes, and its joys. The repressive measures of the government have been by no means prohibitive. The Lord's work continues to grow in influence and power. There has been an advance all along the lines. While a few schools still remain closed by the government, the number of pupils remains about the same. Additions to the Church, 98. The total membership has doubled in ten years. "Earnest prayer is asked that freedom of conscience may be granted to all."

North American Indians.—Turning to the North American Indians, we find that one-tenth of the entire population of the Dakotas are communicants in the Protestant Church, and contribute an average of $2 per member.

At Flandreau, out of a total of 221 Indians, 114 are communicants in the Presbyterian Church. Many of them have learned to preach and teach, superintend Sabbath-schools and conduct meetings and plan Christian work. All this is certainly evidence of intellectual and spiritual progress.

Women's Boards.—The Report of the Women's Boards calls for grateful recognition of the fact, that while the contributions of the churches have fallen off from the record of former years, the gifts of our Christian women show a steady increase, the net gain of the year 1889–90 being $7751.29. The grand total of $309,908.49, more than one-third of the entire revenue of the Board, gives ample evidence of the importance of the work now carried forward by the devoted women of our beloved Church. We bid them God-speed.

The Financial Statement of the Board is commended to the careful perusal of the General Assembly. We would like to have every Commissioner, every member of the Church, weigh the sums appropriated to the various stations for the year, and ask themselves if they were too generous. Was $31,155 too much to devote to the evangelization of Africa? or $40,201 too much for all the mission work that ought to be done in Siam and Laos? or $147,389 for China? or $141,522 for India? Are not these sums pitifully small to equip forces, send them to the enemies' country and support them in all their operations? If not too large, then let the Church answer why out of her abundance she has refused to meet them.

The Financial Statement of the Board is such as to awaken our profound solicitude. An apparent shortage of $58,749.41, a real disparity in receipts and appropriations amounting to more than $100,000, presents to this General Assembly a problem which must be solved, and yet cannot be solved without the most prayerful wisdom on the part of this body and the most strenuous endeavor of the entire Church. The appropriations of the Board amounted to $907,972, but the receipts of the Board wherewith to meet them amounted to only $794,066, leaving a shortage of $113,906. The fact that the Board has balanced its books before being called upon to meet all these appropriations, owing to the change of the fiscal year in some of the missions, does not alter the real condition of things. There is a shortage of more than $100,000, and the most serious phase of this condition is, that it is the second year of the decline in receipts—1888, $901,180; 1889, $852,815; 1890, $794,066.

The detailed statement of receipts shows that thirteen Synods exhibit a slight gain and fifteen a heavy loss. The majority of the strong Synods are found in the latter class. The number of churches contributing this year was only 3744, thirteen less than last year. The amount received direct from them was only $291,719, $16,959 less than last year, and $37,623 less than the year previous. Had it not been that the women and Sabbath-schools increased their gifts more than $4000, the deficit would have been even heavier than it is. Never but possibly once before has this beloved cause been so compassed about with trials, and the difficulties of the present situation are aggravated by the fact that our other benevolent Boards are, with a single exception, in a similar strait. Something must be done and that right soon. We cannot for a moment think of retrenchment. The work must go on. The time has not yet come for the Presbyterian Church in these United States, to withdraw her hand one inch from the sublime enterprise of evangelizing the nations. That time, please God, will never come. But if we are to meet our responsibilities, pursuing the work so splendidly carried on thus far, this General Assembly must face the issue, and the Church must meet it. The Finance Committee of the Board have presented the matter to your Standing Committee in terms of extreme concern. They represent that estimates from the field for the year 1888–89 called for $920,000; those for 1889–90 called for $1,015,000; and now those for 1890–91 call for $1,047,000, subject to the action of this General Assembly. For each of the two former years an appropriation of $850,000 was made. These amounts, however, were increased by special appropriations of $50,000 each year, for objects not anticipated but seemingly indispensable. It was believed that the Church would respond to these appropriations, made necessary by the very success which had been vouchsafed to the foreign work. But the receipts for the first year fell off $50,000, and $58,000 measures the further decline of the year just closed.

On the 2d of June prox., the Board must determine the amount of its appropriations for the new current year, and is confronted with a depleted and diminishing treasury, wherewith to sustain the growing work to which the Church is pledged. The problem is how to carry forward a million-dollar enterprise, with such resources as the Church seems willing to supply, to wit, $795,000. Evidently the funds at the disposal of the Board must be largely increased, or its expenditures must be essentially curtailed; there is no alternative. The Finance Committee are unwilling to believe that the Church will consent to a retrograde movement, and are confident that, upon a proper understanding of the case, relief will come. They invite attention to the fact that the cause is more and more becoming dependent for its maintenance upon the estates of dead men (and women), and the splendid activity of living women, while the churches as such show a sad and constant decline.

It is suggested that the receipts from legacies, which must always of necessity be an uncertain and unknown resource, should be reserved for the purchase of real estate on mission fields and the erection thereon of buildings for residential, school and church purposes; and that the Church from its living membership and divers agencies should furnish the necessary means for the active and appropriate work of Christian evangelization.

It will be seen that the condition is such that no spasmodic effort, however skillfully devised or vigorously executed, can meet the situation and provide a permanent remedy. Nothing will avail but some new force that shall arrest the decline of liberality, and induce a flow of consecrated gifts commensurate with the ability of the Church, and with its splendid opportunities for missionary service. Your Committee beg the Assembly to consider the situation and help to discover the cause and the remedy. If the Church has lost confidence in the policy of the Board, and are dispensing their gifts through other channels, it is for the Assembly to devolve the burden of administration upon other shoulders. If the Church is not adequately informed concerning the claims of this work, the Assembly may be able to suggest some more effective measures for instructing the people. If the grace of giving is dying out among us, if the abundance of wealth is checking the fountains of charity, or if the ear of the Church is growing dull to the great cry of a Christless world, the Assembly has the authority to exhort the people of God to reconsecrate themselves and their possessions to His service.

What now shall be done to remedy this portentous disorder? We must not for a moment yield to despondency, or incline to the thought of either falling behind our past record, or standing still. The Chairman of the Finance Committee says, in a personal note: "We are perplexed, but not in despair, * * * cast down, but not destroyed." Let the General Assembly meet this solicitude on the part of its servants by devising large things for the coming year. Despair! Why should they despair? The people of the Presbyterian Church—the great Presbyterian Church—have an abundance of the Lord's trust-funds in their possession. Now, if ever, He claims His own. The blast of the old-time silver trumpet that awoke all Israel to action, is heard again, "To the help of the Lord!" The emergency is upon us. Shall we meet it? We can, we must; God helping us, we will.

Your Committee beg to offer the following recommendations:

1. That the minutes of the Board, which have been examined and found in order, be signed as approved.

2. That the election of new members in accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, authorizing the enlargement of the Board from fifteen to twenty-one, be ratified; the new members being as follows: Ministers—Joseph R. Kerr, D.D., William R. Richards, John Balcom Shaw; Elders—Edward Wells, Alexander Maitland, John Sloane and D. W. McWilliams.

3. That the retiring class of the Board be reëlected, as follows: Ministers—Charles K. Imbrie, D.D., George Alexander, D.D., Joseph R. Kerr, D.D., William R. Richards; Elders—Henry Ide, Warner Van Norden and D. W. McWilliams.

4. That in answer to an Overture from the Presbytery of Washington City, asking that the simultaneous meetings be held in some other than the first week in November, the General Assembly recommend that such meetings be held hereafter during the first week in December.

5. That in response to Overtures from forty-eight Presbyteries, asking for the appointment of a field secretary, the Board be authorized to find a suitable man at the earliest moment, and appoint him for a period not to exceed three years, provided, a sufficient sum shall be privately secured to meet his salary for that time.

6. That in answer to an Overture from the Presbytery of Lima, protesting against the appointment of a field secretary, we refer to the foregoing answer to Overtures from forty-eight Presbyteries petitioning for such appointment, as a necessary adjunct to our present working force.

7. That with reference to an Overture of the Presbytery of Lima, requesting that the North American Indians be taken from under the control of the Board of Foreign Missions, and placed in charge of the Board of Home Missions, answer be made that a gradual transfer has been going on for several years; that special reasons exist in cases where such transfer has not been made, and that the further adjustment of the matter may safely be left to the two Boards, in accordance with the action of former Assemblies.

8. That we congratulate those godly women of the Church, who, during the past year of depression and retrogression, have not suffered their zeal to abate, but have opened their hearts and hands more largely than ever, to the blessed work of evangelizing the earth, and that we invoke the divine blessing upon them, praying that they may be able to do yet more and more abundantly for the upbuilding of the kingdom of Christ.

9. That we urge a wider circulation of our magazine, The Church at Home and Abroad. The people are derelict for lack of knowledge. It is of the utmost importance that every family in the Church should be informed as to the work going on in missionary fields.

10. That we counsel our Sessions to see that due attention is given in our Sunday-schools to the work of Foreign Missions, and that the children be encouraged to contribute generously, aiming at a sum total of not less than $50,000 for the current year.

11. That we suggest to our people, that, so far as practicable, their contributions for benevolent causes should pass through the regular and appointed channels of the Presbyterian Church. Without reflecting, in any wise, on the worthiness of other causes, we venture to urge that always, but certainly in the present exigency, our prime duty is to furnish an adequate support to our own. We should refuse all generous diversions, until we shall have redeemed our moral pledges to our own Boards.

12. That the Monthly Concert of Prayer for Foreign Missions, or some similar service, should be maintained in all our churches, as affording a suitable opportunity for a presentation of the claims of the various mission fields, to the end that an intelligent and prayerful interest may be taken in the work.

13. An annual collection taken upon a single Sabbath should not of itself be considered a discharge of duty in any church with reference to the support of the Foreign Missionary work. If this were its only dependence the great enterprise must languish. We, therefore, recommend the subscription plan, or the systematic pledge plan, to be used in connection with the plate collection, in which every member of the Church shall have an opportunity to give.

14. That, in view of the present emergency, a special collection be taken in all the churches on some Sabbath in June, if practicable; if not, certainly not later than October, and that all the undesignated contributions made at such time be divided equally between the Home and Foreign Boards.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

DAVID JAMES BURRELL, Chairman.

The following additional resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly pledges itself to do all it can to secure $1,000,000 for the Board of Foreign Missions the coming year, and authorizes the Board to make its appropriations in view of such an income.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of Foreign Missions, in accordance with the programme submitted by the Committee of Arrangements.

THURSDAY, May 22, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The following telegram was received:

The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in session at Union City, Tennessee, most tenderly reciprocate your fraternal greetings. See II Corinthians xiii, 13, 14.

THOMAS C. BLAKE, Stated Clerk.

The Rev. Principal T. Charles Edwards, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church of Wales, by invitation, addressed the Assembly. The Moderator made an appropriate response.

The Judicial Committee reported:

Judicial Case No. 1. Being the complaint of the Rev. Dr. Nathaniel West, against the Synod of Minnesota. The Judicial Committee find the papers in order, and recommend that a commission be appointed by this General Assembly to hear and issue the complaint, at this session of the Assembly. A Judicial Commission was accordingly appointed, consisting of: Ministers—Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D., Thomas A. Hoyt, D.D., Benjamin F. Bittinger, D.D., John T. Oxtoby, D.D., J. P. E. Kumler, D.D., Robert E. Flickinger, Eben B. Cobb; Elders—George Junkin, James D. Thornton, Henry B. Sayler, Robert H. Hinckley, Robert McClellan, Nathaniel W. Voorhees and John E. Myers, who were directed and authorized to adjudicate the case.

The following paper was adopted:

Whereas, The resolution adopted yesterday relative to the Board of Publication provided that only the Business Committee of the Board should appear before the Committee of seven to be appointed by this Assembly, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Special Committee on the Publishing Outfit of the Board of Publication, be continued another year, in order to appear before the Committee of seven; also,

Resolved, That we extend to the Special Committee a vote of thanks for their faithful services during the past year.

The Special Committee on Methods of Effecting Changes in the Confession of Faith and Constitution of the Church presented its Report, which was adopted with but one dissenting vote. The Assembly united in prayer and thanksgiving to God for the harmonious conclusion reached. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on Methods of Effecting Changes in the Confession of Faith and the Constitution of the Church respectfully reports to the General Assembly, as follows:

The Committee was appointed by the General Assembly of 1887, was continued by the General Assemblies of 1888 and 1889, and enlarged by the General Assembly of 1890.

As now constituted the Committee consists of Ministers—William H. Roberts, James T. Leftwich, Everard Kempshall, Henry J. Van Dyke, Francis L. Patton, Robert M. Patterson, Herrick Johnson; Ruling Elders—William Strong, Robert N. Willson, George Junkin, Henry B. Sayler and Henry Day.

The Committee has considered carefully the entire matter entrusted to it, and has reached the following conclusions as preliminary to its recommendations:

1. That this Church has always emphasized doctrine as being the vital element in the body ecclesiastic, and that, therefore, changes or alterations in the Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms should be made under greater restrictions than changes or alterations in the Form of Government, the Book of Discipline and the Directory for Worship.

2. That the provisions for the amendment or alteration of the several standards should be included within the Form of Government in definite terms.

In view, therefore, of these considerations, and also of the requirement of the General Assembly ("Minutes," 1887, p. 80), that this Committee report "what action, if any, is, in their judgment, desirable"—

The Committee recommends that the following Overture be transmitted to the Presbyteries for their action, viz.:

1. Shall a chapter be added to the Form of Government making provision for the amendment and alteration of the Confession of Faith, the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, the Form of Government, the Book of Discipline and the Directory for Worship, and in the words following:

CHAPTER XXIII. OF AMENDMENTS.

Section 1. Amendments or alterations of the Form of Government, Book of Discipline and Directory for Worship, may be proposed by the General Assembly to the Presbyteries, but shall not be obligatory on the Church unless a majority of all the Presbyteries approve thereof in writing.

Section 2. Amendments or alterations of the Confession of Faith, and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, may be proposed to the Presbyteries by the General Assembly, but shall not be obligatory on the Church unless they shall be approved in writing by two-thirds of all the Presbyteries, and agreed to and enacted by the General Assembly next ensuing, and the written votes of the Presbyteries shall be returned to that Assembly.

Section 3. Before any amendments or alterations of the Confession of Faith, or the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, proposed by the General Assembly, shall be transmitted to the Presbyteries, the General Assembly shall appoint—to consider the subject—a Committee of ministers and ruling elders, in number not less than fifteen, of whom not more than two shall be from any one Synod, and the Committee shall report its recommendations to the General Assembly next ensuing, for action.

Section 4. No alterations of the provisions contained in this chapter for amending or altering the Confession of Faith, and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, or of this fourth section, shall be made, unless an Overture from the General Assembly, submitting the proposed alterations, shall be transmitted to all the Presbyteries, and be approved in writing by two-thirds of their number, and be agreed to and enacted by the General Assembly.

Section 5. It shall be obligatory on the General Assembly to transmit to the Presbyteries for approval or disapproval, any Overture respecting amendments or alterations provided for in this chapter, which shall be submitted to the same General Assembly by one-third of all the Presbyteries. In such cases, the Overture shall be formulated and transmitted by the General Assembly receiving the same to the Presbyteries for their action, subject, as to all subsequent proceedings, to the provisions of the foregoing sections.

Section 6. Whenever it shall appear to the General Assembly that any proposed amendments or alterations of the Form of Government, Book of Discipline and Directory for Worship, shall have received a majority vote of all the Presbyteries, the General Assembly shall declare such amendments or alterations to have been adopted, and the same shall immediately go into effect.

Section 7. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to affect the right of two-thirds of the Presbyteries to propose amendments or alterations of the Confession of Faith, and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, or of the General Assembly to agree to and enact the same.

2. Shall Sec 6, Chap. xii, of the Form of Government be stricken out?

Your Committee would also recommend that the Presbyteries be required and directed to answer the Overture as a whole, by a simple yea or nay, and to report their answers to the Stated Clerk in time for the presentation of the same to the next General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Special Committee of Canvass of the Answers on Revision, presented its Report, which was received, and after discussion was recommitted. In connection with this subject it was

Resolved, That in the list of Presbyteries affirming their unwillingness to revise so as to change the System of Doctrine contained in the Westminster Confession of Faith, the names of Presbyteries so resolving but not so reported to the Assembly's Committee be inserted by the Stated Clerk, after the rising of this Assembly, upon proper certification of the facts.

A resolution was offered that a Committee on Revision of the Confession of Faith of this Church be appointed by this Assembly. The resolution was made the Order of the Day for to-morrow morning at 10.30 o'clock.

The Report of the Special Committee on Church Unity was taken up, and after discussion, was made the Order of the Day for 4 o'clock to-morrow, P.M.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 22, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Permanent Committee on Enrollment reported that the Rev. Dr. James T. Leftwich, principal Commissioner from the Presbytery of Baltimore, had taken his seat but had been called away, and would not be able to return, and recommended that the Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., an alternate Commissioner from the same Presbytery, be enrolled. The recommendation was adopted, and Dr. Smith was enrolled.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance presented its Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

From all sections of the United States and Territories, and from foreign lands, tidings have been constantly coming during the past year that indicate the strong, steady and widespread uprising of public sentiment, Christian conscience and philanthropic, patriotic and religious agencies for the preservation and proper observance of the civil and the Christian Sabbath. Never within the present century has this subject taken so strong a hold upon the laboring classes in the Old and New Worlds. Imperial and republican governments on the continent of Europe, Germany and France, Switzerland, Belgium, and Great Britain, with other nations, have joined hands in social labor and hygienic congresses for securing the temporal blessings of the weekly rest day, to all classes of people who work with their bodies and their brains. In Great Britain the Sabbath question has been a living issue in parliament, and in the government and conduct of cities, and especially in the excellent work of the "Lord's Day Observance Society of London," and kindred associations in the great centres of population throughout the United Kingdom.

On this side of the Atlantic, we are pleased to make particular mention of the admirable work done in the Dominion under the direction of the Committee on Sabbath Observance, appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. For systematic movement, far-reaching methods, extending to every Presbytery, church session and pastor, and for satisfactory information and efficient results, we know of no other ecclesiastical organization so complete and so worthy of imitation, as this model church work for the preservation and sanctification of the Lord's day. But this ecclesiastical service to the cause, is only one auxiliary department of the larger general movement throughout the British Provinces of "The Lord's Day Alliance of Canada." Might not this General Assembly profitably refer the plan adopted by the sister church in Canada, a copy of which is herewith submitted, to its own Committee on Sabbath Observance for careful consideration, and for such recommendations as it may see fit to report for further action?

In our own country, the Sabbath question has come to the front in nearly every city, and in every State and territory in connection with Sabbath legislation, and the enforcement of the laws protecting the Sabbath against the encroachments and disturbances of railway and steamer traffic, excursions to the great summer resorts, public amusements, noisy processions, base-ball games, the opening of museums, theatres, concert rooms, libraries, art galleries, the secular Sunday newspapers, and, worst of all, the saloon power and all of its law-breaking allies. Against these and other classes of opposers the local Sabbath Associations, Law and Order Leagues and Citizens' Committees with the Women's Christian Temperance Union and some of the large labor organizations, have kept watch and waged war with much wisdom and zeal, courage and success. Conspicuous examples have been set in New York, Philadelphia, Binghamton, Boston, Brooklyn, Rochester, Cincinnati, Chicago, Denver, San Francisco, Washington, Baltimore, Wilmington, N.C., and other cities. And we are happy to add that in some of these places the good work has been successfully carried on by the legal officials of the local governments.

It has been the office of The American Sabbath Union, as the only national association for this object, to spread its literature, correspondence, auxiliaries, public assemblies, district and State agencies, and its legislative and social and ecclesiastical action in behalf of the civil and the religious observance of the Sabbath. It has kept vigilant watch over the aggressive, defiant, lawless and demoralizing work of the enemies of the Sabbath. Its publications, of more than a million pages of monthly documents, its weekly issue of "The Pearl of Days," published in The New York Mail and Express, and its First Annual Report, have been widely scattered over the United States, and they are still in constant demand. It has fostered the organization of local and State societies, which are doing excellent service as its auxiliaries. It has received the approval and confidence of nearly every great evangelical communion of churches in our country. It keeps itself clear of entangling alliances with other reformatory movements, confining itself to its constitutional limitations. It has encountered the fiercest opposition of the mighty saloon power of the land, and of other single and allied forces that are at war with Sabbath observance. It has faithfully endeavored in these and other ways to fulfill its mission so far as possible. The outlook may be readily forecast from this backlook, as the horizon widens and the lights and shadows blend together. If the efforts that have been made at Washington shall be successful, as we trust they will be, the future inaugurations of Presidents of the United States will take place on the first Wednesday in March of each new administrative term. We shall try to extend the organization of State and other auxiliary societies as rapidly as the ways shall open. The approaching exhibition of the industry of all nations at Chicago in 1892, will call forth all the wisdom, energy and decision of the friends of the American Sabbath, to prevent an international profanation of the national rest day throughout the prolonged period of the World's Fair. Already the tocsin of defiance has been sounded by our enemies, who demand its opening on every Sabbath of the Exposition.

In this contest, the American Sabbath Union will endeavor to do its whole duty as a national society in combination with all local societies and church bodies, that will unite their influence for the preservation of the Lord's day from this threatening evil. The good example set in the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition of 1876, and by the American Exhibition with the aid of our government officials at the Paris Exposition of 1889, should encourage the utmost unity of action for the Exhibition of 1893.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resoutions:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly receives with great satisfaction, the reports of progress made during the past year in Sabbath observance and reform in our own country, and in distant lands.

Resolved, 2. That the work of the American Sabbath Union be, and hereby is, cordially commended to our pastors and churches for their active coöperation and prayerful encouragement.

Resolved, 3. That Elliot F. Shepard, of New York; James A. Beaver, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Byron Sunderland, D.D., of Washington, D. C.; Herrick Johnson, D.D., of Chicago, Ill.; Samuel J. Nicolls, D.D., of St. Louis, Mo.; F. C. Monfort, D.D., of Cincinnati, O.; Robert J. Trumbull, of San Francisco, Cal., are continued as the Committee on Sabbath Observance.

Resolved, 4. That this General Assembly expresses the hope that the World's Fair, to be held in Chicago in 1893, will not be opened on the Sabbath.

Resolved, 5. That the first week of April, 1891, be observed by our churches as a period of special prayer for the blessing of Our Father which is in Heaven, upon all the people, that they may be led to a better observance of His Holy Sabbath Day.

Respectfully submitted,
ELLIOT F. SHEPARD, Chairman.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

A paper on Temperance was referred to the Standing Committee on that subject.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by the Rev. Erskine N. White, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Erection would respectfully report to the General Assembly that, we have carefully examined the Twentieth Annual Report of the Board of Church Erection Fund, the Treasurer's Report and the minutes of the Board for the year 1889–'90.

Again this year, as last, the Board reports loss by death among its members—this time a double loss. In January, Stephen H. Thayer, one of the original incorporators of the Board, and in March, Judge Bennington F. Randolph, a member of the Board since 1873, were called from their earthly service to their heavenly reward. Both of these servants of the Master had lived their three-score years and ten, and yet their deaths were unexpected and a sore bereavement. The Board has placed on its record a minute of its sense of loss and its respect for these fathers of the work, and then well says, "The workmen die, but the Church of Christ ever grows stronger and stronger."

In looking over the Annual Report, it appears that a larger number of churches have applied for aid during the past year than ever before, and that the amount asked for is larger in the aggregate, and larger in the average to each church, than heretofore. The contributions from the churches have likewise increased during the year, and the amount of appropriations returned in payment of mortgages has increased, and consequently the appropriations to the churches have increased; and yet, the increase in the resources of the Board have not nearly kept pace with the ever-increasing demands upon it. The demands for assistance are far outrunning the means supplied. The Church needs to appreciate more fully the importance and exceeding usefulness of this Board. It is not to be looked upon as one of the minor agencies of the Church. None is more important. One of the Secretaries of the Foreign Board, with no little enthusiasm, remarked to the Chairman of your Committee this week, "I do not know of any part of the work of the Church where a little money will go so far and do more good than in the hands of the Church Erection Board." We might add that if a little does much good here, larger means will do more.

Our Home Board, with the hundreds of thousands of dollars placed at its disposal (and that is not enough), may go forward and plant churches, but unless the Board of Church Erection comes after, to supply the means which enables these new and small churches to provide for themselves permanent houses of worship, the evangelizing work of the Church is certain to suffer great waste and loss. The Synod of Kansas, with its seven Presbyteries and nearly or quite four hundred churches, has little more than come to be of age, having been organized in 1869, or possibly in 1868. And of all these four hundred churches in Kansas, there are said to be less than half a dozen which have not been aided by this Board. For some years previous to the present, Kansas has received a larger number of appropriations than any other State. This year Kansas takes second place, having received fourteen grants, which is one less than Minnesota, while California has exactly the same, fourteen, and Iowa and Nebraska come next with thirteen and twelve each respectively.

During the year, applications for aid in the erection of houses of worship have been received from 200 churches. Appropriations have been made to 174, and 179 have been reported completed and dedicated without debt. While every home Synod in the Church, with the exception of Baltimore, has received aid for some of its churches, yet more than two-thirds of the churches aided by this Board lie west of the Mississippi river. The geographical centre of operations of this Board has for years vibrated within the State of Kansas. Will another half-century carry the centre of our Church population and influence across the great river? Certainly the rapid development of our country in the West ought to inspire us to undertake great things in the Lord's service. A single instance will illustrate the importance of this cause, and the rapidity with which returns of many fold are secured in the Church. It is not yet twenty-five years since the Home Mission pastor of the Second Church of Kansas City, was sent east to New York to secure $600 with which to erect their first house of worship. Since then this church has become strong enough to have planted numerous colonies, has had two General Assembly Moderators as its pastors, has returned an hundredfold all that it ever received, and now covets the whole General Assembly for next year. Was not that humble home missionary building better than he knew when, in 1866, he trudged to New York for his $600?

The contributions to the general treasury of the 3236 contributing churches, including individual and special gifts, have been $80,268.97. The total working income, including both funds, has been $126,113.42.

The total amount of grants has been, for churches, $96,394; for manses, $10,200; total for both objects, $106,594.

While there have been sixty-three more contributing churches this year than last, yet this increase is not nearly in proportion to the increase in the whole number of our churches. It is feared that among the non-contributing churches there are some that have received aid in past years which have forgotten or neglected their solemn promise to make an annual contribution to this cause.

It will be remembered that four years ago, in 1886, the Board received a special gift of $25,000, to be used as a "Manse fund," to be put out in loans to churches, without interest for three years, to assist in providing homes for ministers. In this work the Assembly directed the Board to fix "such limit as will confine the work to the feebler and mission churches," and also asked the stronger churches for contributions to this fund. The success of the Manse fund has surpassed expectations. Thirty-nine churches have applied for loans from this fund during the year, thirty-one of the number being from churches west of the Mississippi river. Twenty-six loans and one absolute grant (an exceptional case) have been made. Sixty-four of the churches which have received aid from the Manse fund during the past four years, have this past year returned their loans to the amount of $6956.42. The total amount of the Manse fund is now $33,207.26, though such is the nature of the fund that only about a third thereof is available for new loans in any one year. It is certainly to be regretted that the Assembly's recommendation of last year did not carry this fund to the full amount asked for, namely, $50,000.

In conclusion, your Committee submits the following recommendations for the action of the Assembly. We recommend:

1. That this Assembly commends the faithfulness of the Board and its Secretary, and approve their Annual Report, the Treasurer's Report and the minutes of the Board, as being full and admirably kept and recorded.

2. That this Assembly calls the attention of such churches as have received aid in the past, and are now strong and self-sustaining, to the desirability of paying off the mortgages which stand against their property. The conditions of these mortgages are such that no legal claim can be enforced under them, so long as the property continues to be used for purposes of worship according to our Presbyterian order. But the Assembly would press the moral obligation upon the Christian consciences of these churches to return the amount received, just so soon as a reasonable degree of financial strength has been attained. It is gratifying to know that during the past year over seven thousand dollars ($7412.50) have thus been returned by churches out of their present prosperity, to be again sent forth to help other churches. The Assembly calls attention to the fact that the rules of the Board permit a discharge of the mortgage, by an annual contribution to the Board's funds of ten per cent of the original grant till the whole is paid, or by a cash payment at one time of seventy-seven per cent of the original grant.

3. That churches expecting to apply for aid, be instructed to consult with the Board at the earliest possible stage of their efforts, before indebtedness is incurred or too large plans adopted.

4. That aid-applying churches be reminded that the purpose of the Board is to assist in providing comfortable houses for the youthfully weak, and not to provide enlargement or ornamentation for the mature or the strong.

5. That churches are earnestly urged to send all their contributions for this cause through the treasury of the Board. Private appeals for aid ought not to be encouraged, but emphatically discouraged. All contributions, whether general or special, should be sent through the Board so as to secure them to the Church.

6. That this Assembly emphasizes the importance of the Manse fund, and would press the churches to raise this as speedily as possible to at least $50,000.

7. That this Assembly believes that $150,000, exclusive of the Manse fund, is urgently demanded for the use of this Board, and hereby pleads with the churches to raise this amount for use during the coming year. The urgency of this demand will appear greater when it is known that the "special fund," which the Board has had at its disposal for some years, is now exhausted. Is it not possible that some other generous giver or givers stand ready to establish another such fund as the "Stuart fund" of the past?

8. That this Assembly commends for the use of Presbyteries and churches expecting to apply for aid the plans for buildings, both churches and manses, prepared under direction of the Board, and which will be furnished at cost when applied for. A new book of plans is soon to be published by the Board.

9. That the following members of the Board whose terms of office expire at the present time be reëlected, namely: Ministers—Samuel D. Alexander, D.D., Archibald McCullagh, D.D., Richard D. Harlan, Robert F. Sample, D.D.; Elders—William N. Crane, Benjamin F. Dunning.

Also we recommend that Elder Theron G. Strong, of New York, be elected to take the place of Stephen H. Thayer, deceased; and that Elder Joseph L. Munn, of New Jersey, be elected to take the place of Bennington F. Randolph, deceased.

All of which is respectfully submitted by the Committee.

DOUGLAS P. PUTNAM, Chairman.

The Report of the Special Committee on the Organization of Churches was received and placed on the Docket.

The Report of the Special Committee on Increasing the Number of Ministers was taken up, and discussed until the hour of adjournment. The Report was amended and adopted through Section No. 4, and the Assembly decided that the rules recommended by the Committee in sections three (3) and six (6) should be sent down to the Presbyteries as Overtures. The whole Report was then ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the "Minutes," and referred to the next General Assembly. The special attention of the Presbyteries was ordered to be called to this Report.

The Chairman of the Mileage Committee was authorized to pay the mileage bills of the Commissioners.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 22, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by the Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence has been engaged in its arduous and all-important labors for eleven years, and has presented to this body its Eleventh Annual Report.

This work has been done without the beating of drums, or the sound of trumpets, but it has moved forward steadily, intensified by the sense of the Church's great needs and guided by the warrant of clear Scriptural teaching, on a topic, hitherto largely neglected, but of supreme importance to the highest welfare of the Church and the world.

This Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence stands for the following principles. That God is to be worshiped by the offerings of His people—the proportionate consecration of income, as God hath prospered—that this proportionate giving should be directed by a judicious system—that no Christian who has or can procure income is exempt from this duty and privilege of giving for God. With the adoption of the principles which the Assembly, through the labors of this Committee, has so earnestly and laboriously sought to inculcate, is bound up to a certain extent the peace of each Christian life. For it is not too much to say, that when once the individual Christian has been taught that it is his solemn duty and high privilege to worship God with his offerings, drawn from that consecrated portion of his income, which principle, quickened by gratitude, has led him to devote to the divine service, he can no longer be at peace with himself, while the duty of laying by the separated portion remains unperformed. To touch the conscience of every Christian at this point, has been the supreme endeavor of the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence. That success in this endeavor has followed their wise Scriptural teachings, and energetic, pointed appeals, is witnessed in the fact, that a goodly number of our members have been brought to the fixed habit of worshiping God with proportionate offerings to their own inward comfort, and to the benefit of our Boards; and in the further fact, that many, very many, we believe, of our members have been awakened to this great fundamental duty of consecrating to God a proportionate part of their income. The inward peace of our awakened brethren will be found by others when they crystallize the principles on the subject of proper Christian giving, which have aroused thought into definite systematic action, by which God will receive back again, from willing hands, a reasonable part of that whole which He has so lovingly given. And to this present peace, many here can witness, who have struggled through former shiftless habits of giving, into the definite method of returning to God a calculated part of the daily, weekly or yearly gains.

And not only will there be a large access of inward comfort to the individual Christian who has realized and put in practice the principles inculcated by this Committee, but it may be said with exact precision and absolute confidence, that when a major part of our members have been dominated by these principles, and have learned to put them in practice, to the point of some definite, even though small, percentage of income devoted to the Lord, the time of trouble in regard to the generous and ever-increasing support of our Boards will have passed. And it may be safely added, that when our members at large have adopted the Scriptural principles, which this Committee has enumerated, there will be no bar to the advance of the Church, with its beneficent influences, into every destitute field upon the face of the earth. For out of the enriched soil of Christian consecration, from which comes a steady growth of proportionate offerings, will come also the devoted men and women called and prepared to carry the Gospel into all quarters.

If then we would seek a remedy for the difficulties which at the present beset the onward movement of our Church, considered as a missionary agency in the widest sense of the term, we must press the fundamental principles of true Christian giving on every man, woman and child who has or can procure an income, for in the thought of the Assembly's Committee, drawn directly from the Word of God, no one, who has or can procure an income, is exempt from the duty and privilege of giving for God.

We have eight organized Church agencies, intended and reasonably well fitted to carry on the large Christian enterprises to which our Church has devoted itself. We are accustomed to listen at each General Assembly to a full and detailed forth-setting of the labors, the triumphs and the troubles of these Boards. Every sort of appliance is gathered about the Reports of these Boards, which will assist to deepen the impression as to their value as Church agencies; to the important character of the work in which they are engaged; and as to crying needs for increased and regular financial support.

It is common to hear that this Board, or that one, has been hindered from entering upon work to which it has been imperiously summoned by the voice of God, by the insufficient support afforded by the Church, which has organized it. The Foreign Board cannot occupy strategic points for lack of money. A disturbing doubt hangs over our theological seminaries year after year, where our devoted young men are pondering the question of a life work among the heathen, as to the question of the Board's ability to forward men to the foreign field, when once they have offered their services. Now and again, notwithstanding the courage and faith of the Board, in granting commissions to men, in advance of pledged support, an ingenuous, consecrated young man must be stayed and discouraged by the decision, "we dare not, in common prudence, promise to send you this year." The Board of Education must decline each year to grant the ordinary aid to some earnest student for the ministry, seeking help in order to pursue his studies, or run the risk of incurring debt. The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies can hardly keep the young institutions from perishing for the lack of aid to current expenses—to say nothing of the discouragement which rises from halting endowments. And so around the whole circle of our organized agencies.

And yet again, from time to time, our Boards must fill our weekly papers with dark forebodings of debt, unless the Church spasmodically rallies to them at the end of the fiscal year. And what is still worse in spite of every effort, along the old lines of Board maintenance we are confronted again and again at our annual Assembly, with the depressing statement, that crippling debts have been incurred, and then comes the burning appeal to wipe out these debts by special collections, intruded into the midst of the benevolence for the ensuing year. This whole round of ever-recurring difficulties, in the matter of the orderly administration of our charitable endeavors, arising out of false principles of giving, and defective methods for gathering gifts to the Lord, could be remedied, in the judgment of your Committee, in a comparatively short time, if the Church at large would accept the principles and practice the methods set forth so clearly by the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence, and endorsed by the Assembly from year to year.

Let the question be raised: Would the financial straitness, which hampers all of our Boards, and the debt which has fallen on four of them this year, rise to disturb our thought at this time, if the Church at large had been practicing for two or three years, the principles and methods of systematic and proportionate giving?

We answer without hesitation:

If any definite percentage of income—even the lowest, that any

Christian, sufficiently conscientious to accept the scheme of giving laid down by the Assembly's Committee—had been adopted by the major part of our communicants for the year just expiring, the Presbyterian Church would have received into its coffers for true Christian benevolence $5,000,000, instead of a little less than $2,500,000!

For 1889, the Church from all sources obtained for her Boards, $2,379,408. For the year 1890, the Church received $2,406,570, a small gain of $27,162.

Had it not been for the influence of the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence, your Standing Committee has every reason to believe there would have been a large decrease in the receipts of the Boards this year, as compared with last year.

With equal confidence we affirm, that if the Church had been brought to anything like a universal adoption of the principles and methods which the Assembly has sought to inculcate, there would have been a gain to the Boards in 1890, of $2,500,000. This is not exaggeration. Figures will show it. What has prevented the realization of this princely income? 1. Our members have not devoted themselves and their incomes to the Lord fully—they have failed to divide any definite percentage to the Lord. They have avoided all system in giving, such as would nourish the habit of setting apart a definite percentage, no matter how small, and would assist in storing and then distributing this percentage. 2. The congregations at large have simply had the Boards presented, and a collection lifted, while the urgent and winning inducements of love to our blessed Lord, and duty towards Him, as He is expressed in His precious cause, have been left too much out of sight.

Let another question be raised. Is it impossible to bring the major part of our members to the fixed habit of giving systematically and proportionately to the Lord?

Too many of our officers decide, out of hand, the impracticability of this scheme, simply because the methods proposed are not magical in their nature, producing large and immediate results the very moment they are adopted. But it is to be said in reply that no method, no matter how salutary, will work itself, and it is in proof that the methods of systematic beneficence, proposed by the Assembly's Committee, do produce the most desirable and even astonishing results, wherever they have been faithfully applied. Synods and Presbyteries, which have put them to the test, and have followed faithfully the experiment among their churches, report a large gain in their offerings to the Lord, often twofold, not infrequently threefold and in many cases fourfold. The gain is reliable, tending to increase, rather than to decrease—is realized, whether the weather is good or bad, and is accompanied with many tokens of a real spiritual development in the character of the Christians, who are thus worshiping God constantly and joyfully with a proportionate share of their incomes.

It is matter of observation that men who have entered on this plan of systematic and proportionate giving with timidity, fixing a small percentage of income at first, say one-twentieth, are ready to advance directly to one-tenth, often raise the percentage to one-fifth, and not a few, dominated by this blessed thought of giving directly to their honored Lord, have set apart a modest living for themselves, and freely granted all the rest of ample incomes to the cause of Christ, declining the idea of gathering large fortunes to leave behind them.

The systems of beneficence, now in complete working order in many of our churches, can no longer be deemed impracticable. Various Presbyteries have faithfully worked some satisfactory method fitted to produce a profound and lasting impression on the individual Christian, as to the duty and privilege of worshiping God by his offerings, systematically and proportionately made, and the result has attracted widespread attention, when the gifts have been compared with those offered by other Presbyteries in which there has been no earnest teaching, no agitation, and no practical supervision over the subject of a true Christian beneficence. Let the steady aim be to secure every individual as a systematic giver. Adopt some one or the other of the systems proposed by the Assembly's Committee. Admit that the best method will not run itself. Give the chosen method conscientious employment, backed by faithful teaching of the doctrine announced in the new Chapter vi, in our Directory for Worship, and we may be sure of large and blessed results.

We would call attention to the fact, that the Assembly's Committee has given careful study and earnest effort during the past year to the problem of Proportionate Giving. This is, unquestionably, the best individual rule of Christian giving, and of financial policy for the Church. We would not suggest the binding obligation of the Old Testament law of the tithes. This may be regarded by some as the minimum percentage of income, which any Christian should adopt. Let us remember, however, that we are under the New Testament law, which reads, "As God hath prospered," and with that law burned into our hearts, the voluntary percentage may be left to individual decision and freedom, remembering always, that Christ became poor, that we might be rich, and that millions of our brethren according to the flesh are needy, very needy, yea perishing for lack of vision.

To encourage and test this principle of proportionate giving, the Assembly's Committee has pressed forward a scheme called a "Presbyterian Union of Proportionate Givers." The intention is to unite and encourage persons who have already formed the habit of setting aside a definite percentage of income for religious and charitable purposes, and to enlist their coöperation in the extension of this practice. The inquiry, so far made, under this scheme would indicate that one in ten of our ministers, and about one in eighty of our members have adopted a definite rule of proportionate giving. We advise the Assembly to encourage this scheme, and hereby express the hope, that if our leading men will join in with it, the Assembly's Committee will be able to report the number doubled by this time next year.

In this connection, we would have the Assembly utter a warning against the independent canvassing of our churches for various objects, these objects sometimes endorsed by one or another of our Boards. A great deal of Presbyterian money goes into channels other than the agencies authorized by the Church. We would not undertake to restrict individual liberty in giving as the judgment may decide. But after all, when we have once persuaded the major part of our members to lay apart a proportionate percentage of income for the Lord, if we are not judicious, a considerable part of this will drift aside from our own chosen channels.

It is confidently believed that we Presbyterians are actually giving more money to charitable enterprises just now than ever before. The Boards are perhaps not getting their full share of this liberality. There appears for this year a net increase of only $27,162 in receipts of our combined agencies from all sources. If we consider the $77,263 which was taken a year ago by the Foreign Board from reserved funds, and used for current expenses, which amount has been now reinvested, and disappears from the current statistics of this year, we will find that the real gain is $104,425. This is a very small gain for our combined agencies. The whole gift of the Church to our entire recognized agencies is $2,406,570. This is not nearly all the money given by the Presbyterian Church to charitable enterprises. Several of our Boards are left in debt. They have not had their share of our bona-fide offerings. Let us as a Church be careful at this point!

If time would permit, your Committee would call attention to other points of interest connected with this great subject.

We would commend the literature, which this Committee has carefully produced and circulated, which is of the utmost value, and can be had for the asking.

We would ask our churches to reserve the Sabbath day services, as far as possible, for the offerings of true benevolence, in no way connected with the support of the local church, and that these offerings be under the guidance of some one of the systems suggested by the Assembly's Committee. But there is no time for further elaboration. Other points will be covered in our recommendations.

We have watched, as a Church, the labors of the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence with admiration and gratitude. There is no great machinery—no pleasing publicity—no waving of banners—no enthusiastic missionaries returning from a distance, to recount their triumphs, but if ever a Church needed to bestow a benediction upon earnest men who are working with consecrated purpose, upon the very elements of things—the primary principles, which underlie the life and prosperous advance of the Church—here is your instance, in the labors of this Committee on Beneficence.

Your Committee recommends the following action to the Assembly:

1. That all Presbyteries and Synods be again instructed to maintain efficient Committees on Systematic Beneficence, who shall report to and coöperate with the Assembly's Special Committee.

2. That Presbyteries be advised to call their churches, annually, to account, at some regular meeting, in reference to their compliance with the recommendations of the Assembly.

3. That the useful practice of some Presbyteries through their Beneficence Committees be approved, in calling conventions for prayer and discussion in reference to Christian giving, and in publishing comparative tables of their churches' gifts for stimulus and information.

4. That the new Chap. vi, of the Directory for Worship, be warmly commended to all our churches, and advice given to them as before, to discourage combination in the same offering of self-support and gifts for the Boards.

5. That every minister be challenged to secure the instruction of his congregation in the grace and duty of liberality for Christ's sake, and in Scriptural principles of giving; also to keep them informed as to the work of our various Boards, with the needs of each particular cause; especially to train the children and youth of his charge in true principles and habits of Christian giving.

6. That every member be earnestly advised in his Christian stewardship, to adopt the practice of proportionate giving, as God hath prospered him.

7. That this Assembly again establish between our several Boards an equitable ratio of distribution for the guidance of churches in apportioning undesignated gifts.

8. We recommend also that for the ensuing year the Special Committee be authorized to draw from the Assembly's Treasurer, for necessary contingent expenses, not to exceed the sum of $500.

In behalf of the Committee,
WILLIS G. CRAIG, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 23, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

Orders of the Day for to-morrow were arranged as follows:

1. The Report of the Committee on the Alliance of the Reformed Churches.
2. The Report of the Committee on Revision.
3. The Report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries.
4. The Report of the Committee on Church Unity.

It was made the first Order for Monday to receive the Reports of the Committees on the Records of the Synods.

The Standing Committee on Temperance presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by Dr. I. N. Hays, Chairman of the Committee, was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Temperance respectfully reports to the Assembly, that there has been referred to us the Ninth Annual Report of the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on this subject. We have carefully examined this document, together with such publications of the Committee as have been submitted to our notice. There has been also referred to us the Report of a Committee appointed by the Assembly of 1889, to memorialize Congress, endeavoring to secure the appointment of a Congressional Commission to gather facts and statistics in regard to the liquor traffic; also a memorial from the Commissioners in this Assembly from Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska and the two Dakotas, asking that the Assembly petition Congress for an interstate law, allowing prohibition States and Territories to control the importation of intoxicating liquors over border lines.

In studying the work of the Assembly's Permanent Committee, it gratifies us to recognize that this useful agency of our Church still continues actively at work on the lines of its appointed effort, with a hopeful and enlarging measure of encouragement and success. The gratuitous and self-denying labors of its officers and members during the past year are worthy of all praise.

Any such agency of Christian influence against the tremendous public and social evils of intemperance, must find its mission measurably the same from year to year—for the reason that the evil still continues to vex our land, to threaten its homes, impoverish its people and endanger its youth. So that the measures directed against so dire a scourge require persistent repetition and unflagging urgency, rather than mere novelty of administration.

The year has been a period of incessant stir and varying conflict around the great question of temperance, and the control or suppression of the liquor traffic. More and more deeply the conviction has been burning itself into the public mind, that however checked by legislative restrictions, or burdened by heavier taxation, the peril of the public sale of intoxicants is too great for any valid excuse of its existence. In regard to such an evil that affects the whole body of our people, the issue is being steadily pressed by conscience and self-preservation, against the greed which is now absolutely the only cause for the retention of the dram-shop.

Indeed, the saloon has well-nigh passed its period of defense. Nobody stands up for it to-day, except as an alleged necessary evil, supposed to be so strong as to be incapable of suppression, and which must continue, only to be curbed and prevented from venting quite its full curse. It must be the business of the better class of our citizens, and of Christian society at large, to prove that theory false.

Eventually the open sale of liquor must go. Forces are now at work that, however temporarily resisted, will yet crush the life out of it. Meanwhile, let us sow good seed among the children. Emphasize the sinfulness of inebriety, and ply every man his neighbor with temperance and Gospel influences. While permitting no final satisfaction with half-way measures, let us help enforce existing laws that tend to fetter the liquor traffic, until with constant agitation and unremitted effort something more and better can be done. Even the defeat of political prohibition in some quarters lately need not be explained as the triumph of the saloons—only the temporary non-acceptance of certain methods devised to oppose them.

Let it be remembered that our Presbyterian Church itself is one great temperance society, that practices the principles it has avowed, and constantly exerts a power that is beyond tabulation towards the reform of inebriates and the closure of their sources of temptation.

The year has developed many a conflict of the liquor power with the law-abiding and temperance sentiment of the country. In many quarters a fractious disposition to resist restrictive laws has been happily followed by defeat. Such righteous successes make it easier afterwards to execute statutes that protect the Sabbath and the home from the open dram-shop, and that aim at the check and ultimate suppression of the entire traffic. It is exceedingly instructive to the whole Church to learn through the systematic inquiries pursued by this Permanent Committee, just how the convictions of our Church are standing. We are glad to be assured that there is no retrograde movement among us, but only a steadier, more determined spirit against the encroachments of the liquor traffic and in favor of abstinence in personal and social life.

In reference to the proposed Commission of Congress, we recommend the following deliverance:

Whereas, During the past year, by direction of the last General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, through a Special Committee, a memorial was prepared and presented to Congress, asking the appointment of a Commission to gather and present facts and statistics concerning the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks and the effects of their use; and,

Whereas, We happily learn that the Committee of Congress has reported a bill which provides for the appointment of a Commission to consist of five persons, appointed by the President, who shall investigate the alcoholic, fermented and vinous liquor trade in all its phases—its relation to revenue and taxation—its effect upon labor, agriculture, manufacturing and other industries—its general economic, criminal, moral and scientific aspects, in connection with pauperism, crime, social vice—the public health—also to inquire into the practical results of license, prohibitory legislation, and the various methods of restraint and taxation relied upon for the prevention of intemperance; therefore, be it,

Resolved, That this General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America expresses its hearty appreciation of the work done by this Congressional Committee in Washington, in proposing so fair a method of throwing full daylight upon this whole subject, by facts and statistics which do not lie, and to which all must appeal and submit.

We fear only one great danger—that, in the hurry of business, and through the adverse influences that are constantly at work, this admirable bill so favorably reported may not be acted on by Congress; or, if acted on, may be defeated through the apathy of its friends. Hence, we urge with every emphasis upon Congress, upon every member of both houses, the importance of speedy and favorable action upon this great question which concerns so profoundly the welfare of this whole country.

We recommend also the following deliverance:

Whereas, The recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, reversing the judgment of the Iowa State Court, and known as the "original package" decision, has made it apparent that the several States, in the exercise of their police powers, are crippled and greatly hindered in the effort to control the sale or prohibit the traffic in intoxicating liquors; therefore,

Resolved, That this General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the interest of good order, temperance, morality and religion, does hereby respectfully and earnestly petition the Congress of the United States to speedily enact a statute, or an amendment to the Interstate Commerce law, that will allow the States to control or prohibit the importation of intoxicating liquors.

Besides the principles hitherto stated, and the resolutions offered, we suggest the following action:

1. We stand by the deliverances hitherto issued by our Church upon the temperance question, a summary of which has proved our Committee's most popular tract, and we enjoin our ministers and people to abate nothing in their zeal and effort in or out of the churches, to check the drinking habits of society, and by effort, voice and vote, to oppose the traffic in intoxicants as a beverage, believing with intensified conviction that it is a direct inexcusable curse to our country and our age.

2. While, as a Church, we neither advocate nor antagonize any political party—we earnestly commend to our ministers and people, as Christian citizens, such vigorous persevering efforts, as may seem wisest to them, towards the enactment in every State and Territory, of statutes which shall hopefully secure entire prohibition, of a traffic largely responsible for the bulk of the drunkenness, crime, pauperism and social miseries which afflict our land.

3. We honor all executive public officers who have had the fidelity and firmness to execute the laws in accord with their oath of office, against outbreaks of characteristic lawlessness on the part of the liquor power.

4. We recognize with congratulation, the influence already exerted by our Presbyterian women—forming the majority of our membership—in the temperance cause; and the organizations forming among them in Pennsylvania and elsewhere, on the lines of our Assemblies' deliverances, to further, in their own way, the ends aimed at by our Permanent Committee.

5. Congratulating the Permanent Committee on the encouragement that has followed its operations for the year, we approve of its new departure in distributing its literature gratuitously. In many cases the offer of gratuitous transportation also might be wise. And we commend the Committee to the Church, for whatever increase of contribution to its treasury may be needful, glad that no deficit has arisen, and that a good balance for beginning the work of a new year is still in its hands.

6. That we, as an Assembly, assert our conviction that the love of God for the sinner, as applied to the conscience by the convicting, converting and sanctifying power of God's spirit and truth, is the inebriate's only hope of salvation and assurance of all true reform.

7. We recommend that the Committee on Temperance be continued; that Rev. J. J. Beacom, D.D., and Elder O. L. Miller be reëlected; that Rev. Joseph B. Turner be chosen in place of Rev. W. O. Campbell, D.D., who declines, and in place of Mr. R. S. Davis, Mr. W. N. Ziegler. And since Rev. W. J. Holland, of the class of 1891, declines serving longer, we recommend that Rev. Richard S. Holmes be elected to take his place.

All of which is respectfully submitted in behalf of the Standing Committee.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

A Popular Meeting in the interests of Temperance was held after the adjournment, in accordance with the programme of the Committee of Arrangements.

For the Committee, WM. C. ROBERTS, Chairman.

Three Memorials, concerning lotteries, societies in churches and the Bible in the public schools, were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly proceeded with the Order of the Day, viz., the hearing of the representatives of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian system. The Assembly was addressed by the Rev. James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., the Rev. George D. Matthews, D.D., the General Secretary of the Alliance, and the Report of the Alliance was read by the Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., the American Secretary. The Report was ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the "Minutes."

The Committee to which was referred the several resolutions on the appointment of a Committee on Revision, presented the following Report:

Your Committee respectfully report that they have unanimously agreed upon the following preambles and resolutions, the adoption of which they recommend:

Whereas, The last General Assembly directed an Overture to be transmitted to the Presbyteries, in these words: 1. Do you desire a Revision of the Confession of Faith? 2. If so, in what respects, and to what extent? And,

Whereas, It appears from the Report of the Special Committee appointed to canvass the answers of the Presbyteries to said Overture, that 134 Presbyteries have answered "yes" to the first question; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That a Committee composed of one member of the Assembly from each Synod—to-wit, nineteen ministers and ten elders—be appointed by the Moderator, to nominate to this Assembly, a Committee consisting of fifteen ministers and ten elders, which shall be called "The Assembly's Committee on Revision of the Confession of Faith;" which Committee, when constituted by the General Assembly, shall consider the suggestions made by the Presbyteries in their answers to the second of the above questions, and formulate and report to the General Assembly of 1891, such alterations and amendments to the Confession of Faith as in their judgment may be deemed desirable.

2. This Committee on Revision shall meet at the call of a temporary chairman to be named by the Moderator of this General Assembly, and shall, upon meeting, appoint their own permanent chairman, and shall have power to fill vacancies.

3. This Committee on Revision is instructed to meet at an early date, not later than October 31, 1890, and diligently to pursue its work that it may report promptly at the meeting of the General Assembly of 1891. And,

Whereas, Sixty-eight Presbyteries have answered "no" to the first of the above questions, and sixty-nine Presbyteries of those answering "yes," have expressly said that they desire no change in the Confession of Faith to be made that impairs the integrity of the system of doctrine taught therein; therefore,

Resolved, That this Committee on Revision be and hereby are instructed that they shall not propose any alterations or amendments that will in any way impair the integrity of the Reformed or Calvinistic system of doctrine taught in the Confession of Faith.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Respectfully submitted, William C. Roberts, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries would respectfully report: Thirteen theological schools under the care of the General Assembly have made reports. In them there are seventy-five professors and instructors. There have been 763 students and 199 graduates. Gratifying reports of progress are made by all of them. The past year has been one of special financial prosperity to a number.

Union Seminary reports the munificent gift of $100,000 by the honored President of the Board of Directors, Mr. Charles Butler, to endow the Chair of Biblical Theology. There have been large additions to the library, aggregating about 6000 volumes and 400 pamphlets. The library now consists of 60,337 volumes and 47,931 pamphlets.

McCormick Seminary has received from the Cyrus H. McCormick estate $100,000, for the erection of houses on seminary ground for rental, and $30,000 for the general funds of the seminary from the same generous source. The property of this institution now amounts to the magnificent sum of $1,248,133.

In the Report of the Standing Committee of last year, an appeal was made for funds to help the San Francisco Seminary, which was greatly straightened for the means necessary for carrying on its work. Special call was made to Eastern churches and friends of theological education to avert the disaster which threatened this young seminary, by providing at least an additional $100,000 of endowment. We gratefully record that the help has come and in unexpected measure, not from Eastern churches, but through the liberality of a few friends of the seminary in California. Mr. Arthur W. Foster gave a valuable tract of land in Marion county, within fifteen miles of San Francisco, as a new site for the seminary. This was followed by the splendid gift, by Mr. Alexander Montgomery, of $250,000, which sum was raised to $300,000 by other friends of the seminary East and West. It is matter for profound thanksgiving and joy, that this institution is now so well equipped to do the important work for theological education to which the pressing demands of the Pacific coast invite it.

Danville Seminary has in process of erection a commodious building, on a better site, for the accommodation of its students.

Auburn reports additions of 1600 volumes and 100 pamphlets to its library.

Princeton also reports large gains in its library, which now numbers more than 50,000 volumes.

By the generous gift of Mrs. David Brown, of Princeton (of $20,000), a commodious chapel and prayer hall is now in course of erection for Lincoln University.

It is cause for thankful acknowledgment that in so many places the hearts of God's servants have been prompted to do such liberal things for ministerial education.

A very gratifying feature of the reports from the seminaries is in the fact that the students are receiving much training in practical work during their seminary course. It has sometimes been urged as a criticism against our theological seminaries, that the graduates were scholastics, with little experience of, or adaptation to, those lines of service to which they would be called in the pastorate. It is evident, however, that the instructors in our seminaries are giving increasing attention to that part of theological education which consists in applying practically the theories and methods of theological training. In any realm of learning, it is one thing to arrive at right principles, and another thing to know how to use them; one thing to have the science of the ministry, and another to understand the art of it. Nor will it altogether do to say, "Let the science come in the years of training, the art can come afterward in the years of service." The learning and the application should, at least in some measure, go together. The best way to fix a principle, is to set it to work. The question of the day is not, What does Christianity think? but, What can it do? The sooner the student tries his hand at the application of it, the better. For this reason, your Committee hail with peculiar satisfaction the reports of the active service in which students have been engaged. Thus, McCormick reports, as a special feature, the prosecution by the students of mission work in various parts of the city. Nearly all those not engaged regularly in preaching have been so engaged. The Western Seminary reports much mission work by the students, and new churches have been organized by their labors during the seminary year. They have been active in charitable institutions in the city, where they have served without remuneration, in mission stations—in labors among the newsboys and among the poor and destitute.

In Princeton, also, the students have been largely engaged—in town and country—in mission work. Fifty-five have maintained regular prayer-meeting and preaching services, and thirteen have taught in Sunday-schools. In Union Seminary, nearly all the students are so occupied for a part of the time.

We again call the special attention of the General Assembly to the critical condition and imperative needs of the German Theological School of the Northwest. An earnest appeal was made in the Report of last year. The exigency remains and increases. There is no lack of students. There are able, godly and self-denying professors. But the income is wholly inadequate to even the most rigidly economical administration of its affairs. Meantime the claims of the German work increase. The opportunities for it, throughout the Northwest are abundant. The proportion of Germans in many districts is steadily increasing. The only way to reach them effectively is to give them the Gospel in their native tongue. Our German schools at Dubuque and Newark are endeavoring to supply this necessity. We therefore appeal again to the churches, not to withhold from these struggling institutions the very moderate support for which they call and without which their work must be seriously crippled, if not altogether arrested.

The Rev. William G. T. Shedd, D.D., LL.D., has resigned his position as Roosevelt Professor of Systematic Theology in Union Seminary, and has been elected Professor Emeritus of Systematic Theology. So closes the active period of service of one of the most distinguished and honored of the theological teachers of our Church. In making record of this important fact, your Committee desires to express the grateful appreciation by the Church of the service in the cause of theological learning rendered by this beloved Professor, and our thanksgiving to Almighty God for gifts so consecrated to His service.

The Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, D.D., has, on account of impaired health, resigned the Cyrus H. McCormick Professorship of Didactic and Polemic Theology in McCormick Seminary. We make grateful mention of his distinguished services and his devotion to the seminary, and rejoice that in a new Chair in the same institution he may yet serve the cause of sacred learning.

The Rev. Stephen Mattoon, D.D., one of the founders and for many years President of Biddle University, ceased from his labors during the year and has entered on his reward. He was a man of marked ability and of untiring devotion to the cause of Christian education. His works do follow him.

A new department of instruction, to be known as the Department of Biblical Philology, has been added to the course in McCormick Seminary, in which special attention shall be given to the elements of the Hebrew and Greek languages, and in which the Rev. Augustus Stiles Carrier has been appointed Instructor.

Lane Theological Seminary reports the election of two new Professors, the Rev. Arthur C. McGiffert, Ph.D., as Professor of Church History, and the Rev. James A. Craig, Ph.D., as Adjunct Professor of Biblical Exegesis.

San Francisco Seminary reports the erection of a new department, to be called the Professorship of Apologetics and Missions. The Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., has been elected as the incumbent of this Chair.

Your Committee calls the attention of the Assembly, and of the Church, to the important work of training colored men to be the spiritual guides of their race, as that work is represented at Biddle University and Lincoln University.

Biddle University reports that, of the 156 in that institution, nearly one-half are looking forward to the Gospel ministry, a cheering and immensely significant fact. The number of students could be largely increased if the Church would give the necessary support. Is not this the safe and sure road to the solution of the negro problem? And shall not those schools, which so grapple the problem by providing teachers and preachers for the elevation and salvation of the colored people, receive the generous support of our Church? No Church has better access to the colored population of the South than our own Church. In no way can she better reach them than by providing educated and consecrated ministers of their own race. The three special needs of Biddle University are a fund with which to help needy students, a new dormitory and an endowment for the support of the Faculty.

Lincoln University has had a prosperous year. It reports 90 students as candidates for the Gospel ministry in various stages of the academic and theological courses, and speaks of encouraging progress in various directions.

Your Committee submit the following recommendations:

1. At the request of the Directors of Princeton Seminary we recommend that the plan of the seminary be so changed that in Art. ii, Sec. 8, the words, "Shall meet statedly once in each year," shall read, "Shall meet statedly at least once in each year;" also that in Art. iv, Sec. 3, the words, "There shall be an examination of all the pupils in the Seminary at every stated meeting of the Board of Directors," shall read, "There shall be an examination of all the pupils in the Seminary under the direction of the Board of Directors at least once every year;" also, that Art. ii, Sec. 5, be so amended as to require ten days' notice only, instead of twenty, to call a special meeting of the Board; and, further, that in Sec. 3, of the same article, the words, "And the President, or in case of his absence, one of the Vice-Presidents, be one," shall be stricken out.

2. We recommend the approval of the election of Rev. T. H. Skinner, D.D., to the Chair of Divinity in the McCormick Seminary.

3. We recommend to the liberal gifts of the churches the institutions in charge of our educational work among the Germans and colored people, making special mention of the pressing needs of the German Theological Seminary of the Northwest, and of Biddle University.

4. Several of our seminaries are making special efforts to create endowment of fellowships, by which the most promising students can be aided to high attainments in special branches of sacred learning. These efforts are also commended to the liberality of the friends of higher education. Respectfully submitted,

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries also presented a supplementary Report, as follows:

The General Assembly is constrained to answer in the negative the Overture of the Presbytery of Dubuque, which requests that the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies be instructed to make a special case of the German Theological Seminary of the Northwest, in so far as to give credit to those churches which desire to give their collections for collegiate education to the Seminary, but the General Assembly cordially commends the German Theological Seminary to the favorable consideration of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies. Adopted.

The morning session was prolonged until one o'clock.

The Committee on Mileage presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Mileage Committee respectfully reports:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionments, Mileage Fund.	$28,822 94
" " Entertainment Fund,	10,266 94
" " Contingent Fund,	10,920 44
Total,	$50,010 32

DISBURSEMENTS.

Bills of Commissioners for Mileage,	$24,762 07

Entertainment Fund paid to Stated Clerk,	10,266 94

Balance,	4,025 87
Total,	$50,010 32

Four Presbyteries have been added to the roll during the past year, making the number 213. Of these seven are not represented in the Assembly, leaving the number represented 206.

There are 539 Commissioners enrolled, or twenty more than last year.

Thirty-one Presbyteries, being Freedmen, Indian and Mission

Presbyteries, are exempt from payment. Of this number, four—the Cherokee Nation, Dakota, Muskogee and Southern Virginia—paid the apportionment in full. Nine others paid in the aggregate $220.46, or $34.15 more than last year.

The Presbytery of Bellefontaine pays nothing to either fund. The Presbyteries of Chester, Clarion and St. Clairsville paid to the Mileage and Contingent Funds only; Idaho paid Contingent and portion of Mileage; Rock River paid Contingent and Entertainment and part of Mileage.

The Presbytery of Shenango paid the expenses of its own Commissioners and in addition $274 to the Mileage and Contingent Funds, or all the Contingent and a portion of the Mileage Fund.

The total receipts have been $2622.73 more than the previous year.

The Committee offer the following recommendations, being essentially the same as last year:

1. That the General Assembly again urge upon the Presbyteries the full and prompt payment of their apportionment for the Mileage, Contingent and Entertainment Funds.

2. That the apportionment for next year be 4 cents for each communicant for Mileage, 1½ cents for Entertainment, and 1½ cents for Contingent expenses, altogether 7 cents per communicant.

3. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to settle the accounts of the Commissioners for mileage when balances may be still due, owing to excess in railroad charges on return.

4. That the General Assembly tender its thanks to those railroad and steamboat companies which have carried Commissioners at reduced rates; also to the Stated Clerk, for efficient services in this connection.

5. That the Chairman of the Committee on Mileage is hereby directed to pay to William H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk, the balance of $4170.21 remaining in his hands.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM WADE, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That this Assembly hereby tenders its cordial thanks to the members of the Mileage Committee for the faithful and admirable manner in which they have performed their arduous duties, and especially to Mr. William Wade, who has now served three successive Assemblies as Chairman of the Mileage Committee.

The Standing Committee on Education reported, recommending the approval of the minutes of the Board of Education. The recommendation was adopted.

The Report of the Committee on Church Unity was taken up and the recommendations adopted. The Committee was continued, and directed to report to the next Assembly. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on Church Unity beg leave to report:

During the sessions of the General Assembly of 1887, the following papers addressed to "The Secretary of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Omaha, Neb.," were laid before the Assembly. The first was entitled "Declaration of the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, adopted October 20, 1886," and is as follows: [See for the papers, pp. 132–134 of the "Minutes" of 1887, and pp. 154–156 of the Appendix to the same "Minutes."]

The Committee has held four meetings, viz., in Philadelphia, Pa., May, 1888; in New York city, October, 1889; in Harrisburg, Pa., January, 1890; in Saratoga, N. Y., May, 1890. It has reported progress to the General Assembly of 1888 and 1889, and been continued. Its first meeting was held in the city of Philadelphia on the 16th of May, 1888, and the following days. The Committee proceeded to the consideration of the following paper from the Episcopal Commission:

ALEXANDRIA, LA., March 27, 1888.

To the Committee on Christian Unity of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your letter has given us much joy and has encouraged us to look with renewed hope for the unity of all who love the blessed Master.

It has been carefully considered by our Commission, and we have deemed it best to ask that for the time being our conference may be conducted in writing. There would be a danger during an oral conference, just at the present time, of the intrusion of a debate that might seriously interfere with the accomplishment of the object we both of us, it is hoped, have at heart. We cannot hide from ourselves that important differences separate us, but we suggest that a consideration of these may properly be postponed until we have found a basis of substantial agreement, and then peradventure we shall discover that these differences are not of such a character as to prevent our union.

Let us bear in mind, brethren, that the Master prayed that His followers might be one even as He and the Father are one. A unity that does not fully reflect the unity of the indivisible Trinity does not fulfill the prayer of the Master. Such unity may in this age seem to some but a dream. Yet may we not trust that if we are but faithful in our labors to the end, an Almighty power will bring it to pass. If the work were all ours we should faint, but it is God who worketh in us both to will and to do in answer to our united efforts.

Only let us grasp the idea of unity that is the Master's conception of unity. Let us ask of the bodies we represent continuing powers. Let us labor until the consummation is attained.

We note in your communication that your Committee is empowered to consider with us the principles "essential to a restoration of unity." We, therefore, suggest as a primary proposition that there are certain principles that are essential for the preservation of the faith and order of God's kingdom, and that all else may be held or rejected by the private judgment of each. There are things very dear to us that are not named among the principles enumerated in the Declaration of our Bishops. These we have not treated as matters indifferent, yet as those we do not deem essential and which in the united Church we should be willing to leave open to be decided by local authorities.

We shall hold ourselves ready, however, to surrender everything that may conflict with those principles that we shall determine to be essentially necessary to unity.

We take notice that your General Assembly expressly left the consideration of the principles laid down by our House of Bishops to a conference between us. We, therefore, earnestly invite you to recommend to your General Assemby the acceptance of these matters as principles of unity and the appointment of yourselves, or others, as commissioners to negotiate the further details of union.

If you are not prepared to do this, will you not kindly open your minds to us that we may confer together, and find, peradventure, a proper solution of the difficulty.

Our proposition then is, that the visible Church of Christ, or kingdom of God on earth, must hold the Faith Divinely revealed; that of the body of the revelation certain truths are essentially necessary to be held to attain unto eternal life, and that these are enumerated in the Symbol of Faith enunciated by the undivided Church, that is to say, the creed commonly called the Nicene; the two sacraments of Christ's ordination duly ministered; together with such polity as is necessary for the ordering of the affairs of the kingdom, and this polity that which held in the undivided Church, modified in its application, but not in its original organism, according to changes required by differences of age or circumstances of time.

Very truly and fraternally,
HERMAN C. DUNCAN,
Secretary of the Commission.

The Committee held several sessions and unanimously adopted the following paper as a reply to the above communication:

To the Commission on Church Unity of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church:

DEAR BRETHREN:—We have read with care the letter of your Commission. We recognize the admirable spirit of the paper, and its genuine Christian courtesy throughout, and are equally sincere and earnest in our desire that such a unity may be brought about among the different branches of the Church of Christ as shall perfectly accord with the mind of the blessed Redeemer, and in the hope that the correspondence in which we are now engaged may, by His grace, be made to conduce to this most desirable end.

We understand you to present, as proposed terms of unity, the four propositions which were stated by your House of Bishops.

We can accept, as principles of unity, the first three of these, as follows:

1. The Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the revealed Word of God.

2. The Nicene Creed as the sufficient statement of the Christian faith; understanding by this that it is such a statement of the essential truths of Christianity as may form a proper bond of church fellowship among all who adhere to it, but not that it embraces all that we hold to be precious and important, nor that in accepting it we should be understood to give up our attachment to and use of the Westminster Confession of Faith as an ampler exhibition of what we believe to be taught in Holy Scripture.

3. The two Sacraments, Baptism and the Supper of the Lord, ministered with unfailing use of Christ's words of institution and of the elements ordained by Him.

We can with equal readiness accept the fourth proposition according to our understanding of its terms. It is as follows: "The Historic Episcopate, locally adapted in the methods of its administration to the varying needs of the nations and peoples called of God into the unity of His Church." The Presbyterian Church holds, and always has held, firmly to what we believe to be the genuinely historic Episcopate as this is set forth in the New Testament and in the practice of the early Church so far as it did not swerve from apostolic models and directions. It finds the Presbyter-bishop in all ages of the Church, in unbroken succession until the present day. At the same time we are not disposed to constrain others to adopt our interpretation in this matter. We shall feel no difficulty in uniting with those who interpret the bishops of the New Testament and of the primitive Church differently from ourselves, provided our own liberty of interpretation is not infringed. We can unite with those who think bishops to be a superior order of the clergy, provided we are ourselves not asked to abandon our own conscientious conviction that bishops, as instituted by the apostles, are not of superior rank, but that all who are ordained to the ministry by the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery, and are entrusted with the care and oversight of souls, are bishops. May we not assume that you will accord to us all the liberty in interpreting this term which has been enjoyed by your own ministry, and by that of the Anglican Church in this and earlier generations? If we are correct in our understanding of this fourth proposition, and it is intended to embrace the Historic Episcopate in the various forms in which it prevails in different countries and in different branches of the Church of Christ, we yield to it our cordial assent and are prepared to recommend to our General Assembly to conduct further negotiations with reference to a union on the basis of the four propositions of your House of Bishops.

In this connection, dear brethren, as you request us to open our minds freely to you, permit us to emphasize a point which we think essential to have understood.

The General Assembly which appointed us affirmed this statement of the principles whereby, in its judgment, practical Church unity can be realized and maintained.

1. All believers in Christ constitute one body, mystical, yet real, and destined to grow into the fullness of Him who filleth all in all.

2. The universal visible Church consists of all those throughout the world who profess the true religion, together with their children.

3. Mutual recognition and reciprocity between the different bodies who profess the true religion is the first and essential step toward practical Church unity" ("Minutes," 18[illegible] 158). [illegible] yours[illegible]

Permit us to express the hope that you will fi[illegible] details of [illegible]is statement of principles which you cannot approve.

The Presbyterian Church recognizes all bodies professing the true religion as branches of the visible Church of Christ, and it recognizes the validity of their ministry and sacraments. Differences of view in relation to ecclesiastical polity need be no bar to mutual recognition and reciprocity. It seems to us that that should be confessed to be a true Church of Christ in which His Spirit manifests His saving and sanctifying power, in which His truth is professed, His word preached and His ordinances dispensed; and it may be so confessed even by those who hold a theory of Church polity according to which its organization is imperfect and irregular. And the same applies to ordination and the administration of the sacraments; they may be confessed to be valid even by those who esteem them to be irregular.

Allow us, brethren, to add—and in this we trust we are in full accord with you—that in our judgment organic unity does not imply absolute uniformity, but the reverse. The one indivisible life is not only consistent with, but requires for its proper unfolding diverse operations and manifestations. The historic churches of Christendom, under the guidance of God's good Spirit, in the course of their manifold experiences, have each contributed to unfold the Christian life in some one particular form or mode, though with defects and excrescences, no doubt, which ought to be corrected and removed. Yet with all due allowance for errors and imperfections, each body has conserved something, or developed something, which it will be for the general good to retain. If the best results are to be accomplished by the union of Christendom, it will not necessarily be by the obliteration of existing bodies, but may be by including them in a larger unity.

We hope to receive a response to our communication which may be a token for good. And, awaiting this, we will ask our General Assembly to continue our Committee. If, as we hope, the views herein expressed prove acceptable to your Commission, will you not lay them before the body which appointed you, and ask their concurrence and authority to devise measures in conjunction with Committees from our own and other churches for carrying them into effect?

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 24, 1888.

This paper, from some cause, presumably a failure of the mails, did not reach its destination, and your Committee did not learn the fact until the week immediately preceding the meeting of the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in New York, in October, 1889. A copy of the paper was at once furnished to the Secretary of the Episcopal Commission, most of whose members [illegible] the Convention. A meeting of the Commission wa[illegible] consideration, and the following letter was adopted as a reply and placed in the hands of the Secretary of your Committee.

NEW YORK, October 9, 1889.

To the Committee on Christian Unity of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church :

DEAR BRETHREN :—We have received and read with much pleasure your letter of May 24, 1888, delayed in its transmission by failure of the mails. Your communication has rejoiced our hearts, inspired our expectations and confirmed our confidence in your wisdom, piety and Christian brotherhood, which originated our movement in this charitable work.

We have been searching to find a basis on which negotiations for Christian unity might be secured. On three of the four principles of such foundation we are happily agreed. On the fourth we may say in reply to you, that the only authoritative deliverance in respect to the threefold character of the Orders of the sacred ministry that our Church hath put forth, is found in the Preface to our Ordinal, wherein it is declared "that it is evident unto all men diligently reading Holy Scriptures and ancient authors, that from the apostles' time there have been these Orders of Ministers in Christ's Church—Bishops, Priests and Deacons." This we believe to have been placed in that position as the statement of what is historic, what is evident unto all, and not at all as a dogmatic article of faith. It is placed there as a declaration of ecclesiastical polity, as this Church hath inherited the same.

This reply we presume will meet your declaration and therefore receive your cordial assent. We, therefore, respectfully suggest that you "recommend to your General Assembly to conduct further negotiations with reference to a union on the basis of the four propositions of our House of Bishops," and we shall take pleasure in asking like authority for ourselves.

With respect to the other matters contained in your letter, mutual recognition and reciprocity, we have to say that our authority at present extends only to a search for the basis of unity. A recognition of the manifold workings of God's Holy Spirit within your communion, bringing forth the peaceable fruits of righteousness, is but to give expression to what is evident unto all, and could not be withheld, were there any disposition, which there is not, so to do.

The question of reciprocity is one that will probably be for consideration as a tentative measure in the course of our further negotiations. We think that it must necessarily be delayed in its consideration until after we shall have received information of the action of your General Assembly on the proposition that you will, as we understand, lay before them. We believe further, that the great end of our endeavors will be promoted by such delay.

Our Commission is now in this city, and we should be much pleased to receive you to an oral conference at an early day. We have had the pleasure of greeting several of your number and the benefits of acquaintance and personal intercourse we have experienced, and we feel that the great object for which we are laboring would be greatly advanced by such conference.

Believe me, dear brethren, yours very truly and fraternally.

[Signed] HERMAN C. DUNCAN,
Secretary of the Commission on Christian Unity of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

In view of the request made in this letter for a personal conference with the members of your Committee, a meeting of the Committee was called at the Mission House, New York, October 23, 1889. The letter from the Episcopal Commission was considered, and their invitation to meet them in an oral conference was accepted. The Committee were received as their guests, on the evening of the same day, at the house of Mr. Pierrepont Morgan, where they were entertained with the utmost hospitality. We communed together, and prayed together, as Christian brethren, forgetful for the time of everything except our oneness in Christ. The memory of that evening of delightful fraternal fellowship will be forever cherished by all who shared it. It was a prelude and prophecy of that glorious future, when the watchmen upon Zion's walls shall see eye to eye.

The Committee found no suitable opportunity to adopt a formal reply to the letter of the Episcopal Commission until their meeting in Saratoga, May 14, 1890.

The following answer was agreed upon and ordered sent:

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 14, 1890.

To the Commission on Church Unity of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church:

DEAR BRETHREN:—We have received your courteous reply to our communication, and are gratified by the expression of your belief that the only authoritative deliverance of your Church in relation to three orders of the ministry is not at all a dogmatic article of faith, but a declaration of ecclesiastical polity as your Church hath inherited the same; and that it is simply a statement of what in your view is historic and evident to all. While respectfully but earnestly recalling your attention to the action of our General Assembly as reported in our former letter and to our remarks in connection with it, we may now say that, understanding that our concurrence is not demanded in the statement prefixed to your Ordinal affirming the history and the evidence of three orders of the ministry, we are prepared to recommend to our General Assembly to conduct further negotiations with reference to a union on the basis of the four propositions of your House of Bishops.

Meanwhile we will fervently pray that the Lord would incline the hearts of all His people, more to the things which make for peace and the things whereby they may edify one another—that He would graciously remove all grounds of offense and all hindrances to a perfect union out of the way—and that He would enable those who truly love Him and who bear His image to love one another with a pure heart fervently, giving due prominence to those great essential matters of our holy religion in which they agree, and attaching less importance to matters of minor consequence in which they differ, until with advancing light and clearer apprehensions these differences shall finally disappear or shall at least cease to separate those who are one body in Christ Jesus.

We shall carry with us delightful remembrances of the pleasant fraternal intercourse, which we have been permitted to have with the members of your Commission personally; and we invoke upon you and upon that honored branch of the Church of Christ which you represent, the richest blessings of divine grace. We shall rejoice in your prosperity and enlargement and more abundant usefulness; and we shall know no rivalry but that of being stirred up by your example to increased zeal and devotion in the cause of our blessed Master.

And now, brethren, may the God of love and peace be with you. Amen.

JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

FRANCIS BROWN, Secretary.

The Episcopal Commission, upon its report to the General Convention, was continued, with instructions to confer further with us on the basis already proposed. (Cf. "Journal of Prot. Episc. Convention of 1889," pp. 60, 328.)

For obvious reasons, these negotiations are matters of peculiar delicacy. There are formidable difficulties to be encountered, and assured progress can be made only by hastening slowly. By common consent the first object has been to secure, if possible, some basis of union by ascertaining how far we were already agreed, holding in abeyance, at the outset, all questions on which we were supposed to differ, that in the light of principles held in common we might approach, and, if possible, adjust all differences. We find ourselves in agreement as to the great end to be secured, viz., a closer visible union among Christian churches, and also as to the proper method to be pursued, viz., brotherly correspondence and conference. As to a basis of union, four articles were proposed by the Commission. With reference to the first three, the Holy Scriptures, the Nicene Creed, and the two Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, there was no difficulty in the way, especially since the doctrinal symbols of the two churches, viz., the Thirty-nine Articles and the Thirty-three Chapters of our Confession of Faith, embody the same Calvinistic system of doctrine, and the two churches, as far as their doctrinal standards are concerned, are one.

With reference to the Fourth Article, which reads, "The Historic Episcopate, locally adapted in the methods of its administration to the varying needs of the nations and peoples called of God into the unity of His Church," the phrase "Historic Episcopate," coupled with the recognition of the fact that in its administration it is subject to changes and adaptations to varying times and peoples, takes the whole question, as to the Historic Episcopate, so far as we are concerned with it, out of the category of doctrine and puts it in that of discipline. The doctrinal symbols of the Episcopal Church do not make the three orders of the ministry a doctrine, or article of faith, but in the Preface to the Ordinal, the only authoritative deliverance on the subject, it is referred to discipline. In the Preface to the Prayer Book we read "that in every church whatever cannot be clearly determined to belong to doctrine must be referred to discipline, and therefore by common consent and authority may be altered, abridged, enlarged, amended or otherwise disposed of, as may seem most meet for the edification of the people, according to the various exigencies of times and nations."

Our Standards place all questions of discipline or polity on precisely the same grounds. In Chapter viii, Section 1, of the Form of Government, we read: "It is absolutely necessary that the government of the Church be exercised under some certain and definite form, and we hold it to be expedient and agreeable to Scripture and the practice of the primitive Christians, that the Church be governed by Congregational, Presbyterial and Synodical Assemblies. In full consistency with this belief we embrace in the spirit of charity those Christians who differ from us in opinion and practice on these subjects."

Since both churches thus regard the question of the "Historic Episcopate" as belonging not to doctrine but to discipline, and to be determined by its agreeableness to Scripture, its expediency in given circumstances, and the practice of the primitive Christians, the question as between us is an open one, and the Episcopal Commission, so regarding it, and in view of our statement of Presbyterian principles, has invited us to further conference. This is the present status of our negotiations with the Episcopal Commission.

While your Committee was appointed with immediate reference to the invitation of the Episcopal Church, it was instructed at the same time "to enter into brotherly conference with any similar Committees or Commissions that may be appointed by other Christian bodies, with a view to the earnest study of the relations of the different churches and of the way in which the answer to the Redeemer's prayer, 'that they all may be one,' may be realized and manifested." A communication was received from the Rev. George P. Fisher, D.D., LL.D., as Chairman of the Committee on Interdenominational Comity of the Congregational body, inviting us to a conference with them. Acting upon your instructions, the invitation was promptly and cordially accepted, and a correspondence was opened. The following resolutions, passed by the National Council of the Congregational Churches, were transmitted to your Committee, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That the multiplying of churches in towns and villages, beyond the capacity of the people to sustain them, under the auspices of different ecclesiastical bodies which are essentially united in their faith and teaching, is productive of deplorable evils. It involves a waste of Christian forces. It is inconsistent with the spirit of fraternal coöperation that should animate Christian disciples. It engenders sectarian rivalry and conflict. It presents in the communities where it occurs a spectacle of division, which operates in various ways to weaken the practical influence of Christianity and to strengthen the hands of its adversaries.

Resolved, 2. That the remedy for the evil thus described lies in the observance of the Christian rule of comity, which forbids one ecclesiastical body from interfering on the same ground with the work which another has already undertaken and is faithfully prosecuting. To secure the observance of this rule, next to the spread of an enlightened Christian conviction on the subject, the most important requisite is proper official action on the part of general and local superintendents of Home Missions, and especially of the several ecclesiastical organizations with which they are connected.

Resolved, 3. That a Committee on Christian Unity be appointed by this Council to communicate the foregoing resolutions, in earnest and respectful terms, to committees of other ecclesiastical bodies which have been, or may be, appointed, and to request that such action may be taken by these organizations as will effectually promote the object which the above resolutions have in view.

Your Committee was also informed that the Council voted to appoint a Committee on Christian Unity, consisting of Rev. George P. Fisher, D.D., Rev. Lyman Abbott, D.D., Rev. Daniel Merriman, D.D., Rev. Julian M. Sturtevant, D.D., and Rev. Henry Hopkins, D.D.

To this communication the following answer was returned:

HARRISBURG, PA., January 14, 1890.

To the Committee on Christian Unity of the National Congregational Council:

DEAR BRETHREN:—We acknowledge with gratification the receipt of the Report on Interdenominational Comity. We are in most hearty accord with the principles and aims of that admirable paper. An earnest and combined effort should certainly be made by all Christian bodies to abate the evils resulting from denominational interference, thus putting an end to the unseemly strifes and antagonisms which it engenders between brethren, and to the wasteful expenditure of means and energies which it entails. The supreme end which all alike have at heart is, or should be, the promotion of the kingdom of Christ in the most effectual manner, rather than the individual advantage of a particular body with which they may be severally connected. And in regard to churches so closely affiliated as the Congregational and the Presbyterian, which have so much in common in their history and doctrines and general character, and which come into such intimate and mutually influential contact in their various spheres of effort in this and other lands, the utmost pains should be taken to promote harmony and good understanding, and to guard against all causes of offense. We observe with pleasure the resolutions of your National Council upon this subject, and we shall gladly second your efforts by bringing them to the notice of our General Assembly and requesting that body to take appropriate action thereon.

We are also gratified to learn that you have been empowered to correspond with similar committees of other evangelical churches on the subject of Christian unity. We hail this as a fresh indication of the yearning which is felt by Christian hearts in various communions, for a fuller expression of that spiritual union which exists among the true followers of the Redeemer. We shall be glad to consider with you the question whether some method cannot be devised by which the unity of believers, in spite of minor differences, may be more clearly manifested, and by which an enlightened and cordial Christian fellowship may be materially promoted. May it not be possible and desirable for the various denominations of Christians to come into closer and even organic relations with one another, and establish a union among themselves which shall involve no surrender of principle and no abandonment of what is cherished by any in doctrine or in practice, which shall leave to each its existing organization and existing usages, and complete autonomy, and nevertheless shall combine them all in an effective manner for mutual counsel and coöperation?

Yours in Christian fellowship,

JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

FRANCIS BROWN, Secretary.

The scope of the Congregational Committee having been enlarged so as to include the whole subject of Christian unity, we anticipate further correspondence with them on this subject.

It is a gratification to the Committee to be able to report that in its judgment real and decided progress has thus been made in the correspondence with the representatives of these two churches, but the complete realization of the visible unity of the Church of Christ cannot be attained at once. One step in this direction, however, which the Committee believes is practicable and can speedily be taken, has, under your instructions, received its careful consideration, the results of which the Committee desires to lay before the General Assembly for its approval, viz., to combine the Christian churches of the country in some form of official federation, in which there shall be no renunciation by the different churches of their peculiarities or independent organizations, and no interference with their doctrines, government, worship or internal affairs, but which shall aim by the best available methods to secure coöperation in religious work and in the promotion of such moral and social reforms as affect the welfare of the nation. After the subject had been in the minds of your Committee for many months, informal action looking to this end was taken at the meeting in New York, and it received further consideration at the meeting in Harrisburg, Pa., on the 14th of January last. By invitation of Governor Beaver, the Committee met in the Executive Mansion, and enjoyed its generous hospitalities. The Committee continued in session for two days, in earnest conference on the subject before it, and unanimously resolved to bring that subject to the attention of the Assembly.

Your Committee recommend to the General Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. The General Assembly expresses its gratification at the fraternal and Christian spirit manifested in the communications received from the representatives of the Protestant Episcopal and Congregational Churches, and renews its declaration of cordial sympathy with the growing desire among the various Christian bodies for such a union of all true believers as shall fully manifest the vital and essential oneness of the Church of Christ.

2. The Assembly approves, in general, the spirit and position of the Committee on Church Unity in its correspondence with the representatives of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and desires a continuance of these negotiations with reference to a union on the basis of the four propositions of the House of Bishops, in order that all questions at issue may be discussed in a temper of Christian charity and brotherly affection, with a view to their full and final solution. It will welcome like negotiations with any similar Committees or Commissions that may be appointed by other Christian churches for a like purpose.

3. The Assembly gives its cordial assent to the principle of Interdenominational Comity, and expresses the earnest wish that the utmost harmony and mutual consideration may prevail between its representatives and those of other Christian bodies wherever they may be brought in contact with each other.

4. The Assembly declares its approval of the principle of federation, as a step towards a closer union of the various Christian bodies, and authorizes the Committee to make known this approval, in its correspondence.

5. The Assembly continues the Committee on Church Unity with instructions to report to the next Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

The Report of the Special Committee on Deaconesses was presented, pending the consideration of which,

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 26, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of Saturday's session were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following, which was adopted:

Paper No. 19. A paper reciting the "recent decision of the Supreme Court of the State of Wisconsin, affirming the Bible to be a sectarian book, and its use in the public schools to be unconstitutional," and asking for a deliverance of the General Assembly.

Your Committee recommend that this Assembly reaffirm the action of the Assembly of 1870 (see Digest, pp. 278–80). This action declares our unalterable devotion to the public-school system as the most effective agency, next to the Church of God, "in laying the foundations of popular intelligence, virtue and freedom in the United States." Regarding the Bible as the Magna Charta of our best moral and religious influences, we would consider its expulsion from our public schools as a deplorable and suicidal act, and do hereby urge upon our members to coöperate with all Christian people in maintaining the place of this Book of God as an educating force among the youth of our land.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM C. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Committees on the Records of the following Synods reported recommending their approval: Atlantic, Catawba, Colorado, Columbia, Illinois, Indiana, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan,* Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Ohio, Pacific, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Wisconsin.

The Records of the Synod of Baltimore were approved with the following exception: That the printed copy submitted to your Committee, though properly certified, does not correspond to the General Assembly's requirements in two other particulars, viz.: (a) In that the pages are not conformable in size to those of the General Assembly's "Minutes;" (b) though a leaf of writing paper has been pasted in, blank pages have not been left as required, in the make up of the printed copy, for the recording of exceptions.

The Records of the Synod of Texas were approved, with the following exception: That on pp. 223 and 224, the record is made of the approval of Reports of Committees on Systematic Beneficence, Publication and Foreign Missions, but no record of the Reports themselves, nor of their having been placed on file.

The Records of the Synod of North Dakota, for 1888, were approved. The Records of the same Synod, for 1889, were approved, with the following exceptions: 1. The omission from p. 3 of a Report, which had been received and adopted. 2. There is no record that the minutes of the last three sessions of the Synod were approved.

The Records of the following Synods were not presented to the General Assembly, viz., India and Utah.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented its Report, which was received, and after an address by the Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., Superintendent of the Sabbath-school Work, and by the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., the Secretary of the Board, was unanimously adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully reports:

That our Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work is an indispensable instrument of church edification and church extension none can doubt. A sound and wholesome Christian literature is by it prepared for our churches and their work, and the seeds of future churches are diligently sown in destitute regions by its Sabbath-school missionaries. No apparent or real defect in the management of the Board should in the least weaken our confidence in this department of the Church as a most valuable factor in its prosperity. If any defect should be found in the administration it may readily be corrected, but it would be sad, indeed, if from any such cause there should be an alienation on the part of the Church in regard to an engine of such power for good. While we, therefore, very properly, examine and see that the machinery is rightly worked, let us uphold the institution with loyal hearts and ready hands.

* See for reconsideration the proceedings of Monday, May 26, 3 P.M.

The presentation of a select literature in harmony with our faith, calculated to educate our people in Scriptural knowledge, and to mould their minds in godliness, is a potent help to the pulpit, and in many cases a conservative power where there is no pulpit. The many helps to Bible study, both for home use and for Sunday-school instruction, which are issued by our Board, are carefully and wisely prepared, and make Bible study attractive, while they give point to the teachings of the school. We may gain some notion of the value of these by imagining what a set-back our Sabbath-schools would experience by their loss. A well-selected Sabbath-school library becomes very largely, in parts of our country, the staple reading of the family at home, and so proves an efficient agent in leading both old and young to the sources of truth. In some places the Sabbath-school library is the only library of a neighborhood, and it forms the thought of the community.

It is also most important that books which illustrate our Presbyterian system should be found in the hands of all pastors and teachers, so that its excellencies should be known, appreciated, defended and proclaimed by those who are in positions of influence, and this can be done only by the publications of a Board, whose imprimatur establishes the orthodoxy of the volumes it issues.

The direct missionary work of the Board is largely that of a forerunner to the work of the Board of Home Missions. It can occupy a field newly opened before the Home Missionary can reach it. It collects materials and starts a life to which the Home Missionary comes afterward. It plants the school, which the Home Missionary converts into a church. It visits a settlement before the houses are roofed in and gathers the children to receive religious instruction, it may be, under a tree or in a barn. It seeks to sanctify a community at its birth, and so prepare the way for larger spiritual applications. The work is laborious and full of vicissitude, requiring faith and zeal and tact that are not extensively found. The self-denying Sabbath-school missionary meets with every variety of experience. He pushes on under the burning heat of summer and the biting cold of winter. He puts up with a rough diet and rougher lodgment. He faces objections, indifference, rudeness and open opposition. He is satisfied with a meagre salary and finds his reward in a good conscience and the knowledge that he is working in the front for his Lord and Saviour. With all the disadvantages that he meets he founds the school, he establishes its system, he appoints its officers, he instructs them in its manner of conduct, and having fairly constructed and launched the new enterprise with earnest prayer he proceeds to the next station to repeat the useful work there. These are the noble men and this the noble work which our Board has been faithfully and efficiently sustaining, and the results have been such as to awaken our liveliest gratitude to God. Eleven hundred and thirty-nine Sabbath-schools have been established during the year, from which already a large number of churches have been organized. In these Sabbath-schools are 4542 teachers and 38,836 scholars. The missionaries have visited and otherwise aided 2616 Sabbath-schools, visiting 65,920 families and blessing them with the Word of God and prayer. They have conducted Sabbath-school institutes and conventions, preached and assisted at evangelistic meetings, and have coöperated with Synodical and Home Missionaries in organizing churches and in providing them with places of worship. Even though a quarter of the schools established may not survive, the three-quarters that are maintained are powerful factors in the evangelization of newly-settled regions. The missionaries have, during the past year, sold 7118 and given away 46,344 volumes other than Bibles. The whole number of volumes, including Bibles, that have been distributed by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department is 73,873. Special efforts were used to make "Children's Day" a useful day for the work, and attractive literature was distributed to that end. The amount of at least $28,000, the contributions of that day, was ample proof of the wisdom of this measure. Twenty-two bound volumes and eight new tracts have been published during the year. The eleven periodicals of the Board have been continued with increasing popularity, benefit and pecuniary profit. The Westminster Teacher, as one of them, takes very high rank as an exegetical and homiletic aid to the Sabbath-school teacher.

Your Committee cannot leave the matter of the Sabbath-school Department without expressing their decided approbation of the method adopted of employing seminary students in the missionary work, a method so beneficial to the students and proved so successful in its missionary results.

The Business Department reports 1,136,250 books and tracts, and 20,764,822 periodicals, as issued during the year. There are twenty-two depositories and branch houses, including one in London, one in Montreal, one in Toronto and one in Winnipeg.

The sales for the year in books and tracts amounted to $106,123.86, and those from periodicals to $134,981.89, making a total of $241,105.75.

The receipts from all sources were $337,958.94, which with the balance from last year makes a total of $422,642.71. The entire expenditures were $352,999.29. The balance in the treasury on April 1, 1890, was $69,643.42. This balance includes the balance due to The Church at Home and Abroad. The net profits of the year have been $16,943.16, of which two-thirds ($11,295.44) have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary fund and the remaining one-third has been added to the capital stock, which now amounts to $512,128.76, three-fifths of which is unproductive property.

We can look on this Board and the commodious house which it occupies (and in which are furnished without rent accommodations for the Boards of Education and Ministerial Relief, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Presbyterial gatherings) with justifiable denominational pride, and with devout gratitude to God that our Church is so well furnished with needful apparatus for its extended work.

The members of the Board have shown their devotion to the interests of the Church, and although there has been a difference of opinion as to the proper economy of administration, we cannot but recognize the high character and Christian faithfulness of those to whom the General Assembly has entrusted this important branch of the Church's work.

To them and to the honored Secretary of the Board we would accord the praise that is their due.

Your Committee would submit to the Assembly the following resolutions for its adoption:

Resolved, 1. That we regard the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work as one of the most important agents of home evangelization, and that, as such, its missionary work should be liberally supported by all our churches.

Resolved, 2. That our churches should as far as possible use and circulate the publications of our own Board, as a sound and wholesome Christian literature for both young and old.

Resolved, 3. That pastors be urged to explain to their people the difference between the Business and Missionary Departments of the Board, and show them that the latter depends chiefly on the contributions from our churches and Sabbath-schools.

Resolved, 4. That the Board take into consideration the advisability of publishing in the German, Spanish and Scandinavian languages, such Sabbath-school books and papers as may supply a want in our own schools where pupils speaking these languages are found.

Resolved, 5. That the Rev. John Hemphill, D.D., having been elected by the Board in the place of the Rev. S. W. Dana, D.D., who declined the position to which he was elected by the last Assembly; the Rev. J. S. Dickson having been elected by the Board to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. H. C. McCook, D.D., and Franklin L. Sheppard, Esq., having been elected by the Board to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. George S. Graham, these elections are hereby confirmed.

Resolved, 6. That the term of office of the following gentlemen expiring in June, 1890, the same are hereby elected to the Board for three years, to wit, Ministers—Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., Thomas A. Hoyt, D.D., John Hemphill, D.D., J. Stuart Dickson;

Elders—Samuel C. Perkins, LL.D., Robert N. Willson, Franklin L. Sheppard; and as the Hon. John Scott declines a reëlection, Mr. W. H. Parsons, of New York, be elected to the Board for three years.

The Committee, having had referred to it an Overture from the Highland Presbytery, asking the Assembly to recommend for use other hymnals than our own, or to make an arrangement for their publication by our Board, recommend no action in the matter.

Respectfully submitted,
HOWARD CROSBY, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be directed to print the Report of the Standing Committee as a tract for general distribution, with the exception of the details relative to the election of officers.

The Judicial Commission in the case of the complaint of the Rev. Nathaniel West, D.D., against the Synod of Minnesota, reported their finding, which was received, confirmed, ordered to be entered on the minutes, and is as follows:

The Judicial Commission appointed to hear the complaint of the Rev. Nathaniel West, D.D., against the Synod of Minnesota, referred by the General Assembly of 1889 to this General Assembly, sustain so much of said complaint as refers to the refusal of the Synod of Minnesota to hear the complaint of Dr. West against the Presbytery of St. Paul. We judge that the reasons assigned by the Synod for that refusal are insufficient. The Synod of Minnesota is therefore directed at its next stated meeting to hear fully the complaint of Dr. West against the Presbytery of St. Paul, upon its merits, and to issue the same according to the provisions of the Book of Discipline. The facts of the complaint subsequent to the point just decided are necessarily involved in the full and fair hearing of Dr. West's complaint against the Presbytery of St. Paul, as the latter complaint covers not only the constitutional powers of the Presbytery, but also the wisdom of their exercise under the circumstances of the case.

HENRY J. VAN DYKE, Chairman.

A telegram conveying the greetings of the Baptist Convention, meeting in Chicago, was read, and the Moderator and Stated Clerk were directed to respond in the name of the Assembly.

The Moderator announced the following as the Special Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work: Ruling Elders—Alfred Hand, Elias R. Monfort, Anson D. F. Randolph, George S. Drake, Reuben F. Smith, William C. Martin and William A. Brodie.

It was also Resolved, That the Report be transmitted by the Stated Clerk to the Presbyteries; that the Presbyteries be required to send up their opinions thereon to the Stated Clerk, by January 1, 1891, and that these opinions with the Report be considered by the Committee and reported to the next General Assembly.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Treasurer of the General Assembly, be, and he is hereby authorized to invest so much of the funds of the Assembly as shall remain in his hands after the adjournment of the Assembly, as may to him seem advisable, not to exceed $30,000, and in securities concerning whose value there can be no doubt, for a term not exceeding one year.

We also recommend that Dr. Roberts, as Stated Clerk, be authorized to employ a clerk to aid him in his correspondence, and also in the preparation of the "Minutes" of the Assembly for publication.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Rochester, asking for a reduction of the apportionment upon the membership of the churches, has been referred to us, which has received our careful attention. We respectfully recommend for answer that, in view of the proposed holding of the sessions of the Assembly, at no distant day, upon the Pacific coast, it is inexpedient to take action upon the Overture at this time.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. R. PERKINS, Chairman.

The vacancy on the Special Committee on the German Theological Seminaries, caused by the death of the Rev. Prentiss De Veuve, D.D., was filled by the appointment of the Rev. William C. Falconer, D.D.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 26, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church presented the following Report, which was accepted and the answers adopted:

Paper No. 9. A petition that a Committee of four ministers and three elders be appointed to gather information and make recommendation to the next Assembly, regarding the possibility of any coöperation between our Church and other denominations, in places where feeble churches exist, in order to the saving of the Church's money.

The Committee recommend the appointment of such a Committee.

Overture No. 10. An Overture from the Presbytery of Steubenville, asking: Is it regular to grant a certificate of dismission to a member of the Church otherwise than by a vote of the Session regularly constituted? For example, by a Session informally assembled, or by a pastor or clerk acting for the Session?

Your Committee recommends the following answer: It is not regular.

Overture No. 11. An Overture from the Presbytery of Freeport, asking: Can an elder, being Moderator of Presbytery, preside at the ordination of a minister, propound the constitutional questions, take part in the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery, and make the ordaining prayer?

Answer: The Form of Government, Chap. xv, Sec. xii, speaks of "a member of Presbytery appointed to preside" at the ordination of a minister. Sec. xiii refers to this officer as "the presiding minister." Sec. xiv says, "the presiding minister shall by prayer and with the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery, * * * solemnly ordain." That this "laying on of hands" does not include the elders is clear from the subsequent record, that all the members take the newly ordained minister by the hand, saying, "We give you the right hand of fellowship to take part of this ministry with us."

The Assembly therefore answers that "an elder being Moderator of Presbytery" cannot preside at the ordination of a minister, nor propound the constitutional questions, nor take part in the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery, nor make the ordaining prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
HERRICK JOHNSON, Chairman.

The Special Committee on the Organization and Enrollment of Churches presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The last General Assembly received an Overture from the Synod of New Jersey, in these words:

"In view of apparently contradictory deliverances, by the General Assembly, upon the subject of the regular constitution, by Presbytery of church organizations, under the Presbyterial Form of Government, and confusion of opinion arising therefrom; therefore,

"Resolved, That the Synod of New Jersey does hereby Overture the next General Assembly to consider the subject of such deliverances, and to make such final deliverance thereupon, as in the wisdom of the Assembly shall seem proper."

This Overture was by the Assembly placed in the hands of the Standing Committee on Church Polity, whose Report was amended to read as follows:

"The Assembly answers:

"1. By referring to the deliverance of the Assembly of 1888 ('Minutes', p. 109) as conclusive in reference to the matters therein contained.

"2. This Assembly would further declare that, while it is lawful for a Presbytery to constitute and enroll a church, the suitable material for ruling elders being temporarily wanting, yet, in the judgment of the Assembly, the Presbytery, or its Committee, should carefully consider every such case, and should refuse to proceed to constitute the church, except in cases of peculiar urgency and necessity.

"3. When a particular church has been thus constituted and enrolled without a ruling elder, being, in its spiritual affairs, disqualified for government and discipline, except through the Presbytery, it must be regarded as a church, imperfect in its condition, and its Presbytery should endeavor to perfect it as soon as possible, by the election of the proper officers.

"4. The Presbytery, or its Committee or commission for the organization of a church, should look well to the character and capacity of every candidate for ruling elder, and should discountenance the election and ordination of such as appear unsuitable for the office, and the same care should be exercised in reference to the office of deacon.'

This Report was adopted.

The next day, however, the action was reconsidered and referred to a Special Committee, to report to this Assembly.

Your Committee would respectfully report:

According to the Form of Government, Chap. ii, Sec. iv, "A particular church consists of a number of professing Christians, with their offspring, voluntarily associated together, for divine worship and godly living, agreeably to the holy Scriptures, and submitting to a certain form of government."

In 1831, the General Assembly declared, that "a particular Presbyterian Church, so far as adults are concerned, is constituted and organized as such, by a number of individuals, professing to walk together as the disciples of Jesus Christ, on the principles of the Confession of Faith and Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church, and the election and ordination of one or more ruling elders, who by the ordination service become the spiritual rulers of the persons voluntarily submitting themselves to their authority in the Lord." In describing the proper organization of a particular Presbyterian church, the Assembly requires that application be made to the Presbytery, which should appoint a committee to accomplish the desire of the applicants, by receiving those who are full communicants, on certificates from their several churches; and, others, after examination, on profession of faith. Those thus received "should now, by some public formal act, such as rising, joining hands, or subscribing a written statement, agree and covenant to walk together in a church relation, according to the acknowledged doctrines and order of the Presbyterian Church" (Presbyterian Digest, p. 107). This formal act constitutes them a Presbyterian church, according to the above quoted section of the Form of Government. The "Book of Church Order" of the Southern Church requires that the committee should then by its Chairman say: "I now pronounce that you are constituted a church according to the Word of God and the faith and order of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost" (Chap. ii, Sec. v).

Thus the communicants are organized a Presbyterian church, before they can proceed to elect officers. This is evident from our Form of Government, which says: "In all cases the persons elected (ruling elders or deacons) must be male members, in full communion, in the church in which they are to exercise their office" (Chap. xiii, Sec. ii). And they can be elected only by the communicants of that particular church.

In 1888, the General Assembly was asked "whether such a body of believers, so organized, has a right to be enrolled as a church by the Presbytery, though the election of elders and deacons be postponed temporarily for reasons of prudence or necessity; and further, what is the status of such a church, or of one which has lost its officers by death or removal, and, for the time being, is without suitable material for the election of successors?" The Assembly replied that "a body of Christians thus formed is essentially and potentially a church, with the right of enrollment and recognition, though not prepared to exercise the functions of government and discipline until its representative officers, as required by the Presbyterian system, be chosen and duly set apart for these purposes. Meanwhile the Presbytery shall appoint one or more of its members to take oversight of the spiritual affairs of such a church until a session may be regularly constituted." The same Assembly was also asked: "May a minister of a Presbyterian church receive members by examination and profession of their faith into a church in which no ruling elder or elders can be found, all having died or removed from the bounds of the church, and would members so received and recognized by the congregation and chosen as officers of the church be legally entitled to their positions as church officers?" The Assembly gave an affirmative answer to these questions, "provided such action is taken under the authority and direction of the Presbytery" (G. A. "Minutes," 1888, p. 109).

A fully constituted Presbyterian church must have a pastor, ruling elders and deacons. But its existence as a church does not depend upon its officers. It would not be ipso facto dissolved, should they all be removed. The church, under a proper call, would be competent to elect others in their stead.

From the above harmonious declarations of our Form of Government and of the General Assembly, it is evident that a distinction is properly made between the existence of a church and the agents through which it performs its functions—between the organization of a Presbyterian church, possessing under our Form of Government certain offices, and the election of individuals to fill these offices.

We therefore recommend that the following reply be sent to the Synod of New Jersey:

1. A particular Presbyterian church consists of a number of communicants together with their offspring, associated by the direction of Presbytery, professing to walk together as the disciples of Jesus Christ, on the principles of the Confession of Faith and the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church, and should be recognized and enrolled as such.

2. The first act of the newly organized church should be the election, under the supervision of the Committee of Presbytery, of ruling elders and deacons. The Committee should at once appoint a minister of the Presbytery as Moderator of Session, until the church shall elect a pastor, and the Presbytery takes further action.

3. The Committee of Presbytery should carefully consider the character and other qualifications of every candidate for ruling elder or deacon, and should discountenance the election or ordination of those who appear unsuitable.

4. When, however, proper persons cannot be found among the communicants for church officers, all the facts should be reported to Presbytery, which should regard the organization as potentially a church, and therefore entitled to enrollment and supervision; but as imperfect in its condition, being disqualified, lacking the proper officers, from exercising government and discipline, and from representation in the judicatories of the church. The Presbytery should therefore appoint a Special Committee to take the oversight of the church, and to secure, as soon as possible, the election of proper officers—ruling elders and deacons—that it may perform all the functions of a Presbyterian church.

In behalf of the Committee,
J. Aspinwall Hodge, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen also presented a supplementary Report answering in the negative the following Overture from the Presbytery of Cape Fear:

The Presbytery of Cape Fear, in session at Louisburg, N. C., April 26, 1890, respectfully overtures the next General Assembly, which is to meet in session at Saratoga, N. Y., May 15, 1890, to change the first recommendation in the Report of the Special Committee on the Freedmen's Board ("Minutes" of 1889, p. 61), by omitting the following words in the first and second lines, after "control," viz., "and sustain the entire," and prefix the word "the" before "work." In the third and fourth lines, cut out all words after "But" and before "any," viz., "at the request of the Board of Missions for Freedmen." Also make the following insertion in the sixth line, between the words "aid" and "should," "except Presbyterial applications." The whole recommendation will then read: "That the Board of Missions for Freedmen should control the work among the Freedmen, and not depend upon the contributions of the Church to other Boards. But any other Board may render such needed assistance as may be justified by the condition of its treasury. All appeals for aid, except Presbyterial applications, should be approved by the Board." We ask this because, 1. The recommendation is discriminating. 2. It is so expressed as to be capable of varied interpretation. 3. It is impracticable; we have tested it.

After discussion the Assembly ordered that the request contained in the Overture be granted.

The Report of the Special Committee on Proof Texts was taken up. After discussion, the Committee was continued. Its Report was ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the "Minutes" of the Assembly.

Your Committee, as it was constituted, with the additions made to it by the last Assembly, consists of the Rev. Drs. Samuel T. Lowrie, Chairman, Joseph T. Smith, Howard Crosby, William H. Green, D. C. Marquis, M. B. Riddle, W. G. T. Shedd, E. D. Morris and R. B. Welch. The pressure of other and previously contracted engagements, greatly to our regret, prevented the Rev. Dr. Green from rendering his valuable assistance. With this exception, all the members of the Committee have been able to give diligent and prayerful attention to the work assigned them.

By correspondence conducted by the Chairman, a distribution of the chapters of the Confession and the questions of the Catechism was made among the members of the Committee. Each member was to prepare a written Report, on the portion assigned him in a uniform way previously arranged. Copies of this were then sent to all the other members in order that the work of each might be reviewed by all. Furnished with the results of their labors in written form, the Committee met at the summer residence of the Chairman, in Keene Valley, N. Y., on the 24th of July last, and continued in executive session for four days, sitting ten hours a day. There were present, Drs. Lowrie, Smith, Morris, Marquis and Riddle. The absent members, with the exception of Dr. Green, were all represented by their written reports and reviews. It was found that considerable progress had been made with the Catechism, but the Committee resolved to confine their attention to the Confession, so as to complete that portion of their work in readiness to be reported to the Assembly. The revision was completed, with the exception of Chaps. i and ii, and from xx to xxiii inclusive. Various suggestions, particularly with reference to the manner of pointing, lettering and spacing to be embodied in the final Report, were accepted. The Chairman then announced that he was compelled to be absent in Europe for an indefinite period. The Committee heard this with great regret, for Dr. Lowrie had not only given his personal services unreservedly and most efficiently, but had tendered to the Committee the hospitalities of his home. Dr. J. T. Smith was appointed acting Chairman in his absence, and the Committee then adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman, in Allegheny, some time during the month of January.

The call was issued for the meeting of the Committee at the home of Dr. Riddle in Allegheny, on the 17th of January, 1890. There were present Drs. Smith, Marquis and Riddle. Most of the absent members gave satisfactory reasons for their absence, and requested the members present to complete the revision of the Confession with the material in hand. Dr. Lowrie furnished a revision of Chaps. i and ii, and Dr. Crosby of the remaining chapters, from xx to xxiii, and with these, together with the criticisms of the other members upon them, the Confession was completed, submitted to all the members of the Committee, approved by them and ordered to be reported to this Assembly.

There were two questions which the Committee resolved to submit to the Assembly without any action or recommendation on their part. In Chap. xxiv, Sec. 6, the affirmation that "Such willful desertion as can no way be remedied by the Church or civil magistrate is cause sufficient of dissolving the bond of marriage," is supported by but a single proof text (1 Cor. vii, 15). The true interpretation of the passage is unsettled, and it is admitted on all hands to be a doubtful text. But as the Church by its insertion here has sanctioned a certain interpretation, and as the removal of the text, since it is the only proof cited, would be a virtual revision of the Confession itself, the Committee resolved to let it remain, and report the facts to the Assembly as the only body competent to act in the case. For the same reasons, the question as to retaining 2 Thess. ii, 3, 4, cited under Sec. 6 of Chap. xxv, is submitted to the decision of the Assembly.

The agitation as to a revision of the Confession itself, it will be remembered, has sprung up since the appointment of your Committee, and with that they felt they had nothing to do. They experienced no practical difficulty whatever in separating their work entirely from that of the revision of the Confession itself, and confining themselves to the one single task assigned—that of a revision of proof texts.

Their meetings were conspicuously harmonious, and their conclusions in almost every instance were reached with entire unanimity. The apparent slowness of their progress arises from causes which a moment's consideration will make obvious. The work is one which, if well done, involves a vast amount of time and labor and critical research. All the members of the Committee, with a single exception, were burdened with other and most exacting duties. They were widely scattered so as to render frequent or protracted meetings impracticable, and the work had to be carried on largely by correspondence. We herewith submit in this official copy prepared in the most convenient form for the purpose a revision of the proof texts of the Confession of Faith. Should the Committee be continued, they hope with the progress already made to complete the Larger Catechism and make their final Report to the next Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH T. SMITH, Acting Chairman.

The Committee was continued, with instructions to report to the next Assembly.

The Committee on German Theological Seminaries reported progress and was continued.

The Special Committee on Deaconesses ("Minutes," 1889, pp. 77 and 81) presented its Report, which was accepted and its recommendations adopted, as follows:

The Committee appointed by the last Assembly to consider the question of constituting an Order of Deaconesses and report to this Assembly ("Minutes" of 1889, pp. 77, 78 and 81), beg to report that they have given their best consideration to the important subject committed to them, and that they desire to make certain recommendations concerning it to this Assembly. After full conference they found themselves strongly of the opinion that the time is ripe for the reconstitution of the office of deaconess in the Church; but they were also of the opinion that the usefulness of this revival of a long-discontinued office might be handicapped by hasty or minute regulation concerning it at the outset. They have less confidence in their own power, to determine and arrange beforehand the details for the reconstitution of this order, than they have in the living Church gradually redeveloping the order in its essential features, privileges, duties and honors, under the spur, guidance and checks, on the one hand, of the practical demands of the Church's work, and on the other, of the directing and governing hand of the Church's courts. They have thought it wise, therefore, to recommend the revival of the office of deaconesses with the least possible legislation on the subject, and to leave it to the future to add details as, in the practical wisdom of the Church, such details are gradually seen to be necessary or desirable, whether for directing the movement, developing it to its highest usefulness, or guarding other interests.

The Committee, in giving their attention to the whole subject committed to it by the Assembly, were forced to face the needs of two very different spheres of woman's work for the Church, corresponding to two different conceptions of the import of the name deaconess. The one conceives of it as a congregational office, similar to that of deacon, and charged with similar functions. The other conceives of it as a sisterhood of trained workers, more or less of the type of the deaconess houses of Kaiserswerth. The Committee have little doubt but that there is a strong call upon the Church for the institution of both classes of workers. But in consistency with their conviction that it is wise not to outrun the performance with a theoretical reconstruction, they have decided to recommend the immediate establishment only of the congregational deaconess (to whom alone the name appears of strict right to belong), while, with reference to deaconess houses for the training of workers, they confine themselves at present to recommending that the Assembly take steps towards their establishment.

The reasons which have weighed with the Committee in leading them to recommend the establishment of congregational deaconesses, and which, it is hoped, will weigh with the Assembly in leading it to adopt the recommendation, are succinctly the following:

1. It appears to have been an office of the Apostolic Church. It seems to be possibly traceable in the New Testament itself (e. g., "Phebe, the deaconess," Rom. xvi, 1), and to have been in full activity in the subapostolic age (e. g., Pliny's letter to Trajan).

2. It has never been without recognition as such in the Reformed Churches. Calvin recognized its propriety. An attempt was made to revive it in the Reformed Church of the Netherlands (the congregation of Wesel) as early as 1568, which, though disallowed by the Synod of Middleburg in 1581, was not opposed on principle. Our Puritan ancestors in England made use of it from the reign of Elizabeth (1576) (see Neal's "History of the Puritans," London, 1754, i, 232, and cf. Smith's "Dictionary of the Bible," p. 574). It has received the approval of such Presbyterian scholars as Chalmers, Charles Hodge and Alexander T. McGill.

3. It is being successfully revived by many of our sister Presbyterian churches. As early as 1866, the Lebanon Classis of the Reformed (German) Church in the United States overtured the General Synod of that Church in the matter, and thus began a movement which has resulted in the practical recognition of the office in that Church (see the papers in the "Minutes" of the General Synod for 1884). In their book of Church Order adopted in 1879, the Southern Presbyterian Church practically reëstablished the office without the name. The Church of Scotland, after several years of deliberation, finally completed the organization of its full scheme in 1888. The Synod of the American Reformed Presbyterian Church in 1888, in reply to a reference from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, pronounced in favor of the ordination of women to the order of deacon, (see Dr. T. P. Stevenson, in Our Banner, November and December, 1888). Finally, the last Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, commended the reconstitution of the office (in the sense of the Scotch Church) to its constituency.

4. There is a strong practical demand for the office, both in the needs of our churches, the presence of suitable gifts for it in our women, and their readiness to perform the functions of the office even without its honors. The work is immense; it must be done; it is being done; and the only question is whether the Church will give its official recognition to the abundant labors already being performed voluntarily. Shall we not here too say, "Honor to whom honor is due."

On such grounds as these, which are capable of almost illimitable enlargement, your Committee recommend the Assembly to take steps for the immediate revival of the office of deaconess in our congregations. And in order to this, your Committee recommend that the Assembly, acting on the Overture of the Presbytery of Philadelphia ("Minutes" of 1889, p. 77), submit the following proposed amendments to the Form of Government, to the Presbyteries for their approval, and it is further recommended that the Presbyteries be directed to vote upon them, aye or no:

"Shall the following sections be added to the Form of Government, viz., (1) in Chap. vi, a section to be numbered Section 2, as follows:

"II. Women also served the Apostolical Church as deaconesses, whose office and duties were similar to those of deacons.

"And (2) in Chap. xiii, a section to be numbered Section 9, as follows:

"IX. Deaconesses may be elected to office in a manner similar to that appointed for deacons, and set apart by prayer."

The practical demand for the establishment of training schools for women workers, shining examples of which we have seen in the Kaiserswerth deaconess houses, and something similar to which has been more recently established by the Church of Scotland, and by the Methodists in America, is not less decided than for the congregational deaconesses provided for above. We cannot afford to incur the reproach of depending upon other churches to supply the training which our women workers need, in order to fit them for entering into and possessing the great spheres of work—in hospitals, schools and the stricken homes of our land; or the cities and zenanas of other lands. The needs of our complicated modern social system and of the opening heathen world imperatively demand that such training agencies be established. Your Committee therefore humbly but earnestly recommend the Assembly to consider, whether it may not set on foot such agencies as to its wisdom may seem fit, for the establishment of training schools for women workers, after the model, say of the "Deaconess Institution and Training Home" of the Church of Scotland, and under such regulations as will secure the greatest usefulness and efficiency.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,
B. B. WARFIELD, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk was authorized, by unanimous consent, to cast the ballot of the Assembly for the following persons as Trustees of the Church Erection Fund: Ministers—Samuel D. Alexander, Archibald McCullagh, Richard D. Harlan, Robert F. Sample; Elders—William N. Crane, Benjamin F. Dunning; also, Theron G. Strong, in place of Stephen H. Thayer, deceased; Joseph L. Munn, in place of B. F. Randolph, and they were accordingly elected.

Charles L. Thompson, D.D., was chosen to fill the place made vacant in the Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad by the resignation of the Rev. A. T. Pierson, D.D.

The Committee on the Canvass of the Votes of the Presbyteries in answer to the Overture of Inquiry on Revision sent down by the last General Assembly, presented an amended Report, which was received and approved and the Committee discharged. The Report is as follows:

Report of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly to Canvass the Returns of the Presbyteries:

The Committee appointed by the Assembly to canvass the replies of the Presbyteries to the questions submitted to them by the last Assembly, to wit: 1. Do you desire a revision of the Confession of Faith? and, 2. If so, in what respect and to what extent? beg leave to make the following Report:

Of the two hundred and thirteen (213) Presbyteries on the roll of the Assembly, four (4) failed to respond, namely, Furrukhabad, Ningpo, Shanghai and Shantung; seven (7) declined to vote, namely, Alaska, Albany, Birmingham, Canton, Catawba, Oroomiah and Zacatecas; one hundred and thirty-four (134) answered the Overture in the affirmative, and sixty-eight (68) in the negative.

The Presbyteries voting in the affirmative are: Aberdeen, Alton, Arizona, Athens, Austin, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Binghamton, Bismarck, Black Hills, Bloomington, Boulder, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Cairo, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Champlain, Chemung, Chicago, Chickasaw, Chippewa, Choctaw, Chile, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbus, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota, Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, East Florida, East Oregon, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Flint, Fargo, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Freeport, Geneva, Grand Rapids, Gunnison, Hastings, Highland, Holston, Hudson, Huron, Idaho, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kearney, Knox, Lackawanna, Lahore, Lake Superior, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, Los Angeles, Louisville, Lyons, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Mexico, Milwaukee, Monroe, Montana, Morris and Orange, Muncie, Nassau, Nebraska City, New Albany, Newark, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, Northumberland, Olympia, Oregon, Otsego, Ottawa, Peking, Petoskey, Pueblo, Puget Sound, Rio Grande, Rochester, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Lawrence, St. Paul, Santa Fé, Schuyler, Solomon, Southern Dakota, Southern Oregon, South Florida, Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Syracuse, Transylvania, Troy, Union, Utah, Utica, Vincennes, Washington City, Waterloo, Westchester, West Jersey, West Virginia, White Water, Winnebago, Winona, Wood River, Zanesville—134.

The Presbyteries voting in the negative are: Allahabad, Allegheny, Atlantic, Blairsville, Boston, Butler, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Cherokee Nation, Chester, Chillicothe, Clarion, Corisco, Dubuque, Duluth, Ebenezer, Fairfield, Genesee, Huntingdon, Kansas City, Kingston, Kittanning, Kolhapur, La Crosse, Lodiana, Long Island, McClelland, Madison, Monmouth, Muskogee, Neosho, New Brunswick, New Castle, Newton, North Laos, North Texas, Omaha, Osborne, Ozark, Palmyra, Pembina, Peoria, Philadelphia, Philadelphia Central, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portsmouth, Red River, Redstone, Rock River, Sacramento, St. Louis, San Francisco, San José, Shenango, Siam, Southern Virginia, Springfield, Topeka, Trinity, Washington, Wellsborough, Western Africa, Westminster, White River, Wooster, Yadkin—68.

In the case of two Presbyteries (Kolhapur and Topeka) that answer the Overture in the negative, the returns show that there was a tie vote. The Presbytery of Sacramento, though answering the Assembly's Overture in the negative, has nevertheless overtured the Assembly that Chap. x, Sec. 3, of the Confession of Faith be amended by striking out the word "elect" before "infants" in that section, and the Presbytery of Albany, though declining to vote either "yes" or "no" on the Assembly's Overture, has overtured the Assembly in favor of a new creed, to be used alternatively with the existing Standards in the admission of officers of the Church.

Of the Presbyteries that answer the Assembly's second question in the affirmative, eighteen have expressed a willingness to leave the question concerning the nature and extent of revision to the General Assembly. They are the Presbyteries of Benicia, Central Dakota, Des Moines, East Florida, East Oregon, Fargo, Fort Dodge, Mankato, Mexico, New Albany, St. Clairsville, Milwaukee, Schuyler, Southern Oregon, Steubenville, Troy, Wood River and Zanesville.

Your Committee find that twenty-five (25) Presbyteries express a desire for a new creed, either as a substitute for, or as supplementary to and explanatory of, the existing doctrinal symbols. Of these, eight, namely, Cayuga, Gunnison, Knox, Morris and Orange, Peking, Petoskey, Lyons and Syracuse, desire a new creed as a substitute for the existing symbols; the Presbyteries of Cayuga, Lyons and Syracuse expressing their wish that the creed referred to should be made by combination and abridgment of the Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms; and seventeen (17), namely, Binghamton, Cairo, Chemung, Chickasaw, Chile, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Kearney, Logansport, Madison, Nassau, Niagara, North River, Otsego, Pembina, St. Lawrence and Winnebago, desire a supplementary creed, prepared under the direction of the General Assembly and intended for popular use.

Fifteen Presbyteries express a desire for a creed that will represent the consensus of doctrine among the Reformed churches, which, however, shall not interfere with the use of our existing doctrinal Standards. They are the following: Black Hills, Cleveland, Columbia, Elizabeth, Genesee, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Los Angeles, Mankato, Newark, New York, Niagara, Rochester, Solomon and Steuben.

One Presbytery (Chile) asks for an authoritative interpretation of the terms of subscription.

Of the one hundred and thirty-four (134) Presbyteries that have answered the first question in the affirmative, sixty-nine [ninety-two] have expressly said that they desire no revision that impairs the integrity of the system of doctrine contained in the Confession of Faith. They are the following: Aberdeen, Alton, Austin, Benicia, Binghamton, Black Hills, Bloomington, Boulder, Brooklyn, Cairo, Cedar Rapids, Chicago, Cincinnati, Columbus, Council Bluffs, Dayton, Denver, Detroit, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Fargo, Flint, Fort Dodge, Geneva, Hastings, Holston, Hudson, Indianapolis, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kearney, Lackawanna, Lahore, Lansing, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, Los Angeles, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Mexico, Milwaukee, Morris and Orange, Muncie, New Albany, Newark, New York, North River, Northumberland, Olympia, Oregon, Ottawa, Petoskey, Saginaw, St. Paul, Santa Fé, Schuyler, Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Transylvania, Utica, Washington City, Waterloo, West Chester and West Jersey.

[To this list, by order of the Assembly, the Stated Clerk adds the names of the following Presbyteries: Athens, Baltimore, Chickasaw, Chippewa, Cleveland, Freeport, Fort Wayne, Grand Rapids, Highland, Huron, Iowa, Monroe, Nassau, Nebraska City, Niagara, Otsego, Pueblo, Rio Grande, Southern Dakota, Southern Oregon, South Florida, Union, Zanesville—23.]

Turning now to the specific portions of the Confession in respect to which a desire for change has been expressed in the returns from the Presbyteries, your Committee find the following facts: One hundred and six Presbyteries desire that Chap. iii on The Decree of God be amended; two Presbyteries wish a change in the Confessional statements concerning the Cosmogony in Chap. iv; two wish changes in Chap. v, Sec. 6; ten in Chap. vi, Secs. 1–4, on the subjects of the Fall and Total Depravity; one the omission of the word "frequently" in Chap. vii; six in Chap. viii, Secs. 5–8, the first being the substitution of "the Divine Justice" for "His Father's justice;" two in Chap. ix, in respect to the doctrine of the sinner's inability; one hundred and two in Chap. x, Secs. 3 and 4, referring respectively to "elect infants dying in infancy" and to "men not professing the Christian religion;" one in Chap. xi, Sec. 4, which says that God did from all eternity decree to justify all the elect; one in Chap. xiv, Sec. 1, by substituting the word "sinners" for the word "elect;" three in Chap. xv, by reading "condemnation" for "damnation;" ten in Chap. xvi, Sec. 7, referring to works done by unregenerate men; one in Chap. xxi, Secs. 4 and 8, the first referring to prayer for those "of whom it may be known that they have sinned the sin unto death," and the second to the words "whole time" in the paragraph that concerns the observance of the Sabbath; four in Chap. xxii, Secs. 3 and 7, modifying the statement that it is a sin to refuse an oath in any thing that is good and just, and eliminating the reference to "popish monastical vows;" two in Chap. xxiv, Sec. 6, on Divorce; sixty-three in those portions of Chaps. xxiv and xxv that refer to the Roman Catholic Church or the Pope; one in Chap. xxv, Sec. 2, by eliminating the words "out of which there is no ordinary possibility of salvation;" one in Chap. xxviii, Sec. 1, by substituting "recognition" for "admission," and making other verbal changes in the sentence demanded by this substitution; two in Chap. xxix, Sec. 1, by reading "to be observed in the Church until Christ come again" in place of "unto the end of the world;" two in Chap. xxix, Sec. 8, by reading "condemnation" for "damnation;" and five in Chap. xxx, Sec. 2, in respect to the power of the keys. In addition to these changes in the text of the Confession for which a greater or less degree of desire has been expressed, your Committee also find that three of the Presbyteries desire to see in the Confession a more explicit statement of the freedom of the will; seventy-one Presbyteries have said that they wish to see in our Confession of Faith a more explicit declaration of the love of God to the world than it now contains; forty-four Presbyteries desire the insertion in the Confession of a statement that will recognize the Church's duty to evangelize the world; and four Presbyteries have asked for the insertion of a new chapter in the Confession on the Person and Work of the Holy Spirit.

We may mention also that one Presbytery has expressed the hope that if a Committee should be appointed to consider the question concerning a Revision of the Confession, every Synod in the Church should be represented in the Committee; and, further, that one Presbytery has expressed the opinion that the question concerning the mode of amending the Confession of Faith should be settled before any Overture upon the subject is transmitted to the Presbyteries.

The following Presbyteries, namely, Albany, Cayuga, Cleveland, Elizabeth, Genesee, Indianapolis, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Logansport, Los Angeles, Madison, Mankato, Newark, New York, North River, Olympia, St. Lawrence, Solomon, Steuben and Utica (21) have embodied in their answers to the last Assembly's Overture, an Overture to this Assembly upon the subject of a New Creed, and your Committee recommend that these Overtures be referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS L. PATTON,
HENRY M. MACCRACKEN,*
MAURICE D. EDWARDS,
R. P. SHANKLIN,
JAMES D. THORNTON.

At the same time, we recommend the reference of the Overture to the Board, and request the Board to take the whole subject into consideration.

For the Committee, HENRY J. VAN DYKE, Chairman.

The approval of the Records of the Synod of Minnesota was reconsidered, and the minutes were approved with the exception of the record pertaining to the case of Rev. N. West, D.D.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 27, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of last evening's session were read and approved.

The Committee of Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, which was adopted:

Paper No. 20. A memorial from the Synod of Minnesota with reference to the relation of the churches of Douglass county, Wis., to the Presbytery of Duluth.

Answer: 1. The approval of the minutes of the Synods of Wisconsin and Minnesota by the General Assembly of 1889 does not make valid the action taken by said Synods in relation to the churches of Douglass county, Wis. 2. Inasmuch as the parties interested approve the setting off of the churches of Douglass county, Wis., to form a part of the Presbytery of Duluth, the General Assembly hereby declares that said churches are placed within the bounds and under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery of Duluth.

Paper No. 21. Being Overtures from the Presbyteries of Albany, Cayuga, Emporia, Indianapolis, Logansport, Madison, North River, St. Lawrence, Utica and Wooster upon a new and brief creed, or explanatory statement of doctrine for practical use.

Your Committee recommend that in our present circumstances it is inexpedient to take any action upon this subject.

Paper No. 22. An Overture from the National Reform Association, calling attention to the alarming increase of divorces in our land, and the looseness of the divorce laws, and asking for a deliverance upon this evil, which threatens the foundations of society.

Your Committee recommend that the frequent and decided utterances of former Assemblies on this subject be deemed sufficient. (See pp. 605–607 and 811–814 of Digest.)

The recommendation of the Standing Committee on Temperance with reference to a delegate to the National Temperance Congress in New York was reconsidered and stricken out from the Report.

The Rev. Timothy G. Darling, D.D., being unable to act as the delegate of the Assembly to the Synod of the Reformed Church in America, was excused, and the Rev. George C. Yeisley, D.D., was appointed in his place.

The Judicial Committee presented its Report, as follows:

1. In the case No. 1, of Special Report of judicial cases from the Synod of Ohio, viz., the appeal of the Session of the Cambridge Church vs. the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, the Committee reports that the proceedings are regular and recommend their approval.

2. In the matter of the complaint of the Rev. Clarence W. Backus and others vs. the Presbytery of Rochester, the Committee reports that the proceedings in the case before the Synod of New York were regular, and recommend their approval.

3. The Judicial Committee having examined the protest of Robert N. Willson and others vs. the action of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, are of the opinion that the papers which were submitted to the Presbytery of Philadelphia are not properly before the General Assembly, and recommend that they be returned to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery.

4. A memorial from the Synod of Minnesota, inquiring whether the approval by the General Assembly of the minutes of Minnesota and of Wisconsin, did not carry with it a grant of their petition for a change in the boundaries of the two Synods. Recommended that the inquiry be answered in the negative.

5. Record of judicial cases from the Synod of Ohio. Appeal of John W. Chambers vs. the Presbytery of St. Clairsville. In this case, Mr. Chambers gave notice of appeal and complaint, which is duly certified by the Stated Clerk of the Synod of Ohio, as having been lodged in due time. A copy of the appeal, etc., and reasons are annexed.

In this case the Judicial Committee are not able, from the record, or from the papers of the appellant, to decide that the decision of the Synod was irregular in the respects specified. But it appears from the accompanying papers that the Session of the Church at St. Clairsville, proceeded at once to cite the appellant to appear for trial notwithstanding the fact that he had notified them of the fact that he had taken an appeal from the decision of the Synod, on the ground of the irregularity, i. e., unconstitutionality of its action. The Assembly, not the inferior judicatories, is the judge of the question of constitutionality. The Committee recommend that the appeal be dismissed, and that the proceedings of the Synod be approved; but that the action of the Session of the Church of St. Clairsville, in proceeding to trial, while the appeal was pending, is unconstitutional and void.

The following resolution was referred, with a favorable recommendation, to the Committee of Arrangements of the next Assembly:

Resolved, That the Committee of Arrangements for the next General Assembly be directed to exclude from the house in which the Assembly meets all advertising or distributing of anything not issued by the Boards or Committees, or directly connected with our Church work.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized, as usual, to publish the "Minutes" of the Assembly. Adopted.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the "Minutes" to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quotas to the Contingent fund. Adopted.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy of the printed "Minutes" of the Assembly to every ruling elder who is a Commissioner therein, provided the ruling elder forward his post-office address, and that the Presbytery which he represents has paid its full quota to the Mileage and Contingent funds. Adopted.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill, by appointment, any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees, with the exception of the Committee on Revision. Adopted.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries, and to settle all accounts connected with the entertainment of the Assembly. Adopted.

The Standing Committee on the Narrative presented its Report, which was accepted, and the recommendations of the Committee adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on the Narrative would report that they have labored under serious embarrassments. Deeply interested in the important questions before the Assembly, we were dismayed at the pile of manuscripts placed in our hands (some not easily deciphered), which we were required to examine carefully, that we might present to you the state of religion in all parts of our extended Church at home and abroad. We received also a large package of tabulated statements from the several Presbyteries, the valuable information of which could be obtained only after tedious collating and summing up long columns of figures. We were further embarrassed by a lack of material. An accurate report on the state of religion can only be prepared when the Narratives from the Presbyteries are all present, and contain the desired facts. But when we began our work, two days after the Assembly opened, of the 213 Presbyteries, 71 had failed to present their Narratives and 61 their tabulated reports. Several of these Presbyteries were among the largest and most important in our Church, and one of them is very near Saratoga. For the relief of the future Committees on the Narrative, and that proper respect may hereafter be paid to the Assembly, and the general cause of our Church advanced, we recommend:

1. That this General Assembly hereby directs the Stated Clerks of the several Presbyteries to forward the Narratives, tabulated statements, and all other papers relating to the state of religion within their bounds, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of each Assembly.

2. If any Presbytery now holds its spring meeting at such a date as to render compliance with the above recommendation impossible, the Assembly suggests that such Presbyteries consider the propriety of holding their meetings on or before the middle of April.

3. That a Committee be appointed, of which the Stated Clerk of the Assembly shall be the Chairman, to prepare blanks to be used by the Presbyteries in transmitting to the Assembly the facts of their Narratives in a condensed form.

The Narrative presented by the Committee was read and approved. The Stated Clerk then read the "Necrology" for the year ending April 30, 1890, after which the Assembly engaged in appropriate devotional exercises. The *Narrative and Necrology were ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the "Minutes."

* See pp. 141-147.

It was Resolved, That the Assembly recommends that all Church Sessions hold monthly meetings so far as practicable.

The Stated Clerk was directed to amend the "Congregational Narrative" by striking out Question No. 22, viz., Has the Church Session been diligent in the spiritual oversight of the people?

It was Resolved, That the Rev. R. E. Flickinger and Elder J. E. Griffith be authorized to present, to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, the "Original Package" Resolution adopted by this General Assembly.

The Committee on Revision was authorized to publish its Report, if in its judgment expedient, before the time of the meeting of the next Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence reported as follows:

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence respectfully report that they have given leave of absence to the following-named Commissioners, the numbers affixed to whose names denote the number of days of service rendered by them in this Assembly:

Your Committee would also beg leave to report that several cases were presented for their consideration where it appeared that Presbyteries had elected elders as Commissioners who, at the time, protested against their election, stating that, on account of pressing business engagements, it would be impossible for them to remain through the sittings of the Assembly. In the face of this they were persistently urged to attend and were assured that they need not remain any longer than suited their convenience, and that they might leave when they pleased. Your Committee does not think it right that the money of the Church should be thus used, and would respectfully recommend that the Assembly instruct the Presbyteries to avoid so vicious a system.

One very marked case came before your Committee, in which one of the Commissioners left of his own accord, after attending five days, without asking leave, but left a note addressed to the Committee, stating that he desired to visit relations and friends living in four different States, and that, in order to do so and return home within the limitations of his railroad ticket, he had to leave then, and hoped that, in view of this emergency, he might be excused. It is hardly necessary to say that his reasons were not considered valid, and his excuses were not accepted. His mileage, however, was drawn by his associate Commissioner.

In behalf of the Committee,
Geo. F. Whitworth, Chairman.

The Report was approved.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Moderator shall have authority to appoint two delegates to represent this Church at the next meeting of the Synod of Brazil, which is to be held in 1891; this, however, to be done without expense to the General Assembly.

The Moderator named: Principals, Minister—William C. Roberts, D.D., LL.D.; Ruling Elder—Hon. Darwin R. James. Alternates, Ministers—Dana W. Bigelow, M. Woolsey Stryker, D.D.; Elders—Hon. Robert N. Willson, Thomas Kane.

Mr. William McAlpin and Mr. John H. Converse were appointed a Committee to Audit the Final Account of William Henry Roberts, D.D., as Treasurer of the Centenary Fund.

A supplementary Report from the Standing Committee on Home Missions, with reference to the Church at Jacksonville, Fla., was referred to the next General Assembly.

The Standing Committees were called upon, and reported that no further business was in their hands, and were severally discharged, viz.: Bills and Overtures, Judicial Committee, Polity of the Church, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication, Church Erection, Theological Seminaries, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Aid for Colleges, Correspondence, Benevolence, Temperance, Leave of Absence, Mileage, and Finance.

The Roll was called, and the following Commissioners were found to be absent without leave, and their names were ordered to be recorded in the "Minutes:"

The following vote of thanks was adopted unanimously by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the cordial thanks of this Assembly are hereby given to our Moderator, Rev. William E. Moore, D.D., for the efficient and impartial manner in which he has discharged the duties of the office under circumstances of peculiar delicacy. We gratefully recognize his firmness combined with unfailing courtesy, his rare knowledge of the laws of our Church, and the dignity and tact which make him a model presiding officer. We invoke upon him the divine blessing, and pray that he may long be spared to render still further services to our beloved Church.

Additional resolutions of thanks were passed unanimously as follows:

Resolved, That our thanks are due, and are hereby cordially tendered, to the Committee of Arrangements for their manifold preparations for the convenience and comfort of the Assembly, to the pastor, Session and Trustees of the First Presbyterian Church of Saratoga for the use of their church edifice, and to the authorities for the accommodations furnished in the Town Hall. In this connection we gratefully recognize the excellent services of the choir of the church, which have been so helpful in various gatherings of the Assembly. We also extend our thanks to the janitor for his attentions.

Resolved, That we offer our cordial thanks to the several special Committees whose labors have prepared the way for that unanimity of action in most important matters, for which we are profoundly grateful to Almighty God. We recognize the faithful and efficient labors of the Stated Clerk and the Temporary Clerks, and also the special services of the Stated Clerk in securing reduced rates of travel on many railroad lines. To these railroad companies we hereby present our thanks for the reduction of rates to the Commissioners. We also recognize the services of the Rev. W. R.

Moore, who served the Assembly ably as precentor in its devotional exercises.

Resolved, That we make our grateful acknowledgments to the citizens of Saratoga for their hearty reception of the Assembly; to Col. D. F. Ritchie, Postmaster, for special mail facilities; to the proprietors of the Hathorn, Patterson and Saratoga Vichy Springs, for their generous proffer of the use of these health-giving waters; to Mr. Franklin W. Smith, for special opportunity to visit the "House of Pansa;" to The Saratogian and The Saratoga Union for their excellent and full reports of our proceedings, and also to the New York Tribune, Times, Sun, Herald, Mail and Express, and Evening Post.

The Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, the Rev. Perry S. Allen, acknowledged in appropriate terms, the resolutions of thanks, to whom the Moderator responded in the name of the General Assembly.

The minutes of to-day's session were read and approved.

After solemn praise, thanksgiving and prayer, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution of the Assembly, the Moderator declared the Assembly dissolved, and required another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the Fort Street Presbyterian Church, Detroit, Mich., on the third Thursday of May, A. D. 1891.

Attest: WILLIAM E. MOORE, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 1890.

The Committee on the Narrative would report that they have labored under serious embarrassments. Deeply interested in the important questions before the Assembly, we were dismayed at the pile of manuscripts placed in our hands (some not easily deciphered) which we were required to examine carefully, that we might present to you the state of religion in all parts of our extended Church at home and abroad. We received also a large package of tabulated statements from the several Presbyteries, the valuable information of which could be obtained only after tedious collating and summing up long columns of figures. We were further embarrassed by a lack of material. An accurate report on the state of religion can only be prepared when the Narratives from the Presbyteries are all present, and contain the desired facts. But when we began our work, two days after the Assembly opened, of the 213 Presbyteries, 71 had failed to present their Narratives and 61 their tabulated Reports. Several of these Presbyteries were among the largest and most important in our Church, and one of them is very near Saratoga. For the relief of the future Committees on the Narrative, and that proper respect may hereafter be paid to the Assembly, and the general cause of our Church advanced, we recommend:

1. That this General Assembly hereby directs the Stated Clerks of the several Presbyteries to forward the Narratives, tabulated statements, and all other papers relating to the state of religion within their bounds, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of each Assembly.
2. If any Presbytery now holds its spring meeting at such a date as to render compliance with the above recommendation impossible, the Assembly suggests that such Presbyteries consider the propriety of holding their meetings on or before the middle of April.
3. That a Committee be appointed, of which the Stated Clerk of the Assembly shall be the Chairman, to prepare blanks to be used by the Presbyteries in transmitting to the Assembly the facts of their Narratives in a condensed form.

The following Narrative is as accurate as we can make it in the time at our command and while fifty Narratives and fifteen tabulated statements are still missing.

THE NARRATIVE

Of the state of religion within the bounds of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America for the year ending April 30, 1890.

The Reports from the several Presbyteries excite wondering gratitude, and call for special thanksgiving for the growth, spirituality and efficiency of our beloved Church. They report twenty-nine Synods, 213 Presbyteries, 6105 ministers, 357 licentiates, 1056 candidates, 49,217 persons have been received on profession of faith and 36,859 on certificate. The total number of our communicants is 771,000, a net gain during the past year of 17,000; 17,125 adults and 25,509 infants have been baptized. Some nineteen Sabbath-schools have not reported their numbers and others only partially. We estimate, however, that they contain nearly 900,000 persons. Our churches have contributed for self-support and for the benevolent work $12,927,163. This, however, does not include the large sums given by our people to many charitable and undenominational enterprises, and to which Presbyterians have always been the largest contributors. Nor does it include the numerous gifts to worthy objects, which have not been reported to the officers of the churches, but which are known to amount to a large sum. The above figures are worthy of careful consideration and present sure evidence of the constant growth and increased efficiency of the Church. The several items indicate a substantial gain over the preceding year. They seem to indicate, however, a decrease of about seventy candidates and forty licentiates. This is a serious matter and it becomes the Church quickly to ascertain and remove the cause. Since the reunion there has been until this year a constant increase of candidates which yet has come far short of our growing necessities. It is to be hoped, however, that the strong utterances of this General Assembly of a firm adherence to the doctrinal Standards of the Church, will inspire renewed confidence and excite the zeal of our young men to preach the Gospel.

The Narratives present the operations of the Church under various circumstances; in our outposts in heathen lands; among our Indian tribes and the mighty stream of foreign population flooding our States and territories; seeking and gathering the new settlers in the great West; laboring for the long-abused and benighted colored race and the neglected poor whites of the South; the evangelizing of the masses in large cities; caring for the Scotch, Irish and other Presbyterians in New England, as well as laboring to increase the influences of the more prosperous and wealthier churches as centres of spiritual power. In these wide fields and varied operations there have been many discouragements, but in all an heroic courage and self-denying zeal and perseverance have been manifested and blessed. Words of cheer and new confidence come from all parts, even when mingled with importunate appeals for immediate help. Revivals and large ingatherings are reported in some regions, which call for special thanksgiving. From all quarters come renewed assurances that God continues to bless the regular preaching of His Gospel and the use of the ordinary means of grace, for the conversion of sinners and the edification of His people. We should give heartfelt thanks that He has led nearly 50,000 persons in our churches to profess faith in Christ. We do not labor in vain.

Your Committee would classify some of the impressions produced by the Reports from the Presbyteries.

I. THE MINISTRY.

The Presbyterian Church may well be proud of her ministers. Well trained in her theological schools, they go forth to their work with intelligence and with fidelity to the truth. They endure hardship and privation with wonderful patience. They show marvelous adaptation for every department of Christian service. And they are everywhere honored by God and His people.

A very large proportion of them continue in active work until God calls them to their reward or until they become disqualified by age or infirmity. While it may be true, that many of the 900 reported to be without charge, could and ought to be profitably employed in ministerial service, it is evident from these reports that a large part of them have rendered efficient service and are now advanced in years.

We notice that 1500 stated supplies are reported. In this number we have not included those indicated as home and foreign missionaries or evangelists, but only those having charge of churches. This number is too large, even when we remember that many are stationed over small and feeble churches. The Presbyteries should give heed to the oft-repeated exhortation of the Assembly to discourage the system, and to secure a permanent relationship between the ministers and churches and thus to increase their efficiency.

The Home and Foreign Missionaries in their isolated positions, overburdened with responsibilities and ever-increasing demands for service, and embarrassed for want of means, should be ever remembered at the throne of grace and by every possible manifestation of sympathy. Church officers and communicants seeking health and rest in the South or West, or in foreign parts, should not fail to comfort and help these honored servants of Jesus Christ. The neglect of such courtesy has saddened several who ought to have been encouraged.

II. THE ELDERSHIP.

The eldership is one of the peculiarities of our system of polity. We rejoice in its Scriptural authority, its adaptation to the ever-varying conditions of the Church, and its past and present efficiency. The reports from the Presbyteries in some cases speak of their fidelity and zeal, of their important coöperation with their pastors in the government and discipline of the Church, and of their willingness and ability to instruct and exhort those who cannot be supplied with ministers of the Word. Yet from many of our Presbyteries come sad reports that some of their elders are not fully magnifying their office, nor performing satisfactorily to themselves or others their proper functions. This is one of the saddest notes uttered to the Assembly. It is deep and decided. It is so general and so significant that it demands immediate attention. We therefore urge that such elders at once inform themselves of the important duties of their office, and reconsecrate their time and powers to Christ for His Church, and that pastors afford opportunity to the elders, that they may exercise their powers to the edification of the Church.

III. THE SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

The reports from this agency of the Church are in many respects uniformly satisfactory. Their growth in numbers, their increasing outstations, their general use of our Westminster Helps, the study of the Catechism, the interest taken in the several Boards of the Church and their valuable contributions thereto, and their general prosperity, excite a new joy and confidence in the continuous growth and efficiency of the Presbyterian Church. We note that large accessions to the communion have been made from those taught in these schools, and believe that they will more and more prove to be nurseries to the churches, when teachers are carefully trained for their duties, and more prayerfully aim at the conversion of those committed to them.

We have noticed, however, with sadness, that in some cases the Shorter Catechism is not taught, and the Lesson Helps published by our Board are not used. The Sabbath-schools of our churches ought to be thoroughly Presbyterian, and the baptized children early taught the doctrines of our Standards. We believe that in most of our schools there should be advanced classes, with competent teachers, for the systematic study of the Bible, of experimental religion, and of methods of Christian activity.

The reports also call attention to the growing tendency in many places to substitute the Sabbath-school for home training and parental religious instruction. This is a great evil, and pastors and Sessions should unceasingly impress upon all parents that their responsibility in this matter cannot be delegated to others, nor can the instruction during the short Sabbath-school hour take the place of the daily training which God required when He committed children to their care. Desired results can be expected only in the use of appointed means.

A third evil is referred to, namely: That too often presence in the Sabbath-school is a reason for non-attendance upon church services. This would be disastrous. The preaching of the Word and public worship are God's ordinances, for the sanctification of His day, and for the conversion and edification of souls; and cannot be neglected with impunity. The Sabbath-school should always be a guide to the temple where God communes with His people.

IV. FAMILY RELIGION.

The Presbyterial Reports are uniform in the lament that family worship is much neglected and in many places is almost discontinued. The causes are not enumerated, nor need they be. However various and potent, they should not for a moment avail against the holy privileges, sanctifying influences and the imperative duty of family prayer. The Church originated in the home, which has always been the source of its vitality. Indifference, as well as error, finding lodgment in the home, quickly influences all parts of the Church. We would therefore urge that everywhere the family altar be rebuilt and that sacrifices of thanksgiving and prayer be daily offered thereon.

A similar neglect, in some quarters, is noticed of infant baptism. During the year 25.509 children have received the seal of God's covenant, a gain of 1000 over those of the preceding year. Yet it is undeniable that many more children have been born of our communicants, and that the lament of many Presbyteries has some foundation. Pastors should more frequently in public and private set forth the divine command and the significance of this holy service. From other quarters come assurances that special attention is paid to this ordinance of God, and that parents are presenting their infants with a clearer apprehension of the vows they are making and of the covenanted blessings which they are claiming. Testimony is offered that God has blessed in a special manner those who thus have consecrated their children to Him. Where conversion has not followed baptism in due time, it is to be attributed to laxity in parental care or parental piety.

V. CHURCH AGENCIES.

It is noticeable that the old-fashioned midweek lecture and the monthly missionary concerts are in many places giving way to other agencies. There should be a constant adaptation of methods to the changing needs of God's people. Pastors and Sessions should, however, remember the objects to be secured are always the same, the edification of the Church and the offering of true worship. Whatever ignores these ought to be discountenanced. Instruction in God's Word, regular information of missionary operations and earnest prayer for divine guidance in personal responsibilities must characterize the agencies employed. Nor must they forget that the Session of each church has the oversight and direction of every method to develop Christian activity. This reminder is the more important just now, when societies are multiplying with marvelous rapidity throughout the country. Mission societies and bands, women's, girls', men's and boys' praying circles, King's Daughters and King's Sons, temperance organizations, young people's associations, Christian Endeavor societies and many others are being formed in our churches and are often associated in State and national conventions. Most, and perhaps all of these are valuable and may prove important means for the development of the interest and activities of our communicants. Under proper Presbyterial direction some of them certainly will be a blessing to the churches. But very serious damage may be expected if our Sessions fail to supervise and coöperate in their organization and work.

VI. BENEVOLENCE.

The year began very hopefully and our various Boards were encouraged to believe that the much needed funds would be freely committed to them. During the winter, however, there was a very serious falling off of the contributions, which has embarrassed our operations and left some of the Boards heavily in debt. It is not for us to declare the cause of this disappointment. It is certainly not to be found in any loss of confidence in these Boards or their methods of operation, much less is it in a decrease of interest in the work, or in the self-denying men in the field. Love for Christ and His cause is more than ever the animating spirit of the Presbyterian Church. A love which manifests itself in gifts and service has received no permanent check, but with new confidence in her divine Gospel she will soon put forth new efforts to proclaim it everywhere.

We rejoice to notice that the children of the Church are becoming permanent contributors to the various Boards, and often on the principle of systematic giving. These Reports show that our people are more generally adopting the Scriptural plan of consecrating a portion of their incomes, and of intelligently distributing their gifts as needs are manifested.

Much perhaps ought to be said of the interest and zeal of the women of the Church in every department of Christian activity at home and abroad. But other reports present their labors and successes.

VII. HINDRANCES.

All the Narratives repeat the usual hindrances to the advance of the work of the Church, the chief of which are Sabbath desecration, intemperance, the various forms of gambling and worldliness. Besides these there have been unusual discouragements in prevailing diseases, loss of crops, devastations by floods and storms, and anti-Christian agitations among the people. Yet the Church has not been dismayed. She has uttered her clear testimony against old and new forms of sins, and labored to rescue and reform the victims. She has bravely endured loss of property; yet meeting her obligations to her ministers, save in a few cases in which the Presbyteries recognized real inability. All these hindrances have demonstrated more than ever before the unity of the Church in sympathy and mutual helpfulness.

VIII. FOREIGN PRESBYTERIES.

The Narratives from our foreign Presbyteries, so far as they have come to our hands, are varied. The Indian Presbyteries speak of discouragements and earnestly appeal for help. One of them has liberally contributed to all of our Boards. The work advances steadily in Mexico. The missionaries are brave and hopeful, in the face of determined opposition. In China in some of the churches a marked work of grace is going on. There are many inquirers and hopeful conversions. Church buildings need to be enlarged. Yet the people have suffered greatly from inundations and persecutions. In India there has been no special revival, but constant growth in numbers and spirituality and the churches preparing for self-support.

We conclude our Narrative with congratulations and thanksgiving. The Lord has called our Church to a noble service. At home and abroad, He is commanding us to advance. He is wonderfully blessing every earnest service. The field is daily widening. His call to preach the Gospel to every creature is clearer and more imperative than ever before. The needed men are offering themselves. Shall the means for their support be withheld by our people?

Respectfully submitted,

J. ASPINWALL HODGE, Chairman.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS,

Stated Clerk.

ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

CINCINNATI, O., May 9, 1890.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

CHRISTIAN BRETHREN:—The Executive Committee, Western Section, take great pleasure in informing your Honorable Body, that during the year ending April 30, 1890, the work entrusted to their care by the Council of the Alliance has been carried forward with diligence and success.

The important matter of coöperation in Foreign Mission work has engaged the close attention of the Commission, and considerable progress has been made in the harmonious adjustment of the relations, upon foreign fields, of the churches in the Alliance. Notably is this true on the American Continent, in the Union work, now in progress under the care of the Synod of Brazil, formed in 1888, and representing the foreign work of the Presbyterian Churches of the United States, North and South.

The Commission reports the happy completion of the effort to raise the sum pledged in 1884 for the support and extension of the work of the Church in Bohemia. This has been accomplished, in the main, through the able and indefatigable labors of the Rev. W. C. Cattell, D.D., of Philadelphia.

The work of the Eastern or European Section has been, we are informed, attended with much success, during the year closed. We quote from the Report of that Section, as follows:

"As the result of much personal visitation and correspondence, many of the Continental Churches have been led to a more correct conception of the nature and object of the Alliance than they previously possessed. This has led to the expression in many quarters of a strong desire to come into as close connection with us as in their circumstances is possible. Many of these churches are the children of the Old Reform; some are descended from the Waldensian Exiles, and others from the French Huguenots and Refugees; but between all of these and the British Churches there existed in former days very special intimacy. If the Alliance, as it is seeking to do, shall succeed in bringing about a renewal of that intimacy, it will have rendered no small service to the cause of Christ on the Continent of Europe."

We desire to draw your attention this year, as last, to the fact that the sum of $2500 per annum is needed for the expenses of the Western Section of the Commission. The basis of contribution to this expense fund is the representation of each church in the Council of the Alliance. Upon this basis, your proportion of the expense fund for the year ending April 30, 1891, is $735.00. It is respectfully requested that you make some definite arrangement for the payment of this apportionment.

The General Council of 1888 accepted from the Presbyterian Church in Canada, an invitation to hold the Fifth General Council in 1892, in the city of Toronto, Canada. Preparations for this meeting are now being made, and it is requested that your Church make due arrangements for representation at the Toronto Council. The basis of representation in the Council is as follows: "For each hundred congregations or less, two delegates up to one thousand congregations; above one thousand congregations, one delegate for each additional one hundred up to two thousand congregations; above two thousand congregations, one delegate for each additional two hundred and fifty congregations."

Requesting your kind and prompt attention to these several matters, we respectfully submit this Report in the name of the Western Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance.

TALBOT W. CHAMBERS, Chairman.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON INCREASING THE NUMBER OF MINISTERS.

The Special Committee on Increasing the Number of Ministers, appointed by the last General Assembly, would respectfully submit the following Report:

There was referred to this Committee, by the Assembly of 1889, the Report of the Special Committee on Education, together with the last part of Resolution No. 4 of the Report of the Standing Committee on Education. The Committee was directed to consider and report to this Assembly whether it was advisable to adopt any other practicable methods than those now in use, and those recommended by the Special Committee on Education, to introduce into the ministry of our churches, men specially qualified to meet the present wants of our vacant churches and various mission fields, and if so, what?

The carefully prepared statements presented by the Chairman of the Special Committee on Education (Dr. Morris) so fully and accurately set forth the facts with reference to the present inadequate supply of qualified ministers for our churches, and also the sources from which the ranks of our ministry are to be recruited, that this Committee felt that there was no necessity for further investigation in this direction. The statistics of the year 1889 do not show a change for the better, but the rather make more emphatic the statements of the former Report; but it is necessary to make a brief restatement of the facts presented in that Report, in order that the Assembly may see the reasons which have led to the conclusion which the Committee desire to submit for your consideration.

The Report shows, first, that 1139, or over 17 per cent. of all the churches on our roll, were reported as vacant. Many of these churches were relatively prominent; 33 having a membership of 200 or more; 101 a membership between 200 and 100; and 193 having a membership varying from 100 to 50. There are 812 vacant churches whose membership falls below 50. These may be divided into three groups; those having from 50 to 25 members, numbering 274; those having from 25 to 10, numbering 319; and those having from 10 to 1, including 6 which make no report, 219. The Statistical Report of 1889 shows a still larger number of vacant churches, there being 1148 reported as vacant in that year, as against 1139 in 1888. What is still more significant, the increase of vacant churches is among those which have the larger membership. The vacancies among the churches containing 25 members or less, have decreased by 51; while among those containing a membership of over 50, they have increased by 59. It is also a well-known fact that a large proportion of our vacant churches are so poor in financial resources, that they are unable to support pastors without aid from abroad. Even if ministers were ready to enter these vacant fields, there remains the serious question of their support. In this connection the former Report calls attention to the fact that, chiefly for lack of ministerial supplies, 373 churches have been disbanded during the past five years, an annual average of 75; and during the nineteen years since the reunion, no less than 1099, an annual average of 58. The whole number of churches organized in this period was 3044, an annual average of 160—in the aggregate nearly one-half of all the churches on our roll; but on the other hand, these dissolutions constitute no less than thirty-six per cent of the aggregate of new organizations. In other words, while three churches were being organized, one was dying out, and these deaths have occurred at more than the rate of one each week for the entire nineteen years. It is also noticeable that the rate of dissolution is constantly increasing, and that the number reported last year is the largest in the whole course of our history.

The causes for these dissolutions are found in part in the continuous migrations of our population, in the decline of frontier villages and mining towns, in mistaken location, in denominational rivalries, and other incidental factors. But in large degree, the result must be traced, at last, to the lack of means to support men in these fields, and to the lack of men ready and willing to enter upon the work. Both elements must be fully recognized. If the men had been at hand, there would not have been means to sustain them in the treasury of our Board of Home Missions without serious injury at other vital points; had that treasury been full to overflowing the requisite number of laborers could not have been obtained. It is here after all, painful as the fact is, that the main secret of these church deaths, eleven hundred in less than twenty years, is to be found.

But in addition to our present, we must also keep in mind the prospective need. Our work in foreign lands is steadily growing in magnitude and interest, and will demand in the future a constantly enlarging supply of laborers. One of the Secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions furnishes the information that, including the eighteen now under appointment, the Board has sent out during the last decade 151 new missionaries, an annual average of fifteen. But he also states that the Board will need at least thirty new men, and could utilize sixty for the coming year; and further, that for the next decade, not less than fifty new missionaries will be needed every year to fill the place of the losses by resignation and death, and to carry on the constantly enlarging work for which the Board is constituted. At the lowest estimate the average of the last ten years ought to be doubled, if the Church rises in any proper degree to the magnitude of the divine call upon her to go forth in the name of Christ to disciple the nations.

The veteran Secretary of the Board of Home Missions expresses the conviction that at least 200 new missionaries will be needed to meet existing demands, and to carry out the prospective work of the Board during the year to come. The number of Home Missionaries employed in 1878 was 1131, and in 1888, 1486, a net increase of 355, or thirty-five annually; while the number of churches aided by the Board has increased at a ratio probably three times as great. Large as the increase in the number of churches has been since the Union, and especially within the past five years, there is no reason to anticipate that this rate of increase will diminish for a long period to come.

Some special reference should also be made here, to our prospective work among the colored population, especially in the South. During the quarter of a century since the Board of Freedmen was organized, a good beginning in this interesting work has been made; 235 churches have been organized, and are under the care of the Board; 27 white and 90 colored ministers and licentiates are employed by it; new churches have been organized at the rate of fourteen annually for the past five years; and a corresponding increase has been needful in the number of laborers. But this work is only in its infancy; and it may reasonably be estimated that an additional ministerial force of twenty or twenty-five a year, chiefly colored, will be indispensable to its proper development during the next decade. Beyond that, it is altogether probable that a much larger provision will need to be made for the evangelization of the many millions of the colored race in the older and newer South; in the providence of God this is one of the weightiest tasks in which His Church on this continent is to be summoned in the great future before it.

Another fact to be considered in this connection is the loss from the ranks of our ministerial force through disease and death. This has amounted annually, for the last five years, to more than one hundred.

Summing up the present and prospective need, in these and in other aspects which might be named, it becomes at once apparent that our Church is brought face to face, to a degree almost unequaled in its history, with this great problem of ministerial demand and ministerial supply. For Foreign Missions, for Home Missions, for this developing work among the freedmen, for evangelizing labor in our larger and smaller cities, for colportage and the planting of Sabbath-schools, for evangelistic labors in destitute sections, for service in the cause of education, for teachers and professors in colleges and seminaries, for editors of our denominational press, for official service in our Boards and other agencies, the Church needs and must have a very large aggregate of trained consecrated ministers. The present condition strongly emphasizes this conclusion, and the prospective sphere and mission of our Church in this continent make the conclusion as imperative almost as if it were a direct revelation from God.

The following statistics will show the present available ministerial force of the Church: There are on the rolls the names of 5789 ministers and 314 licentiates; of this number 1458, nearly one-fourth of the whole, are either honorably retired on account of age or infirmity, or are occupied as teachers, secretaries, editors, foreign missionaries, agents and the like; there are 589 others who are reported either as without charges or as evangelists, leaving an actual working force of 2387 pastors, 1355 stated supplies and 314 licentiates; in all 4056; but as some reported as evangelists, or as without charge, render much valuable service, it would be safe to estimate our available working force at 4500, as against 6548 churches of all grades. Of the 589 ministers reported in 1888 as substantially without charge, it is safe to say that one-half are disqualified by age, infirmity, or by various other causes from undertaking the full work of the pastorate, however useful they might be for some special service. If the other half, 294, could be instantly employed in our vacant fields, it is evident that their presence would go but a little way towards meeting present needs.

As to the channels of supply through which we receive recruits to the ministry, there are three.

The first is our theological seminaries. The number of graduates from these institutions, including two German schools and two training schools for colored preachers, for the last five years was 810, an annual average of 162. But a deduction must be made from this number: first, for the graduates belonging to other denominations who have studied in these schools; second, for graduates who become professors or teachers, and third, for those whom ill health or other causes prevent from entering the ministry. The number of ministers coming to us from our seminaries does not exceed an annual average of 145.

The second channel of supply is through exceptional courses of study, or what our Book denominates "extraordinary cases." Statistics gathered from the Presbyteries show that about thirty are entering the ranks of the ministry each year, with variations or subtractions more or less extensive from the prescribed standard of qualifications.

The third is the supply which comes from other denominations. Special attention is called to the fact that the accessions through this channel have amounted, since the reunion, to 1192, or 63 annually. The number has rapidly increased of late. In 1887 the number received was 88, in 1888 it was 89; last year it rose to 105. This large addition must, of course, be offset by the fact that 33 of our ministers were dismissed to other bodies. But at the present rate we may expect an annual addition of 60 from this source. Adding all this together, our annual supply from all sources would reach possibly 220. But from this must be taken the loss by death. This, for the past five years, has amounted to 110 annually. Thus it appears that the annual supply from our seminaries is only 35 in excess of the loss by death. Add to this the 30 "extraordinary cases," and 60 from other denominations, and we have a yearly net increase of 125. In 1887 our net gain was 108 ministers; in 1888, 135; in 1889, 147. But it must be remembered that during the same period the number of our churches was increasing in a much greater ratio than that of our ministers. We may well ponder this question: With a net increase of but 125 ministers each year, how long will it be until our Church fulfills the command of our divine Lord, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature?""

Thus far, in presenting the facts concerning the need for more ministers, and the supply likely to be furnished through existing agencies, the Committee has confined itself mainly to the statements made in last year's Report. It was in view of these statements, so important in their bearing upon the future growth of the Church, that the General Assembly directed this Committee to inquire whether it is advisable to adopt any other practical methods than those now in use, and those recommended by the Special Committee on Education, to introduce into the ministry of our churches men specially qualified to meet the pressing wants of our vacant churches and various mission fields, and if such methods are found to be advisable to suggest them to this Assembly. In seeking information on these points, the Committee sent letters of inquiry to all the leading denominations, both in this country and in England, containing the following questions:

1. What are the conditions of ordination in your church?
2. What courses of study are insisted upon?
3. Do you allow exceptions to the prescribed course, and upon what grounds?
4. What provision have you made for supplying candidates for the ministry?
5. What conditions, if any, do you impose on those coming from other evangelical bodies?
6. What agencies are you employing to reach the foreign population in our own country?
7. Have you any appliances for training the officers of the church, other than ministers, for evangelistic work?
8. What official agency have you in operation for bringing vacant churches and unemployed ministers together?

The Committee hoped to gather, from the experience and practice of the whole Church, additional light, especially on the two questions that have been agitating the mind of our Church. The first of these concerns the present educational qualifications for the ministry, demanded by our Form of Government, as necessary to ordination. Some have held that the tests prescribed for ordination were scholastic rather than Scriptural, and that while the educational standard should not be lowered, it ought not to be limited, as is now done, by our Book. It has also been urged, somewhat strenuously, that the prescribed course of education demanded by our Standards is one reason why many of our young men are deterred from seeking the ministry in connection with our Church.

The second question has reference to the creation of a special class of ministers for our feeble churches and mission fields, a class less fully equipped in point of learning than our Constitution requires for the regular ministry.

So far as the conditions for ordination are concerned, the replies from the various churches show that in all the branches of the Presbyterian Church, with the exception of the Cumberland Presbyterians, the educational qualifications are substantially the same as in our own; all allow some exceptions to the regular course.

With regard to the churches who do not hold to our polity the case is different. In the Protestant Episcopal Church the qualifications for ordination are nearly as in our own. But in the Methodist Church, North and South, the Baptist, the Lutheran and the Congregational Churches, candidates are licensed entirely upon Scriptural qualifications; that is to say, they are examined concerning their piety, their call to the ministry, their knowledge of the Word of God, of theology and of the doctrines of the Church. Inquiry is also made concerning their general intelligence and their aptness to teach. A knowledge of the Greek and Hebrew languages, while considered most desirable, is not essential to ordination. All these churches are striving to raise up an educated ministry, and are well equipped with theological seminaries, but in these institutions the course of study, while of the highest order, is elective. The churches last named act upon the theory that the ministry must not be confined to such as have enjoyed superior advantages for mental culture, but that every one who proposes to be a preacher must be encouraged to gain the most thorough education in his power. Their ministry thus contains men of every grade of culture. Their theological seminaries, while affording ample facilities for studying the Scriptures in their original languages, and for the higher branches of theological learning, at the same time give to those who have only a good English education, the opportunity of studying the Scriptures in the English version and full theological instruction in all other respects. The policy, especially of the Methodist and Baptist churches, has been to recognize the ministerial gift, to put it into exercise as early as possible, and then to proceed to develop and educate it. Ours has rather been first to educate the candidate and then see if he has the gift. It is well to contrast the results of these different methods, so far as the extension of the Church is concerned. At the beginning of the present century our branch of the Church stood foremost in numbers and power, and with the brightest prospects for enlarged growth in the future. For some causes, the Methodist and Baptist churches have outrun us in the race, and have succeeded in reaching the great masses of the people, as we have not. Whatever the causes of this may have been it is evident that their work could not have been accomplished if they had waited until they had secured a ministry educated in all respects according to our accepted standard and by our methods. Their method of bringing men into the ministry was an indispensable factor in their success. But the reports from these great bodies show that, while they are not lacking in ministers, and have, in one respect, a full supply, they are demanding more ministers of a higher grade of culture. They need not so much more men as men better qualified for their high work. Such need is not confined to any one branch of the Church. The testimony from all sides shows that there is an urgent necessity for an educated ministry in order to meet the demands of the hour. All branches of the Church with which the Committee has corresponded admit this necessity, and are earnestly striving to meet it. The Committee has not been able to find the much-desired "short cut" to an efficient ministry. The way is long, arduous, demanding painstaking and self-sacrifice. The way to ordination may be made short, but it is usually the ordination of ignorance and inefficiency. On the other hand, the Committee recognize the fact that the course of study may be unnecessarily prolonged or made difficult by prescribing studies that bear only incidentally upon the Gospel ministry, or such as tend to make specialists in some department of learning rather than preachers of the Word. For this reason the Committee would recommend that the imperative requirement of our Book for a Latin exegesis, as a prerequisite to licensure, be omitted, leaving the language in which the exegesis is to be presented, optional with the Presbytery.

The Committee is also of the opinion that in some respects the course of study prescribed in our theological seminaries for candidates could be better adapted to the needs of our age; and that without lowering the educational qualifications, some studies could be made elective. That there is need for this is shown by the facts already stated, that the number of exceptional cases in which ordination is granted, is increasing yearly. Nor can the large number of non-graduates in our seminaries follow to the best advantage the course which is prescribed for those who have received a classical education. But while some modifications might be made to advantage, the Committee cannot see any reason, in the present condition of affairs, for abandoning the time-honored policy of our Church in requiring special and thorough education for the work of the ministry. The lowering of the educational standard for ordination might possibly increase the number who apply for it, but there would be no real gain in entrusting the holy ministry to weak and ignorant men. We recognize the fact that the great and dominant qualifications for the ministry are piety, knowledge of the Scriptures, soundness in the faith, and aptness to teach. But with all these, there must be that intelligence which is the result of proper education. Nor do we find from any evidence before us, that the standard of education fixed by law and custom among us, is unreasonably high. In the judgment of the Committee, the proper method to secure an increase for the ministry, is not by lowering the standard of education, and thus seeking to make it attractive and acceptable to our young men, but rather, to magnify the sacred office before the Church, and to set it forth more fully and clearly, in the honor, glory, and responsibility which the Word of God gives to it. It is but seldom that pastors present this subject to the Church. Too often by complaints, or by proclaiming the trials and hardships of the ministry, an impression is made, such as deters many from entering it. The Church should be taught to offer the best of her youth for this sacred office, and to encourage them in their course of preparation for its high duties and difficult labors. The radical remedy for the present evil is not to be found in our theological seminaries or schools, or in new regulations from our Church courts, but in the Church itself, and especially in its family life. Parents must consecrate their children to this work, and teachers and pastors seek to impress the youth under their care, with some just conception of its greatness and blessedness. If the Church were thus moved to offer freely her sons for this sacred office, there would be little complaint as to the length or difficulties of the educational course.

As to the second question, namely, whether it is advisable to adopt any other practical methods than those now in use to introduce into the ministry of our Church men specially qualified to meet the present wants of our churches and various mission fields, the Committee, after investigating all the facts, are ready to say emphatically, that it is advisable. But by the ministry in this case, we do not mean the regularly ordained ministry of the Word, but such qualified and officially licensed laborers, as may properly supplement the work of the regular ministry. The existence of such a ministry as this is clearly recognized in the Scriptures. No one reading carefully the records of the Apostolic Church, can fail to notice the fullness and variety of the ministerial functions named in it. The names "apostle," "prophet," "evangelist," "pastor," "teacher," "helper," "governments," "elders," "deacons," "deaconess," are sufficient evidence of this. Since there are "gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us," it is the duty of the Church in its administration to recognize these gifts and to provide for their proper exercise.

Again, the need for such a varied ministry is clearly apparent at the present time. It has been so strongly felt that thousands of consecrated men and women have, outside of any official recognition, given themselves to the work of evangelists, of exhorters, of Bible readers and missionaries, of visitors and teachers. Indeed the need of special and trained workers in all these departments is so manifest, that schools for their education are springing up in different parts of our country. Some branches of the church, alive to the importance of this movement, have already taken means to bring it under ecclesiastical control, and encourage it with official recognition. We, as a Church, cannot afford to be indifferent to it. Nor is it to be questioned, that there are thousands in our communion who, if encouraged and placed under proper leadership, would be able to do efficient service in our vacant churches and various mission fields. Thankful mention should be made of the fact that so many, without official recognition, have made themselves true helpers of the ministry, and are abounding in faithful labors for the extension of the Church. It is true that official recognition is not necessary to give efficiency to all Christian work, but it ought to tend to a twofold result. On one side, it would give encouragement and guidance to those who are engaged in service; on the other, it would protect the Church from teachers of false doctrine, or from those who, through ignorance or unwise zeal, distract rather than edify the Church. The attitude of the Church towards the movement for greater efficiency in service among the laity, ought not to be one of indifference or tolerance, but of active coöperation and wise guidance. It is difficult, and perhaps hardly possible, to devise beforehand a plan which would fully meet all the exigencies of this movement. Much must necessarily be left to be determined by growth and experience. But a beginning should be made. The opinion of the Committee is that the Assembly should sanction the establishment of schools of training for both men and women, for this department of service; and that our Presbyteries should be empowered to give special license. as deaconesses, or missionary teachers, or as Bible readers, or as local evangelists, as the particular cases might justify, to such persons as in their judgment were qualified for any of these departments of evangelistic work. Especially do we deem it desirable that the Presbytery should be authorized to license as local evangelists, such male members of the Church as may desire to engage in special evangelistic work, and who, in the judgment of Presbytery, are qualified to teach or preach the Gospel publicly, but who, as yet, do not feel called upon to separate themselves for the full work of the ministry. This is not recommended in order to open a new or shorter course to the ministry, but only in order to furnish a class of laborers much needed at the present time; and also in the belief that through the exercise of their gifts, many of these may be led to seek that necessary education which will qualify them for the full work of the Gospel ministry.

In view of these facts and statements, the Committee presents to this General Assembly, for its consideration and approval, the following declaration:

1. The General Assembly is compelled to recognize the present and prospective need of ministers, as set forth in the Report of the Special Committee, as a reality at once palpable and serious. Also that the very large number of small and dependent churches, many of them vacant and perishing for the lack of the stated ministration of the Word, is a feature of our denominational life which cannot be contemplated without painful solicitude. The Assembly feels itself constrained by every consideration either of duty or of prudence, to do all within its power, under our Constitution, towards meeting a necessity so immediate and so vital to the welfare of the Church. In every such provision the limitations prescribed in our organic law must, of course, be faithfully regarded.

2. As a partial provision for this necessity, the General Assembly hereby urges upon the several Presbyteries their direct obligation with respect to the care of these small, dependent, and largely vacant churches, whose case has been presented in the Report. Under our Constitution, the Presbytery is officially the pastor of every vacant church within its bounds. The question whether any such church shall continue to exist is one which the Presbytery alone can solve; and if such continued existence is deemed desirable, it is directly incumbent upon the Presbytery to provide, in some way, for the spiritual necessities of every such organization. It may group these small churches together in a joint pastorate or in a wider circuit; it may associate a weak church with some stronger one as a single charge; it may appoint an adjacent pastor to be for the time the minister and shepherd to the little flock; it may bring in the service of intelligent elders, competent to teach and counsel, and willing to be engaged in such oversight. The General Assembly judges that by Presbyterial diligence and faithfulness in these directions, much of the evil resulting from these numerous vacancies would be avoided, and many of these feeble churches might speedily be nourished into vigor and usefulness. It therefore lays the obligation to such faithfulness and diligence, directly on the conscience of each Presbytery and of every minister in each Presbytery, whether engaged in the pastoral care or in some other form of ministerial service, as one which true loyalty to the Church and to Christ will permit no one to neglect. In adopting this resolution, the General Assembly recognizes with special satisfaction its allusion to the ruling elders as possible agents and instruments in providing for the special needs of these feeble churches.

3. In view of the urgent need of ministers, as shown in the Report, the Presbyterian Church welcomes into its service all who are drawn into such service by right motives, and who possess the qualifications requisite to a useful ministry in its communion. Yet the General Assembly feels constrained at the same time to instruct the Presbyteries to exercise great care in the reception of ministers from other denominations. It involves no hardship to subject them to the same scrutiny to which our own ministers are subject, as to their motives in seeking the ministry among us, as to their age and adaptation and general capacity for usefulness, and as to their possession of those intellectual qualifications and attainments which our Church has found to be essential to large and permanent success in her ministerial work. In order to secure uniformity of practice in the reception of such ministers, the Assembly hereby directs the following to be overtured to the Presbyteries in accordance with Section 6, Chapter xii, Form of Government, and as Section 16 of Chapter xv, of the Form of Government: "When application is made by a minister of another church for admission to Presbytery, Presbytery shall inquire concerning his character, his educational and professional training, the fact of his ordination, his ministerial standing in the body to which he belongs, and the motives which lead him to apply for admission to Presbytery. If this inquiry shall prove satisfactory, Presbytery may place his name on its roll. All applicants from other bodies shall be required previous to their enrollment, to give their assent, in a public session of Presbytery, to the first seven questions prescribed in the Form of Government for ordination; but should the applicant not possess the same educational qualifications for ordination as those prescribed in our Standards, he shall not be enrolled as a member of Presbytery until at least six months after his application shall have been presented to Presbytery. He may be permitted to labor, in the interval, within the bounds of Presbytery."

4. In respect to the "extraordinary cases" provided for in our Form of Government, Chapter xiv, Section 6, the discretionary power vested in the Presbyteries, should be exercised with great caution and with supreme regard to the welfare of the entire Church. Wherever the full collegiate course is found to be impracticable, the student should be required to pursue, not a short or partial, but a full course of three years in some theological institution, and this course should be introduced, wherever possible, by at least one year of special preparatory training. The candidate for such exceptional course should be not less than twenty-five years of age, of special promise as to talents and capacity for usefulness, and of approved piety, having a fair degree of education, and so circumstanced providentially, that he can prosecute to the end whatever studies the Presbytery may prescribe. As cases of this kind are presenting themselves in considerable numbers, our theological seminaries are advised to provide suitable courses of study in which the full period of three years may be profitably employed, and are authorized to receive such persons under their instruction when they are duly approved by the Presbyteries. The Presbyteries are also hereby required to make a full record of their action in each instance of this class, including a statement of the several exceptions allowed; and this record should be furnished to the faculty of the institution where such student is received.

5. While the General Assembly is of the clear conviction that the educational qualifications for the Gospel ministry should not be lowered, it is of the opinion that they may be fully acquired by various methods of mental training, and that some branches of learning should be left optional in the course. For this reason, it recommends that the following Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries for their action: "Shall Chap. xiv, Sec. 4, Form of Government, be amended by omitting the words 'Latin exegesis,' and substituting therefor the word 'thesis,' so that the amended clause shall read, 'A thesis on some common head of divinity?'"

6. The General Assembly regards with special interest the efforts now being made to secure for special service in the work of evangelization, a trained body of Christian workers and teachers and helpers to supplement the work of the ministry. The need of this class of laborers is beyond dispute, and the Assembly would earnestly recommend to the Presbyteries the consideration of such measures and methods as will furnish properly trained and efficient laborers for this department of work. In order to guard against the introduction of error into our churches through unauthorized and unqualified teachers, and, at the same time, to develop the gifts of those who may desire to engage in the work of evangelization, but who, as yet, do not feel called upon to separate themselves to the work of the Gospel ministry, the Assembly deems it proper for Presbyteries to seek out and license for temporary service, as local evangelists, those male members of the Church of whose piety, knowledge and ability to instruct others in the Gospel they may be satisfied, and who are willing to undertake such special service as Presbytery may direct. For the accomplishment of this end the Assembly overtures to the Presbyteries the following, to be voted on in accordance with Sec. 6, Chap. xii, Form of Government: "It shall be lawful for Presbytery, after proper examination as to his piety, knowledge of the Scriptures, and ability to teach, to license as a local evangelist any male member of the Church, who, in the judgment of Presbytery, is qualified to teach the Gospel publicly, and who is willing to engage in such service under the direction of Presbytery. Such license shall be valid for but one year unless renewed, and such licensed local evangelist shall report to the Presbytery at least once each year, and his license may be withdrawn at any time at the pleasure of Presbytery. The person securing such license shall not be ordained to the Gospel ministry, should he desire to enter it, until he shall have served at least four years as a local evangelist, and shall have pursued and been examined upon what would be equivalent to a three years' course of study in Theology, Homiletics, Church History, Church Polity and the English Bible, under the direction of Presbytery."

7. The General Assembly earnestly commends the Board of Education to the confidence of the entire Church as an agency which God has greatly blessed in the past, and which has in it large promise of good for the future. The following rules are hereby adopted for the guidance of the Board.

So far as the means at its command will permit, the Board is authorized to grant aid to all students in their academic course, who are under the care of a Presbytery, and are recommended by it as suitable persons to receive such aid.

In all exceptional or extraordinary cases, duly certified by the Presbyteries as conforming to the general standard herein prescribed, the Board is authorized to grant aid, so far as practicable, as in the case of students in the regular course.

The Board is hereby instructed to confer with the faculties of our theological seminaries in order to secure substantial equality in the amount of aid provided from whatsoever public source, for students in these institutions. The maximum of aid to such students from all public sources should not, except in the case of honorary scholarship, exceed the sum of $200 for each full year of study.

8. The General Assembly, finally, believing that the main source of supply for our ministry must ever be found in the large class of young men connected with our Church who are enjoying the privilege of liberal education in our various institutions of learning, urges upon the Board of Education the importance of devising such measures as in its judgment shall help to bring this great interest of the Church more directly before the minds of this class of students. We would particularly suggest the sending of suitable representatives, especially pastors of prominence, to every college in connection with the denomination, in order to lay the claim of the ministry, as a sacred calling, more distinctly before both teachers and pupils, and to do whatever else may be found practicable in the way of awakening new enthusiasm in respect to this vital interest.

It is also recommended to the Assembly that the following explanatory statement be sent to the Presbyteries in connection with the proposed Overtures.

The Overtures in Secs. 3 and 6 are sent to the Presbyteries for their consideration and action, not as additions to the Form of Government, but as standing rules which shall regulate the actions of the Presbyteries, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the Church.*

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE INCREASE OF THE SUPPLY OF MINISTERS, ON UNEMPLOYED MINISTERS AND VACANT CHURCHES.

The Committee on the Increase of the Supply of Ministers respectfully reports on unemployed ministers and vacant churches, as follows:

To your Committee was referred the subject of unemployed ministers and vacant churches, and upon this we would report as follows:

We do not understand that we were instructed and expected to inquire into the causes leading to so many unemployed ministers and so many vacant churches, but to find and suggest, if possible, a scheme by which ministers and churches thus designated may be brought together, so that with the least possible delay or friction, and with all possible respect for the interests of all the parties concerned, every minister able and willing to preach may be furnished the opportunity, and every church caring for the ministry of the Word may have it supplied.

We are now wholly without order in this matter, and whatever law we may have is a dead letter. The scheme adopted by the Assembly of 1873, and recommended to the Presbyteries, authorized the Board of Home Missions to organize a Special Bureau of information on this subject of unemployed ministers and vacant churches, but gave the movement no head, called it to no subsequent account of itself, and left it without any financial provision whatever. The scheme submitted by the Assembly of 1881, contained a plan for securing the needed funds for this work of adjustment of ministers and churches, but it provided no central agency, no power of review and control, and no means of unifying the movement so that the whole home field covered by our Church should be brought within the scope of its operation. Here and there a Presbytery took some steps to work this scheme; but the efforts were local and spasmodic, the scheme had no comprehensive unity, it took no organic form, left the Church without a medium of communication, and we are as far off from an effective adjustment of this grave matter as ever.

Meanwhile the crying and sore evil continues. The fact still stares us in the face that a large number of the churches are left without the stated ministry of the Word, and a large number of our brethren solemnly ordained to minister the Word are not doing it. The Church that glories in its polity, as both efficient and Scriptural, is hence obliged to confess that thus far it has proven itself either unwilling or incompetent to remove this reproachful fact. If our polity is right, we have not worked it. If it is not right, it is time we made it right. Among intelligent Christian men there ought to be some commendable and available way of bringing our long list of vacant churches and our long list of unemployed ministers together.

*The recommendations of the above Report of the Special Committee on the Increase of the Supply of Ministers were acted upon and amended by the Assembly through Sec. 4. The Assembly also decided that the rules recommended by the Committee in Secs. 3 and 6, should be sent down as Overtures for the amendment of the Form of Government, and not as standing rules.
W. H. R.

But this utter lack of system in the adjustment of ministers and churches leads to another humiliation. On the one side, our churches are open to all sorts of ecclesiastical prowlers scouring the country for a new field in which to exploit their vagaries and idiosyncrasies, appearing with no proper credentials, driven from one city and fleeing to another, with just enough of external gifts to capture some itching ears and to give promise of filling the pews, and so getting long enough lodgment to vex and fret, if not to divide and even destroy, the little flock. Our churches, too, in their strait of finding suitable men to minister to their need and not knowing where to turn for authorized and intelligent counsel, have been frequently led to resort to the devices of the shop, and to advertise for a preacher, hawking through the religious press the peculiar wares by which they would attract candidates to their pulpit.

And as if, on the side of the churches, this were not humiliation enough, we have on the side of the ministers a compelled experience that is to our rebuke and shame. A minister finding himself for any reason without charge, and wishing a field of labor, has no one in all our broad communion competently informed as to the openings, and officially authorized to put the now unemployed minister in connection with them. The churchless minister must button-hole friends, he must resort to correspondence, he must apply to vacant churches, and solicit hearings, and begin a process of candidating, and sometimes, in the sheer and desperate strait for a living, submit himself to mortifications and personal humiliations that to some sensitive souls are tortures worse than the stake. Out of this evil has grown another. Recognizing the discouragement and difficulty of securing a charge when without charge, the feeling has more or less come to prevail that a minister must keep his field by hook or crook until he find another. Hence the spectacle of a minister holding on to a charge of which he is in possession, after his usefulness is ended, and almost everybody in the parish is wishing for the termination of the pastorate. It only needs the slightest consideration to see that here is a great folly and a great wrong.

Let us fully recognize the contrast to all this in the happy efficient pastorates and the reasonably contented stated supplies of thousands of our beloved and useful ministers, and in the thousands of active, growing and well-instructed churches that show a reverent regard for God's Word and God's ambassadors. But after all that may be said with perfect truthfulness, and with positive emphasis, concerning the satisfactory relation of the vast majority of our ministers and churches, and after all allowance has been made for circumstances and conditions that would justly modify judgment, it still remains true that hundreds of churches without preaching, and hundreds of ministers without charge, is a condition of things that ought to be intolerable. It involves a great waste of value. It indicates utterly unbusiness-like methods. It subjects a sacred profession to humiliating experiences. It exposes parishes to drought and barrenness. It is indefensible at the bar of even any common business judgment, and from no possible point of view can it be sanctioned by an intelligent Christian conscience.

Your Committee believes that a clear, definite, comprehensive and determined effort should at once be made to remedy this evil. Any plan of operation promising wide success must secure and embody the following particulars:

1. Concert of Action.—The whole Church must be covered by the scheme. Every Presbytery and Synod in the home field must be actively and officially represented.

2. A Medium of Communication.—There must be some central source of intelligence to which both ministers and churches may directly go for information; some officer or agent by which the field and the man may be put in communication with each other. This agent should be clothed with no authority, but should simply be a gatherer and distributor of facts, a kind of living library of digested information, for the benefit of Presbyteries in the exercise of their episcopal functions, and for the benefit of ministers seeking a field of labor.

3. A Permanent Committee representing the Synod and meeting once a year to measure the total and the relative local need so as most wisely to adjust the supply to the demand. No plan can be at once broadly comprehensive and relatively just that does not provide for oversight and estimate of the whole field, through some representative Committee.

4. An Annual Report of the Work to the General Assembly.—No plan will be successfully worked that is not made to give an account of itself.

5. The Episcopal Powers of the Presbytery, as related to ministers and churches, recognized, respected and wisely used. If such powers are in possession they should be put in execution on proper occasion; and there should be a loyal acquiescence in the jurisdiction by both ministers and churches. Otherwise we abandon a fundamental feature of Presbyterianism, and are given over to Independency, and our boasted polity at a vital point proves a rope of sand.

6. A Distinct Offering by the Churches to what shall be known as the Presbyterial Ministerial Adjustment fund, to meet the necessary expenses incident to the successful prosecution of this plan.

In the effort to embrace in some working scheme the six preceding points, which your Committee believes to be indispensable, it is not at all assumed that this most delicate and difficult problem of ministerial adjustment has been fully solved. Doubtless objections could be well taken to any scheme that could possibly be devised. But surely something can be done, and ought to be done, and done speedily, to abate this grave evil. In the full conviction of this, your Committee submits the following to the Assembly, and recommends its adoption:

PLAN OF MINISTERIAL ADJUSTMENT.

1. Each Presbytery shall at every Fall and Spring meeting make out a list of the vacant churches, and of such of its unemployed ministers as are competent for service, and who have not been relieved from the active work of the ministry. From this list shall be excepted such vacant churches as have obtained leave from the Presbytery to supply themselves, and such unemployed ministers as have obtained permission to labor outside the bounds of the Presbytery. The Presbytery shall also require of each of the churches on the list so prepared, a report as to the amount it is able to contribute for the support of the preaching of the Gospel during the ensuing six months, to the end that the Presbytery, or its Committee, may determine the number of appointments to be made for it from the list of supplies. The Presbytery shall also determine the amount to be paid per week for pulpit supplies in said churches.

2. Each Presbytery shall appoint a Committee to have supervision of all vacant churches within its bounds, except as otherwise arranged for the Presbytery. It shall be the duty of the Committee to arrange for the supply of these churches from its list of unemployed ministers, and from such other names of unemployed ministers as may be suggested in correspondence with the Secretary or with similar Committees of other Presbyteries. It shall send such ministers to the vacant churches, in such order and rotation and at such intervals as may seem to it best; provided, however, that no minister shall occupy one pulpit longer than two Sabbaths in succession, where there are others to take their place in the rotation; and, provided also, that as far as possible, every vacant church shall have preaching at least once a month. For purposes of greater efficiency it is recommended that the term of service of this Committee be not less than three years.

3. Should any church be prepared, meanwhile, to call a pastor, or make provision for a stated supply, either from the list of unemployed ministers or from any other source, the usual course will be taken, and the church cease to be under the Committee's supervision.

4. If, in the judgment of the Presbytery, additional pecuniary support is needed to supply the vacant churches with the stated preaching of the Word. the Presbytery shall provide by an offering from the churches for a fund that shall be known as the Ministerial Adjustment fund, and that shall be used exclusively for this work. But it should be the persistent aim of the Presbytery and its Committee to bring the vacant churches to the full support of this arrangement for temporary supply. And in no case should the vacant churches be allowed to draw from this fund except as they have sought to supplement the aid by contributions of their own.

5. This fund secured by special offerings from the churches shall be placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the Presbytery and be known as the "Ministerial Adjustment Fund," orders upon which shall be signed by the Chairman of the Committee on Ministerial Adjustment. While not to be acknowledged by the Board of Home Missions in its receipts, it should be placed in the statistical column for Home Missions in the "Minutes" of the General Assembly, as a record of what our Church is doing for home evangelization.

6. All unemployed ministers, able for service, who refuse to be placed on the list and to work under the direction of the Presbytery, and all vacant churches that refuse to assist in any Presbyterial arrangement to supply them with the preaching of the Word, shall, if not excused, be so recorded by the Presbytery and reported to the Assembly. And this list of ministers and churches thus reported shall be published annually in the Assembly's "Minutes."

7. The Chairman of the several Presbyterial Committees on Ministerial Adjustment within the bounds of any given Synod, shall constitute a Synodical Committee of a similar character, whose duty it shall be to report annually to the Synod on this work of adjustment, to unify the work within the Synod's bounds, to bring about better relations of supply and demand, and to furnish such information to the several Presbyterial Committees as might contribute to their knowledge and efficiency.

8. The Chairman of the several Synodical Committees throughout the Church shall constitute the Permanent Committee on Ministerial Adjustment. This Committee shall meet once each year at such time and place just prior to the meeting of the Assembly as may be most convenient and most conducive to the interests of the general work committed to its charge. It shall be the duty of this Committee to look over the whole field, to hear reports through its members from the different Synods, to make estimate of the probable needs, financial and ministerial, of different localities, to suggest adjustments of supply and demand, to give organic unity to the entire movement, and to order all such matters pertaining to the work as shall not be in conflict with the episcopal powers of the Presbytery. And the Permanent Committee shall make an Annual Report to the Assembly through the Secretary hereinafter to be named.

9. There shall be a Correspondence Secretary located at , with a salary of , who shall act as a constant and helpful medium of communication with different parts of the Church, whose business shall be wholly to give information, to be a depository and distributor of facts both as to unemployed ministers and vacant churches, to whom a minister without charge may unhesitatingly apply, and by whom he may be put at once in correspondence with a Presbyterial Committee, or through that Committee with a vacant church likely to furnish the very field for which he has both adaptation and desire. This Secretary is to meet with the Permanent Committee, put it in possession of all the facts needful for its wisest action, and prepare its Annual Report to be submitted to the General Assembly. He shall be appointed by the Assembly, or by a Committee of the Assembly named for the purpose, and shall be subject to the Assembly's general direction.

All previous action of the Assembly in conflict with the foregoing action is hereby repealed.

In behalf of the Committee,
HERRICK JOHNSON,
S. J. McPHERSON,
Sub-committee.

The number of students connected with the Seminary during the year, including the Old and New Testament Fellows, has been:

Graduate Students,	9
Special Students,	3
Senior Class,	59
Middle Class,	52
Junior Class,	48

Of the students engaged in organized work in the town and neighborhood, forty-five have maintained regular prayer meeting and preaching services, and thirteen have taught in Sunday-schools. In two of these stations an increasing religious interest was manifested, with apparently good results.

Of the graduating class sixteen have accepted calls to labor as pastors or stated supplies, nine are expecting to go to the foreign field, nine to the Home Mission field, seven intend to continue their studies here or elsewhere for another year before settling, leaving sixteen whose plans are not yet formed.

The Junior instruction in Hebrew has been carried on in two divisions, by means of which an advanced class of seventeen has gone over much more ground than would otherwise have been possible. A very efficient class in the elements of Greek was conducted for some months by the New Testament Fellow, much to the advantage of about twenty students who attended it.

The Stone lectures for the year were delivered by the Rev. Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D., of Brooklyn, on the subject of "The Ministry and the Sacraments of the Church." The subject of interdenominational coöperation also was presented during the session in addresses from the Rev. Drs. Strong and Russell, Secretaries of the Evangelical Alliance, and by the Rev. Dr. Chamberlain, of Brooklyn.

The George S. Green Fellowship was awarded to Mr. Lewis B. Paton, who is on his way to Germany to pursue Semitic studies.

The Hon. Caleb S. Green, of Trenton, continues his support of the New Testament Fellowship by a gift of $400, conditioned on the recipient remaining in Princeton for a year's study. The Faculty have assigned the Fellowship to Mr. George T. Eddy.

The first Carter prize was taken by Mr. R. N. Beattie, of the Middle Class; the second by Mr. W. C. Mickey, and the third by Mr. H. C. Baskervill.

The first Scribner prize was taken by Mr. George T. Eddy, the second by Mr. H. C. Baskervill, and the third by Mr. J. N. Elliott.

Since the date of the last Report, certificates of graduation have been given to fifty members of the graduating class of 1890. They are:

II. AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

THE Governing Boards of the Seminary report as follows for the year ending May 8, 1890, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE SEMINARY.

The control of the Seminary is vested in a Board of Trustees and a Board of Commissioners. The Trustees have the immediate care of the Seminary, and the management of its estate, both real and personal. The Board of Commissioners is composed of a representation of two clergymen and one layman from each of the Presbyteries in what were formerly the Synods of Albany, Central New York, Geneva and Western New York, namely, the Presbyteries of Albany, Binghamton, Buffalo, Cayuga, Champlain, Chemung, Columbia, Genesee, Geneva, Lyons, Niagara, Otsego, Rochester, St. Lawrence, Steuben, Syracuse, Troy and Utica. The Commissioners fill the places of the Trustees as they become vacant, appoint the professors, and, with the concurrence of the Trustees, fix the salaries, and make all necessary appropriations of funds. Each Commissioner holds his office three years, one going out of office and the Presbytery supplying his place by a new election each year. Vacancies occasioned by death or change of residence are filled by the Presbyteries as they occur. The appointments of professors are reported to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. A Committee of Visitors to the Seminary is annually appointed by the Synod of New York.

Miss Amelia B. Edwards, L.H.D., lectured January 17, 1890, on "The Buried Cities of Ancient Egypt."

The course of "Practical Addresses by Successful Pastors," given in February, March and April, 1890, included the following:

This course of informal lectures, followed by questions by the students and others, has proved to be particularly acceptable and profitable. Lectures have also been given by invitation by the Rev. Robert G. Seymour, D.D., the Rev. Oscar A. Houghton, D.D., the Rev. Guido F. Verbeck, D.D., and several other eminent ministers and missionaries.

ATTENDANCE.

Fifty-one students have been in attendance during the year, of whom the following eighteen were received since our last report:

As a graduate student, William Patrick McKenzie, a graduate of the University of Toronto, and of Knox Theological College.

To the Senior Class: Ebenezer B. McGhee, a graduate of the University of Toronto, on letter from Knox Theological College.

To the Middle Class: Alexander Kenneth McNaughton, a student of Queen's College, Kingston, and a former student of Auburn, on examination.

John Chester Ball,	a graduate of	Oberlin College.
Boon Itt,	"	Williams College.
Frank Boughton Carlton,	"	Hamilton College.
Charles Clifton Carson,	"	Sweetwater College.
David Hanson Chrestensen,	"	Hamilton College.
John Frederick Fitschen,	"	Williams College.
Dean Smith,	"	University of Rochester.
oseph Lee Spurlarke,	"	Hamilton College.

Hugh Jack, a former student of Queen's College, Belfast.
George McKay, not a college man.

The college graduates who were admitted as special students were deficient in Greek; the other special students were deficient either in Greek or in other preparatory studies. They have studied in part with the Junior Class, and in part with student instructors employed for this purpose. No non-graduates have been admitted, except on three conditions: first, Presbyterial recommendation; second, that the man was too old to go to college; third, such training and proficiency in study that the man might fairly expect to enter either the coming Middle Class or the coming Junior Class, on the basis of having taken a reasonable equivalent for the college course before beginning the theological course.

GRADUATES.

The following seventeen students have completed the course and received the usual diplomas of graduation:

Seth Cook, Courtenay Hughes Fenn,
Alexander Hugh Fraser, Fenwick Bayne Fraser,
Friend David Haner, Thomas Joseph Hedges,
Albert Beardslee Judson, Herbert Alonzo Manchester,

Henry Bradley Sayer, George Clayton Shaw,
Thomas Edwin Sherman, William Harder Squires,
John Wesley Stitt, George William Warren,
William Garrison White.

Mr. Frank Salisbury Swan has completed a select course of two years of study and received a certificate to that effect.

THE LIBRARY.

Including the volumes acquired for the Reference Library, about 1600 volumes and 100 pamphlets have been added to the library since our last Report, so that the library now contains about 19,000 volumes and about 5000 pamphlets.

Early in the year arrangements were made to establish, in a room in Morgan Hall, a Reference Library, to contain from 1500 to 2000 volumes of the class most needed for frequent use. While these arrangements were in progress an offer was made by Mr. George D. Dayton, of Worthington, Minn., to give to the Seminary such books as the Faculty should choose from the admirably selected library of his brother, the late Rev. Benjamin B. Dayton, of the Presbytery of Syracuse. On examination, it was found that many of the books offered were just the books that were needed for the Reference Library, and the generous offer was accepted. About 613 volumes were thus received from Mr. Dayton. They are to be marked, so as to distinguish them, and are to be known as the Dayton Memorial Library. Including these, the Reference Library now has nearly a thousand volumes, and this number will soon be largely increased.

FINANCIAL REPORT.

Our financial report, in response to the questions asked by the General Assembly, is as follows:

Real Estate,	$200,000
General Endowment,	77,712
Scholarship Fund,	178,307
Lectureship Fund,	none.
Library Fund,	18,381
Special Funds,	268,678
Income for the year,	31,108
Expenses for the year,	33,520

This report, as compared with that for last year, shows an increase in the permanent funds of the Seminary of about $10,000, distributed between the Library Fund, the Scholarship Fund, and the Special Funds. This increase is from legacies and donations funded during the year.

III. WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following, as their Sixty-third Annual Report:

Since the last Report the following thirty students have been matriculated:

W. E. Allen,
W. S. Bowman,
C. H. Chalfant,
W. B. Clark,
J. A. Cunningham,
J. O. Dickenson,
G. R. Edmunson,
E. F. Gallagher,
R. M. Gordon,
J. E. Griffen,
James Hamilton,
G. B. Irwin,
J. S. Jarvis,
J. F. Kirkbride,
S. A. Kirkbride,
H. S. Lane,
E. H. Liles,
E. L. McCartney,
James McGrew,
C. L. V. McKee,
T. C. Marshall,
C. C. Millar,
J. S. Nichols,
W.H. Rodebaugh,
J. L. Roemer,
C. W. Swan,
W. P. Thomas,
C. B. Williams,
R. L. Williams,
L. R. Wylie.

Of these twenty-eight entered the Junior Class; one, Mr. C. B. Williams, the Middle Class; and one, Mr. W. P. Thomas, the Senior Class; Mr. Williams having been received by letter from the Seminary at Columbia, S. C., and Mr. Thomas from the Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

The three following have been regularly dismissed to other seminaries, to wit: Mr. A. J. Montgomery, of the Class of 1890, to Lane; Mr. R. S.

Inglis, of the Class of 1891, to Princeton, and Mr. H. T. Stephens, of the same class, to the Theological School of Boston University.

The whole number of students enrolled has been seventy-nine, a gain of four over last year, of seven over the year before last, and of eleven over the year before that.

Of the whole number enrolled, four have been resident graduates, the same as last year; twenty-four have been in the Senior Class, a gain of six; twenty-one in the Middle Class, a loss of three; and thirty in the Junior Class, a gain of two.

The position of the Seminary in the heart of the population of two large and rapidly growing cities in the thickly settled region of Western Pennsylvania, has afforded the young men many opportunities of religious work. The mission work of the cities has been very large, and new churches have been organized through their labors during the year. Calls for preaching services, from vacant churches far and near, have been very frequent and earnest. The charitable institutions of the cities have been served without remuneration. Students who were not yet licensed to preach have been largely engaged in church and mission schools, in labors among the newsboys, and in poor and destitute districts. Pleasant testimonies have been given of the efficiency and great usefulness of their efforts.

The summer vacations of the members of the Middle Class are generally spent in ministering to our smaller and feebler churches, largely the Home Missionary churches of the West, while a large proportion of the Junior Class of each year goes out to labor for the summer under the appointment of the Sabbath-school Department of the Board of Publication. Their fields of labor are generally in the Western States and Territories. Others engage in city missions, in teaching and such other work as they may secure. They are expected to accept all opportunities to engage in Christian labors, to conduct meetings for prayer, to make religious addresses, to talk with their fellow-men on the great themes of religion, and so prepare themselves more completely for their future work as preachers and pastors.

The Missionary Society has held its regular weekly meetings and has been addressed by Rev. Dr. R. H. Allen, Rev. A. C. Good, Mr. R. E. Speer, Rev. Dr. G. T. Purves and Profs. McClelland, Wilson, Riddle and Robinson. The annual address to the Missionary Society was delivered by President S. F. Scovel, of Wooster University, on "Civilization and Christianity."

The instructions of Prof. John P. Stephens in elocution have been continued during the past year with satisfaction to the Faculty, and marked improvement on the part of the students.

The conference lectures for the past year have been delivered by the following ministers, to wit: Rev. Loyal Young, D.D., Rev. William Gaston, D.D., Rev. Paul F. Sutphen, Rev. Thomas M. Thompson, Rev. Robert Alexander, D.D., Rev. John F. Hill, Rev. J. C. Meloy, Rev. G. M. Kerr, Rev. J. K. McKallip, Rev. D. J. Irwin, D.D., Rev. M. C. Bailey, Rev. W. J. Reid, D.D., Rev. Jesse C. Bruce. The Board gratefully acknowledges its indebtedness to these brethren who so kindly undertook and so faithfully performed their work, which we feel has been of great advantage to the students.

Nearly all the students of the graduating class have already found fields of labor.

Messrs. Ewing and Johnson have received their commissions as missionaries to the foreign field.

The following is a list of those who have completed the course and received in the regular way the usual diploma, to wit:

Cyrus G. Allen,
Charles A. Clark,

During the year two members of the Board were removed by death—Rev. S. J. M. Eaton, D.D., and Rev. Joseph A. Murray, D.D. At the regular meeting of the Board, held May 8, Rev. Jesse C. Bruce was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Eaton, and Rev. J. M. Mealy, D.D., was elected to fill the place caused by the death of Dr. Murray. Rev. Isaac C. VI. DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. Report of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Thirty-seventh Annual Report:

I. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors remains as stated in our last Report, with the exception that the Rev. Maurice Waller has been put in the place of the Rev. E. W. Thomson, resigned, and Elder Edward W. C. Humphrey in the place of Elder George W. Welsh, Sr., deceased. This, of course, implies that the class whose term of office expired at this meeting have all been reëlected. The organization and membership of the Board to-day are, therefore, as follows:

Rev. L. Faye Walker, D.D., President.
J. C. Maxwell, M.D., First Vice-President.
Rev. George J. Reed, D.D., Second Vice President.
Rev. Stephen Yerkes, D.D., Secretary.

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
Class whose term expires in May, 1891:
T. H. Cleland, D.D.,	J. C. Maxwell, M.D.,
James P. Hendrick, D.D.,	George Denny,
W. O. Goodloe,	A. J. Grundy,
J. R. Collier,	F. B. Trussell, Esq.,
J. W. C. Willoughby,	E. W. C. Humphrey, Esq.
Class whose term expires in May, 1892:
H. H. Allen, D.D.,	O. Beatty, LL.D.,
George J. Reed, D.D.,	G. E. Wiseman,
W. C. Condit, D.D.,	James Barbour, Esq.,
Charles Hutchinson, D.D.,	W. H. Wherritt,
E. W. Thomson,	J. M. Armstrong.
Class whose term expires in May, 1893:
A. C. Dickerson, D.D.,	D. J. Curry,
J. T. Lapsley, D.D.,	A. B. Nelson, M.D.,
L. F. Walker, D.D.,	J. T. Landes, Esq.
William S. Fulton,	H. V. Loving.
W. C. Young, D.D.,	L. B. Todd, M.D.

II. THE FACULTY.

Stephen Yerkes, D.D., Biblical Literature and Exegetical Theology.
Claude B. H. Martin, D.D., Systematic Theology.
William C. Young, D.D., Exegesis of the English Bible.
——— ———, Ecclesiastical History and Practical Theology.
John W. Reed, A.M., Biblical Greek and New Testament History.
Clarence K. Crawford, A.M., Hebrew and Old Testament History.

The vacant chair will be filled, either permanently or temporarily, during the vacation. The occupants of the other chairs have all been engaged heretofore in the work of instruction in the Seminary.

III. STUDENTS.

The following eight students have been matriculated since our last Report, viz., John Tate Curtis, Willis Edward Dudley, John Zechariah Haney, Thomas Calvin Kerr, Richard T. Meily, George Edward Moore, John Alexander O'Mara and Thomas Hosack Paden. The first seven entered the Junior Class; Mr. Paden, the Middle Class. The whole number of students during the year has been ten—seven in the Junior Class and three in the Middle Class. Of the latter, however, Mr. Jonas Barclay, who was matriculated at the opening of last session, soon determined to intermit the study of theology till he had completed the entire course of Centre College. This was done with the hearty approbation of the Faculty. There has been no Senior Class, though one member of the Middle Class has pursued a part of the Senior studies in addition to those of his own year. Three members of the Junior Class, not college graduates, but at the Seminary with the sanction of their respective Presbyteries, omitted the study of Hebrew for a time in order to carry forward their preparatory studies in the college.

The Faculty reports that the deportment of the students and their attention to study have been satisfactory, and that all but two are already engaged for some kind of church work during the summer.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS.

The Librarian reports the addition of about five hundred volumes to the library, donated by the sons of the late Rev. Dr. E. P. Humphrey, and constituting a part of their father's library. This noble gift has been put on the shelves by itself, and will be a lasting memorial of one of the first two professors of the Seminary who entered together on their work in the fall of 1853. Eighteen volumes more and a few valuable pamphlets have also been received, being given by various parties.

The whole expense of conducting the institution for the year has not exceeded one-third of its income. The expenses for the next year will probably be somewhat in advance of the amount expended this year.

It gives us pleasure to state that the Boards of Directors and Trustees have determined, and with entire unanimity, to erect during the coming year a commodious building for the accommodation of students. It will be located on a different and far more eligible site than the one now occupied.

We may also state that the Trustees of Centre College are now erecting a gymnasium of the first class, with a reading-room and bath-rooms attached. To the erection of this building the Seminary has made a contribution which secures to its students all the benefits of the establishment.

GEORGE J. REED, Vice-President.

STEPHEN YERKES, Secretary.

2. FACULTY.

At the annual meeting of the Board, held in April, the Rev. Professor Skinner, on account of impaired health, tendered his resignation of the Cyrus H. McCormick Chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology. This resignation was accepted, to take effect when his successor is secured. The Board placed on its record, inter alia, the following: "Resolved, That we express to Dr. Skinner our high appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him in the able conduct of his department during his continuance as the Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology. We are sincerely grateful that he has so ably, so consistently and so uniformly taught the imperishable truth of God's Word, and defended the faith once delivered to the saints."

The Board also erected a new chair, to be called the Chair of Divinity, limited in its duties to lectures on the Rule of Faith, this chair to exist only during Dr. Skinner's occupancy. To this chair Dr. Skinner was unanimously elected. We ask the Assembly to approve this election.

The Board further established "a department of instruction to be known as the Department of Biblical Philology, in which special attention shall be paid to the elements of the Hebrew and Greek Languages." The Rev. Augustus Stiles Carrier was appointed instructor of this new department.

The Faculty report " a most pleasant and profitable session, during which the work in all the departments of study has been carried forward with earnestness and diligence by the students. One special feature of the session has been the prosecution of mission work by the young men in various parts of the city. Nearly all of those not engaged in regular preaching have taken part in this." In addition to the work of the Faculty, special lectures on various topics have been delivered, by Revs. John H. Nesbitt, Charles M. Morton and Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D. Instruction in elocution has been given under the direction of the Professor of Sacred Rhetoric, by Prof. E. M. Booth, of Chicago.

5. FINANCES.

GENEROUS GIFTS.

During this year a gift of one hundred thousand dollars was received from the estate of Cyrus H. McCormick, to be expended in building a new row of houses on the Seminary grounds for the purpose of rental. This gift obviated the necessity of carrying out the plan proposed in our last Annual Report of borrowing a like sum for the erection of these buildings. The condition of this gift from the McCormick estate is as follows:

"That if, within twenty years from this date (May 11, 1889), the Board of Directors or the Board of Trustees shall encumber by mortgage or trust deed to secure borrowed money, any portion of the twenty acres between Halsted street, Belden, Fullerton and Sheffield avenues, or upon any of the buildings thereon, then this one hundred thousand dollars shall be returned to the heirs of said estate."

The Board of Directors accepted this munificent gift on the condition named, and ordered that hearty thanks be given to the representatives of the estate.

In addition to the above, Mrs. McCormick and her son, on behalf of the estate of Cyrus H. McCormick, contributed thirty thousand dollars to the general funds of the Seminary, towards meeting accumulated deficits and current expenses. They have also erected another residence for a professor at a cost of twelve thousand dollars. For thus generously providing the means for theological education the Church at large is greatly indebted to them.

Other liberal friends and churches contributed $1091 for refurnishing rooms in Ewing Hall.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

This Report, which is clear and full as to the finances of the institution, as entered upon the records of the Board, is herewith forwarded in compliance with the form and under the heading suggested by the General Assembly. It is as follows:

Real Estate, excluding income-bearing property,	$817,456 41
General Endowment,	336,437 86
Scholarship Fund,	85,925 90
Lectureship Fund,
Library Fund,	2,855 92
Special Funds,	6,500 00
Income for the year,	26,469 24

6. SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIP.

These two funds amount to $89,925.90. While the income is carefully distributed under the supervision of the Faculty, so large has been the necessary demand that within two or three years a deficit has accumulated, amounting to nearly $16,000. In order, if possible, to make permanent provision for this want of the institution, the Board authorized the employment of an agent to solicit from individuals and churches sums of $5000, for the erection of houses for rental and for single scholarships of $1500 each, and to secure pledges of additions to current funds for a term of years.

Are there not generous Christians who will preach the Gospel by helping those who give themselves to the Lord's work while they are gaining the needed preparation?

VIII. BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY.

BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY, in presenting its Report to the General Assembly of the Theological Department, necessarily reiterates the statement of former years, that the department, not being separate from the university in endowment, and encouraging all its graduates from the collegiate course, candidates for the ministry, to go, so far as possible, to the regular seminaries, can only present the usual general Report.

The number of students for the ministry has an encouraging increase, and besides those who have gone from us, and are in the different theological seminaries, there are a number knocking at our doors of a class not able to go through the regular courses, but who, with briefer courses in Biblical and theological instruction, will be of great value and usefulness in some of our many vacant fields. Out of the revivals in our churches numbers of this class have felt the call to such work. and desire such preparation as they may obtain in briefer time and at comparatively small expense.

It is likely that we shall have quite a number of this class under our charge, and though fully believing in the most thorough preparation for the ministry, will take up this work so far as the churches and Presbyteries shall recommend candidates and send them to us.

The institution has not been seeking this class of students, but the churches and the men, under a new impulse coming, in several cases, out of revivals, are asking how they can be prepared for a much needed work. The Presbytery of Alton has just ordained and installed one excellent young man who has prosecuted his theological studies with us, and several of the class mentioned promise to soon come to us. One Armenian student is preparing to return to preach to his countrymen in Turkey the blessed Gospel, and application has just come to us to take a student from Japan who will come to us in the autumn.

The religious atmosphere of the institution has been good during the past year, and several of the students have been converted to Christ.

E. L. HURD, President.

ARTHUR W. FOSTER.

The year has been an eventful one in the history of our institution.

The gift by Arthur W. Foster, of San Rafael, of a valuable tract of land, in Marin county, within fifteen miles of San Francisco, as a new site for the Seminary, was followed by an offer of $50,000 for buildings from Alexander Montgomery, of San Francisco, provided that $50,000 additional should be raised by the Directors. This generous offer was soon afterwards increased to $250,000, and on the personal guarantee of four gentlemen that the conditional $50,000 would be secured, Mr. Montgomery's check for a quarter of a million dollars was handed to the Directors.

The financial agent of the Seminary was then sent East, and spent two months in New York and other cities in the effort to obtain the additional $50,000 required by the conditions of Mr. Montgomery's gift. In this effort he was supported by an emphatic resolution of the last Assembly, commending the San Francisco Theological Seminary to the liberality of the entire Church; by the hearty endorsement and active coöperation of a number of the most influential ministers and elders in New York and Philadelphia, and by the repeatedly expressed sympathy of the religious press of those cities; yet we regret to say that the result of our appeal was far from being what we had hoped for.

We cannot forbear, however, the grateful mention of the gift of $4000, by Mrs. E. A. Bulkley, of Brooklyn, for the endowment of the "John Williams Bulkley Scholarship," in memory of her late husband, and also the gift of $30,000 by "a friend," a member of another denomination, for the establishment of an Instructorship of Vocal Culture and Sacred Music. Other smaller subscriptions were received amounting to about $3000. We have, however, the full $50,000 now in hand and are thus enabled to put Mr. Montgomery's great benefaction to the uses for which it was intended.

The Board has established a Professorship of Apologetics and Missions, providing for its endowment with a portion of the Montgomery fund. Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., has been elected as the incumbent of this chair, subject to the approval of the Synod of the Pacific. Dr. Mackenzie has signified his acceptance and has begun the work of his department.

The Board has met with a severe loss in the death, in January last, of Elder Stephen Franklin, the Treasurer of the Seminary since its foundation, whose long service was rendered with marked fidelity and devotion.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS A. HORTON, President.

R. J. TRUMBULL, Secretary.

The Board of Directors desires to put on record its gratitude to God for all the tokens of His favor for the current year.

The total matriculation of students since our last Report is thirty-two (32), an advance of two (2) over last year. Of these, seven (7) were in the Theological Department, and twenty-five (25) in the Classical Department. All have the ministry in view.

At the recent commencement, certificates of graduation were given to John C. Baultey, Hermann Sill and Rockus DeLange. Fields were not only awaiting these young men, but such is the demand for a German Presbyterian ministry that we can do little more from year to year than supply the fields already organized. Any considerable advance upon the great outlying population is impossible under present conditions.

Although the Assembly has generously endorsed this work among the Germans, our English-speaking churches exhibit little of the fire of conquest. The German churches, themselves children of this institution, have borne the major part of its burdens, and are doing so still. They thus testify their loyalty to our doctrine and polity. By a still better token, they seal that testimony, by giving their sons to become Gospel ministers, that the form of sound words and the everlasting consolations may be given to their immigrating countrymen.

The Board of Directors, under a sense of its obligations to God, would respectfully call the attention of the Church once more to this school of the prophets.

I. ITS FIELD.

This Seminary is planted quite centrally to a vast and increasing German population, extending over the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas and Dakota—a population steadily becoming felt, if not dominant; a population inheriting three elements of character which will tell for future power, to wit, plodding industry, painstaking economy and religious veneration. Although more naturally tributary to Lutheran communions by hereditary ties, our work has steadily demonstrated that the converted German is Presbyterian in temperament and entirely complacent in our full-orbed system of doctrine, as in our simple worship.

II. THE ECONOMY OF OUR WORK.

Of this we speak with a mixed sense of pride and humiliation. It is possible for the German student to adapt himself to simpler surroundings than our English-speaking students, because his home life has never cultured artificial wants. Hence, the education of these young men at a minimum cost.

Our humiliation comes, however, from the fact that the Board has pledged salaries not to exceed $1000 and $1200 to its professors, and has been forced to ask these godly and hard-worked men, not only to submit to reductions ranging up to twenty-five (25) per cent, but also keeping them in painful and lingering delay in getting this reduced salary.

Various devices have been operated by the Board to interest individuals and churches in this, the Assembly's work, but with very unsatisfactory results. Persistent misunderstandings seem to hedge our way, and the impression has gone forth, that it is un-American to preach to Germans in German, involving a tendency to perpetuate Germany in America. We humbly ask the Church to remember the lessons pointed by our work thus far, to wit:

(a) That Germans reaching this country after the age of twenty-five rarely attain a mastery of our religious nomenclature in English. He thinks in German; he understands only what he is able to translate from German into English. Paul could say, Amen, to what he understood. The German can do no better than that.

(b) Ours is a work of transition. We adapt ourselves to the necessities of the older Germans, giving them the Gospel in their own tongue, that we may save the children to our Christianity and that our English-speaking churches may inherit them.

(c) Not to do this is to lose both parents and children and allow our neglect to gender to the perpetuity of hurtful continental tendencies in our midst. Is this neglect to be called American in a good sense? Is it good stewardship upon the part of the great Presbyterian Church to neglect the German growth here at the very roots of our missionary tree and allow that growth to develop its present tendencies into full-bloom fruit? Is it not time for our Church to arouse itself to the immense reach of this whole problem and rally as one man to the walls of a Gospel defense?

III. OUR GREAT NEED IS MONEY.

We have made a trifling advance over last year in reducing our current indebtedness. Our sources of permanent income ($10,000) remain the same as last year. We still need $100,000 for a permanent endowment. The attention of money-getters, great and small, is earnestly asked to this department of the Assembly's work. Will it pay to endow this institution? Let the seventy (70) German churches speak—the children of this Seminary! Let their orderly communities, Christian homes, devout worship, missionary zeal, blameless citizenship, testify! At its last meeting, the Board of Directors accepted the resignation of Rev. Jno. Bantley, Van Vleit Professor of Theology. It is expected that this chair will be filled before the September opening, and the entire course of study pursued as usual. It may be also said that for the coming year the Rev. Adam McClelland, Ph.D., D.D., will act as President of the school, under appointment by the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

ADAM W. RINGLAND, President.

During the sessions of the General Assembly last year in New York city, the Rev. James P. Wilson, D.D., the President of our Board, died at his residence in Newark. From the beginning, he had been identified with the Board of Directors, and had constantly manifested a deep and devoted interest in the progress and increasing efficiency of our institution. Our grief over his departure is mingled with thankfulness for the ripeness of his character and the long services of his useful life.

THE FACULTY.

Rev. CHARLES E. KNOX, D.D., President and Professor of Homiletics, Church Government and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. GEORGE C. SEIBERT, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Biblical Exegesis and Theology.
Rev. FREDERICK E. HAUSSER, Ph.D., Instructor in Hebrew Exegesis, in Church History and in the Academic Department.
CORNELIUS H. WEDEL, Tutor in the Academic Department.

THE STUDENTS.

The number of students in attendance is thirty-six, twelve in the Theological and twenty-four in the Academic Department. Five were graduated in June, 1889. One member of the Theological Department did not return; and one candidate has been admitted to the Junior Class. Four students from the Academic Department were promoted to the Junior Class; one student took a dismission to the Union Theological Seminary, and one student who had supported himself during a year, was graduated from the Academic Department, without admittance to the Theological Department. Eight students therefore were graduated or withdrew, and nine new students have been admitted. A Bohemian and an Italian have also applied for admission, but our present plans are not fully adjusted to their needs. The question is likely to arise whether the institution should be opened to students from foreign nationalities other than Germans.

The graduating class in June, 1890, is five in number. The Board of Foreign Missions has appealed to us to approve the acceptance by one of the graduates of their appointment of him as a missionary to the Komorun country in West Africa. Komorun is under the government of the German Empire, and our Foreign Board have been notified that our missions there cannot be continued unless one of our missionaries can communicate with the Colonial government in the German language. While our institution has been founded with the express representation that its graduates are to work among the Germans in America, the special reasons are such in this case that the Board have approved the acceptance of this commission, by Mr. George Albert Godduhn, of the Senior Class.

GENERAL STATEMENTS.

The recent quickened interest in our Church has been felt by us in an increased demand for our graduating classes from widely separated portions of the country. We have been unable to meet these demands. Our classes are likely to increase in number on account of the quickened interest in our Alumni and other German friends; but could the graduating classes be at once doubled in size, we could not meet the want which is likely to arise. We believe that the first stage of slowest accretion in numbers and general effectiveness is now past, and that in the future we shall move on more rapidly. The enlargement of our plans, even should they include students from other nationalties, will not involve any proportionate increase of expense. We look confidently to the Church for whatever measure of economical expense may be necessary to develop more fully this providential mission service. We renew our special request that the prayers of the Church may accompany their intelligent interest and timely support.

For the Directors,

CHARLES E. KNOX.

SPECIAL COURSE

Frisby Gibson,	Pennsylvania.

The academical year began on Thursday, the 19th of September, 1889, and closed on the 22d of April, 1890. The opening address was delivered by Prof. David E. Shaw: "The Ideal Student," 2 Peter iii, 11.

The Annual Sermon was preached in the chapel on Sabbath, the 20th of May, by Rev. Francis L. Patton, D.D., LL.D.: Ecclesiastes xiii, 13, "Fear God and keep His Commandments, for this is the whole duty of man."

The examination of the classes took place on Friday and Monday before commencement. Committees of the Board of Trustees, of the Ministers Association of Philadelphia, and of the Synod of Pennsylvania were present and expressed their satisfaction with the evident diligence and success of the students in the various departments of study, and with their capacity to use the knowledge here acquired, in the work of the ministry.

The testimony of the professors unites with that of our visiting examiners. Our students can learn all that we can teach. A God-given capacity is an index of His purpose. The hesitation of men, who seem loath to cease from managing the negro, alone delays a blessing which God has made it opportune to bestow upon the needy and the worthy.

It is a gratification to us therefore to report to the General Assembly that the three Chairs of Latin, Greek and Hebrew are distinctively endowed, and that instruction in these subjects is henceforth free to all our students. We give them a place in our curriculum, because they have been providentially made the vehicles to us of the treasures of ecclesiastical and sacred literature. But we do not substitute them for the purpose of mental training, in the place of our own English tongue.

The Chair of Instruction in the Authorized Version of the English Bible remains only partially endowed. Thirteen thousand dollars are now available for that purpose, leaving $12,000 still to be subscribed. In the meantime a friend of the University provides the salary of the professor. The last General Assembly recommended the completion of this endowment. Five thousand dollars have been added to the amount previously reported, and we expected the supplement in God's time.

The cost of supporting twenty-five students in the Theological Department during the year just closed has been $3750, being $150 for each student.

The amount of aid out of our Benevolent Fund given to the students, taking the average for all departments, is $88 for each student in the University. We shall close the current year, having administered the academical expenses of 198 students not only without debt, but with a balance in the treasury sufficient to purchase the coal required for the next year in a favorable market.

Through the liberality of Mrs. David Brown, of Princeton, N. J., a commodious chapel and prayer hall is now in course of erection. It is expected to reserve out of the $20,000 given for this purpose, enough to provide for the perpetual repair of the building.

The past year has been one of more than usual encouragement. We have been favored with a general interest in personal religion among the collegiate and preparatory students. Forty have professed faith in Christ during the year. The effects of this awakening appear to remain in a notable degree. It manifests itself in a large attendance at the voluntary meetings for religious service, and in an earnest study of the Word of God. Professors and students have together enjoyed and profited by the public services of the chapel, and the private opportunities of conference concerning the way of salvation and the life of faith.

Ninety of our students are candidates for the ministry. One hundred and eighty-nine are professors of religion in various evangelical denominations. Only nine make no profession of religion.

We do not altogether escape the necessity of discipline, but we would be glad to know that there are other institutions of like character where there is as little necessity for it, as here.

Our endowment and permanent property has increased in amount and value. We have met with no pecuniary losses. Seventy new students were admitted into the departments during the current year, and yet we close our accounts without debt.

And we have encouraging intimations of a large increase to our resources during the coming year. Relying on the favor of God, and the good-will of His people, we propose in the near future to establish one hundred additional scholarships so as to increase our numbers by that amount.

To build a Library for the safety and more efficient use of 15,000 books, yearly multiplied by generous gifts.

To endow the Chair of Instruction in the Authorized Version of the English Bible.

To erect a suitable hall for recitations for both our theological and collegiate work.

To equip the Theological Department distinctively and adequately.

And to provide by endowment for the care and improvement of the property of the University. But amid our general prosperity, we have been called to mourn the loss of beloved and honored co-laborers, both in the Board of Trustees and in the Faculty.

The Rev. A. B. Cross, who had been for many years a Trustee of Lincoln University, died in Baltimore, Md., on the 6th day of September, 1889. He was from the first in cordial sympathy with the design of this institution, and until the close of his life he continued in cordial and helpful coöperation with the Board and Faculty in the whole work. He often attended the annual and special meetings at great personal inconvenience, and in recent years in spite of physical infirmities and suffering. His last mission away from home was to make a visit to Lincoln University. We shall miss his earnest counsels, and the strength of his presence. And we pray that God may raise up for us another friend equally disinterested and faithful.

On the 27th day of February, 1890, Mr. Charles F. Woodhull, acting Professor of Mathematics, died of diphtheria at the residence of his brother, Dr. G. T. Woodhull, Professor of Classical and Hellenistic Greek. Prof. C. F. Woodhull had been associated with us since 1882, as an Instructor in Greek, in Natural Science, and, for the last four years, in Mathematics. He was a man of varied attainments, of ripe scholarship, and of an extended experience in the class-room. His affability and courtesy and self-forgetting modesty endeared him to his associates, and his clearness in instruction, his patience in explanation, and his exactness in expression, made him a favorite among the students.

The Trustees have elected to the vacant Chair of Mathematics, the Rev. Robert Laird Stewart, D.D., of Danville, Pa.

We invite the General Assembly to take such measures of investigation as they may think wise, to the end that the facts and prospects of our work, as conducted under their oversight, may become better known. We believe that God has given good-will enough to the Presbyterian Church, towards their colored fellow-citizens of the household of faith, to increase their contributions to this work a hundredfold. And we offer this institution, through the General Assembly, as a Presbyterian channel through which their good-will may reach these brethren in the Lord without obstruction or delay.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Faculty,

ISAAC N. RENDALL,
President of Lincoln University.

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY.

Rev. W. F. JOHNSON, D.D., President and Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Homiletics.
Rev. THOMAS LAWRENCE, D.D., Professor of Hebrew and Greek Exegesis.
Rev. CARROLL CUTLER, D.D., Professor of Theology and Church Government.

Since our last Annual Report, Messrs. E. W. Carpenter, N. C., A. M. Caldwell, N. C., William Hairston, N. C., S. F. Wentz, N. C., and I. S.

Williams, S. C., have completed the three years' course of study, and received, by order of the Board of Trustees, the usual degree. Mr. I. E. Hardy completed a partial course and received a certificate to that effect.

During the year the following theological students have matriculated:

Daniel Decato Davis,	Laurens, S. C.
John Mumford Caldwell,	Lincoln, Ill.
Samuel Jackson Hargrave,	Charlotte, N. C.
Irwin Matthews Muldrow,	Mayesville, S. C.
Albert Joseph Tate,	Mabanes, N. C.
Smith Gustavus Taylor,	Oxford, N. C.

Of the 156 students enrolled in this institution, nearly one-half are looking forward to the work of the ministry, and most of the remainder are expecting to be teachers. A little reflection therefore will show that the work which it aims to do is of vastly greater relative importance to the success of our Church work, than either the size of its Faculty, or the number of its students would indicate. The colored people will not soon be able to support their own supply of the other learned professions; therefore, for many years to come, they must look mainly to their preachers and teachers as their educated leaders. This must give to these classes notable prominence and influence, over and above what prominence the negro has always been willing to give to his religious teachers. If, therefore, we could send forth a large number of properly trained men to occupy such positions, we should be giving an untold blessing to the whole race. That the number under instruction is not half so large as it ought to be, is not from any lack of persons anxious to be students, nor is it because educated men are not needed, but simply because we have failed to secure adequate support. Our friends in the North have failed to appreciate the situation. They have not even done for it what they have done for our white institutions, though the necessities of the case are vastly greater. They have not taken into account the poverty of the present generation of the colored people, nor the terrible dangers which confront the land if the race be left to relapse into superstition and barbarism.

We believe that no institution under the care of the Presbyterian Church has a wider field or greater opportunities. Its students are scattered in their school and church work through the South Atlantic States and as far west as Texas. It should not be forgotten that this is the only agency for doing collegiate and theological work which our Church has on this whole Southern field, so that she must either support it, or carry her students at great expense to Northern institutions, or leave the work undone. The simple fact, alluded to above, that so unusual a number of our students are candidates for the ministry, ought to appeal to every Presbyterian heart for a more hearty sympathy and a far more liberal support. Such a work among so helpless a people, and yet a people responding so readily to all evangelistic and educational efforts, has the strongest possible claims upon the prayers and benevolence of the Church. Everything else being equal, training here in the heart of the field should certainly be less costly and more practical than elsewhere, and there should be less danger of the student being educated out of sympathy with his future work, or the lowly people among whom he is to labor. Even during their student days a number of our young men, acting as catechists, have charge of churches in the region round about, and form a very acceptable substitute where ordained ministers are not available.

Since our last Report we, as well as the Church of Christ in general, have suffered a great loss in the death of our colleague, Rev. Stephen Mattoon, D.D., one of the founders, and for many years the President of this institution. His loving interest in this work, and especially the wise caution born of his long experience of its special difficulties, made him a man very much to be missed, and he is sincerely mourned over a wide region, where churches have been planted through his care.

To fill the chair thus left vacant, the Board of Freedmen chose Rev. Carroll Cutler, D.D., formerly President of Western Reserve College, and he entered upon his duties very acceptably at the opening of the college year.

WANTS OF THE UNIVERSITY.

1. We must put in the forefront as the chief thing which, if left unsupplied, must render any considerable success impossible, a larger fund to aid students who have not money enough of their own to secure an education.

2. A new dormitory is also a pressing need just now. We must have a building of some sort at once, even if we must give up the hope of getting at this time such a permanent structure as we need.

3. A very slight beginning has yet been made in the way of an Endowment Fund to provide salaries for the professors. The work can never be considered on a satisfactorily permanent basis till this be done.

With an earnest prayer that the Assembly be so guided as to greatly stimulate the work entrusted to us, the above Report is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Faculty.

W. F. JOHNSON, President.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Home Missions respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Eighty-eighth Annual Report—its twentieth since reunion.

We record our humble and earnest thanks to God for His gracious exemption of the Board from the loss of any member or officer by death, and for His manifest guidance and blessing in the enlargement and general prosperity of its work during the year. The steady general increase of the Board's income may be fairly taken as a most gratifying and encouraging vote of confidence in the Board as the Church's tried and trusted agency in the work of home evangelization, and also as an unmistakable proof of the unchangeable purpose of the intelligent and powerful body of American Christians who stand behind it to prosecute this sacred enterprise with unremitting energy until the great and glorious results it contemplates shall be fully achieved.

The Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., resigned during the year, and the Rev. James M. Ludlow, D.D., was appointed to fill the place thus made vacant in the Board until the meeting of this General Assembly.

We record with sorrow the removal by death of twelve missionaries during the year. Their names are as follows:

Rev. William I. Brugh, D.D.,	Kentucky.
Rev. Edwin G. Bryant,	Michigan.
Rev. John B. Combs,	Kansas.
Rev. Benjamin S. Crosby,	New York.
Rev. Don M. Dockery,	California.
Rev. David Greycloud,	South Dakota.
Rev. Samuel G. Hair,	Florida.
Rev. John McCrae,	Kansas.
Rev. Edmund H. Post,	Florida.
Rev. Daniel J. Robertson,	Kansas.
Rev. S. N. Robinson,	New York.
Rev. C. C. Wallace, D.D.,	Florida.

A VERY GOOD YEAR.

The year's work, on the whole, has been attended by marked and manifest prosperity. As in most years, it has encountered serious obstacles. Floods in Western Oregon, so great as to hinder for weeks the transmission of the mails, have made anything like continuous church services in many places impossible. Unusually heavy snow-falls in the Northwest and about many of the mountain regions and passes have embarrassed religious as well as material interests. Some five thousand persons are said to have been on the verge of actual famine in North Dakota; and churches and missionaries have had their share of the pinch and pressure. Some of the older States have suffered additional losses by removals. The rush into Oklahoma almost effaced some, and sadly weakened many more, of our churches in the southern tier of Kansas. The widespread failure of the vine in California has reduced whole communities to comparative poverty. And yet the great work of home evangelization and church extension has steadily widened and strengthened and gained ground. One hundred and nine more missionaries have been employed than in any previous year. The churches aided by the Board have received 9795 on confession of faith and 7091 by certificate—16,886 communicants in all; 200 churches and 578 Sunday-schools have been organized, and 30 churches have assumed self-support.

THE THIRD CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

The Board has unanimously elected as its third Secretary the Rev. Duncan J. McMillan, D.D., President of the College of Montana. To the great satisfaction of the members and officers of the Board, he has accepted the post, and already entered on his work. Dr. McMillan was the Board's pioneer missionary to the Mormons. Under his management the College of Montana has attained a front rank among the younger educational institutions of our Church. He will bring to the Board's service the prime of his powers and a large and special experience.

OUR MISSIONARIES.

The missionaries aided by the Board during the year number 1701. They have served some 4000 churches and stations. They constitute a noble brigade of soldiers of the cross. A large proportion of them are men of marked capabilities and fine equipment for their sacred calling, and as a body their devotion and fidelity are beyond all possible earthly appreciation and reward. Their wives, and often their sons and daughters as well, are their worthy and willing helpers.

But praise of our missionaries goes without saying. The available space in this report may be better employed in urging the increase of their number. The great need of the hour is more men for the work. If one-third of the eight hundred students or so in our thirteen theological seminaries become ministers this spring, the Presbyterian Church will put into the work this year one for each three thousand communicants. Some in addition to these are obtained from other Christian communions. But the entire supply is sadly behind the demand.

The Board respectfully asks the Church seriously to consider the causes of this shortcoming. Who is to blame for it? The fault must be within the Church itself. There are young men enough. They crowd into every other calling. And the young men themselves are not alone to blame. Pastors do not ply and urge them as constantly and earnestly as they might with the claims of this sacred service. Parents too often allow or encourage their sons to leave the ministry out of the question in their choice of a life-work. There are many large, strong, prosperous congregations, especially in the great cities, which year after year furnish not a single candidate for the pulpit out of their hundreds of bright and noble youth. How can the Church consistently deplore the lack of ministers and missionaries when it fails to lay holy hands on its own children for this high calling?

FINANCES.

The year opened with a debt of $33,337.89. Home Missions proper had a balance in its favor of $4236.08, while the account of Teachers and Chapels, New York Synodical Aid Fund, and Sustentation, had deficits respectively of $27,619.47, $9829.02 and $165.48, giving net deficit as above. The receipts of the first six months, from all sources, showed an increase of $55,000, and those of the first ten months an increase of $97,000, over the same months of the previous year. But there was a falling off in February of $11,000, and in March of $85,000, as compared with the year before. Collections from congregations for Home Missions proper show a falling off of $19,814 from last year. The total amount contributed to the Board from all sources during the year has been $831,170.40; for current work, $809,094.61; for New York Synodical Aid Fund, $11,672.99; for permanent and trust funds, $4700; for sustentation department, $5702.80. The Board closes the year with a balance against it of $80,391.94. Of this, $13,021.27 is on account of Teachers and Chapels, $28,551.33 on account of New York Synodical Aid Fund, $38,819.34 on account of Home Missions proper—that is, aid to churches in the support of ministers.

The General Assembly of 1887 asked for an income for the Board of $800,000, and the Church gave only two per cent less. The Assembly of 1888 asked for $850,000. Once more the Board received only about two per cent less, or $832,647.56. The Assembly of 1889 recommended an income of $875,000, or only five and one-quarter per cent advance on the receipts of the previous year. So moderate a proposed advance it seemed reasonable to expect to be realized. It is somewhat disappointing that the great Presbyterian Church, having stood by the Board's work so staunchly for some years past, should this year fall so far short of the moderate ratio of proposed increase, and the forecast of the General Assembly, to say nothing of the fast-growing needs and the clamorous calls from all quarters for new work. The only remedy for this shortcoming is a constant and general effort to obtain contributions from all congregations and Sunday-schools, and a patient cultivation of the gracious habit of Christian giving, especially among the young.

The attention of the General Assembly and the Church, especially the men of business who are interested in our work, is called to the fact, as made plain in the experience of this and previous years, that a large increase is desirable in the amount of invested funds which the Board is authorized to use as collaterals for loans. During at least the summer months of every year the Board's outgo so far exceeds its income that large loans are absolutely necessary. The full limit of the Board's credit was reached this last season, at a time when further loans to a moderate amount and for a brief term would have enabled the Treasurer to pay promptly many missionaries who had to wait for weeks. The collaterals now available for loans for general work are only about $75,000, and those specially available for woman's work not more than $7000. An increase of the funds thus available to double the present amount would greatly facilitate the work. When it is kept in mind that from April to November, for several years past, beyond the Board's power to help it, its outgo has exceeded its income by $1000 to $1500 every day, it will be seen how desirable and vital is this increase of basis for necessary loans.

NON-CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

Of the 6727 churches reported to the last General Assembly, 1880, or about twenty-eight per cent, made no contribution to the Board of Home Missions. It would be natural enough to conclude at first thought that these churches would be found in the list of those aided by the Board as unable even to support themselves. It should be known and noted, however, that the fact is just the contrary. There is no one of its rules on which the Board more positively insists than the requirement of a Home Mission collection from every church aided by its funds. A failure in this is always noted, and the delinquent church is required to make the omission good. The non-contributing churches, then, whether weak or strong, are not the Home Mission churches. This puts the case of these non-contributing churches in a new light, and not a pleasant or creditable one.

RAILROADS.

Our immense railway system is the growth of the last sixty years. There were twenty-three miles in 1830. In 1861, when the civil war broke out, there were 31,000 miles. In 1890, there are nearly 170,000 miles, or almost half the mileage of the world. The largest annual increase has been 12,872 miles in 1887. The present season promises greater activity in railway construction than has marked any previous year. The larger part of the construction of the last few years has been in the Central West, Northwest and Southwest. The bulk of the pending enterprises is in the South and Southwest, in Pennsylvania and Ohio, and in Montana, Oregon and Washington. All along the vast and rapidly growing extent of these prodigious railway lines, especially in the newer regions, the natural increase of our population, the immense multitudes of foreign immigrants, and the swarms of restless seekers for better fortunes have been or will be speedily distributed. If the Gospel and the Church are to reach them with elevating and saving influences in their formative period, they must have encouragement and pressure and material aid from without. The religious hope and opportunity of the new settlements of the land are to be found alone in the steady and tireless pushing of the work of Home Missions.

THE FIELD.

This Report will not admit of anything like a complete sketch of the whole vast field, but some large sections of it seem to call for special notice and detail.

THE NORTHWEST.

The Synod of Columbia includes Oregon, Washington, Alaska, and one Presbytery in Idaho. It covers, without Alaska, 178,000 square miles. The region is of itself a broad and grand Home Mission field, in which there are need and scope for tenfold the men and money as yet devoted to it. Washington is a young but mighty State, with 250,000 people, and thousands pouring steadily in. The memories of Whitman and Spaulding invite hereabouts the utmost missionary effort.

Oregon has a population of three hundred thousand, which is fast increasing. Portland's suburbs have several struggling congregations which will one day hold large places in the church system of a great city, which will then overspread and include them all as the metropolis of the Northwest. Southwestern Oregon is a wonderful fruit-growing region, equal as such to Northern California, and will soon fill up with a large population. The railroads are pushing through the mountain gaps to several fine harbors on the coast, where in the near future populous cities must stand. This Synod is calling for thirty new men.

Last year's Report chronicled the admission to Statehood of the two Dakotas. The two cover 151,000 square miles between them, or about the same area as Montana, the great Rocky Mountain State then also admitted. Our Home Mission work in Dakota has been almost entirely accomplished in the last dozen years. North Dakota has about 250,000 people. The past year has been a very hard one. From crop failures it has been reported that five thousand people were at one time on the verge of actual famine. Poverty and removals have forced many changes of ministers. In January, thirty-three churches, or one-third of those in the three Presbyteries, were reported vacant. But these drawbacks are but partial or temporary, and the work is going steadily onward with promise of enlargement and success.

South Dakota has about 400,000 people. Our missionaries have done much hard and fruitful work. The last meeting of Synod reported the organization during the year of one Presbytery, twenty-one churches, and one hundred and twenty Sabbath-schools, the addition of eight hundred members by confession of faith, and four thousand two hundred children to Sabbath-schools, and the completion of nine church edifices and three manses. The recent opening of the Sioux reservation will invite a large influx of white population, besides giving the right of suffrage to five thousand Indians. It is said that by the next presidential election there will be twenty thousand Indian voters in the land.

The vast and rich expanse of the young State of Montana affords a noble field for Home Mission work. Good beginnings have been made, and many important points strongly occupied; but laborers and stations should be speedily multiplied. The force there of about a score of ministers should be doubled this year.

THE SOUTHWEST.

The Synod of the Pacific includes California and Nevada. The latter State is not advancing in population and prospects, and evangelistic work, though persistently pressed, finds but limited encouragement and success. The State needs four or five men. In California, the work of Home Missions, grandly successful in recent years, is retarded by some special drawbacks. The three hundred Presbyterian churches, with an average of little more than sixty members each, are mostly poor and dependent, and just now largely and specially depressed by financial embarrassment. The vast wealth of the State is mostly as yet not tributary to the kingdom of Christ. An earnest effort has been made during the past winter to widen and complete the now meagre equipment and endowment of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in San Francisco—the success of which will greatly tend to the furtherance of Home Missions on that coast, by providing what is probably the most pressing need of the work in that region to-day—a larger supply of trained and able ministers.

Texas is an empire in itself. It would cover almost six New Yorks. Most of its vast area is as fertile as a garden. It could sustain the whole population of the Union, and grow cotton enough for all the world. Its development of late years has been marvelous. Our own Synod of Texas, which ten years ago was so feeble and discouraged that the General Assembly debated the expediency of abandoning the field, has since more than doubled its membership, and is pushing its difficult work with admirable patience and courage. Our strong and zealous Synodical missionary should have his heart cheered by the speedy doubling of the thirty Home Missionaries now in that field.

Arizona is a hard and trying field. Population is sparse. Iniquity and indifference abound. Living is high, and mission work costly. And yet it will be agreed that though obstacles are great and success is slow and small, earnest evangelistic effort should not be withheld from a region where, it is said, whole settlements have had no Gospel ordinances within hundreds of miles for a dozen years. Arizona and New Mexico have just been included in the new Synod of New Mexico. In the latter Territory, the evangelistic problem is to transform into American Christians the Indians and Mexicans who now form the large majority of the people.

Last year's Report called for ten men for Oklahoma, now just one year old, and already almost entirely occupied by a large population. Congress has so recently passed the legislation necessary for its organization, that titles, values and business are not yet fully settled. But the Board has six men already appointed. The "Cherokee strip" or "outlet," between Indian Territory and Kansas, some sixty miles by two or three hundred, will probably soon be opened and populated, and form a new and large field for mission work.

THE MIDDLE WEST.

Just forty years ago the first Presbyterian church was organized in Minnesota. To-day in the twin cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis, with a joint population of over four hundred thousand, and fast growing together into one great metropolis, some forty points, churches and stations, are held, and the two Presbyterian Alliances are pushing church extension. The work of Home Missions in the whole Synod is healthful and advancing, notwithstanding the hindrances of severe drought and many removals. A score or more of churches have been organized during the year. Here is concentrated a mighty mass of the foreign peoples whose evangelization needs and demands the Church's utmost energy of effort. Of the State's one and one-half millions of people—one-third—some say more—are foreign born, and mostly foreign-speaking.

Presbyterian interests in Wisconsin have relatively lost ground for three years in comparison with those of some other denominations, for want of steady and watchful supervision. The first year's work of a new Synodical missionary has given them a fresh impulse. Like Minnesota, it has a very large foreign element, probably two-thirds of its population of one million and three-quarters, nearly one-half being German. Twenty-two men are needed at once, including three Bohemians, six Germans and three Scandinavians.

Iowa has suffered very much from depletion by removals to newer States, but our work there has been admirably managed and vigorously pressed. The south-western part is as fertile a region as the sun shines on.

Missouri has suffered through its two years' lack of a Synodical missionary. It has now a new and experienced superintendent, who is seeking out the weak places, filling the gaps, and stirring up church interests and enterprises in all the Presbyteries. Thirty more men are urgently needed. There are churches which might soon reach self-support if each could have the entire attention of a pastor. Many congregations seem too content to hold on to outside aid, and need to be aroused and instructed in the direction of self-help. The Board has a right to demand vigorous coöperation from those whom it willingly assists. A sister denomination, it is said, has disbanded fifty-three churches in the State in the last five years. Similar waste and defeat are not unknown in our own work here as elsewhere.

In Kansas, our church work has specially suffered by emigration. The population of the State, which was more than a million and a half last year, is said this year to have lost 53,000, or three and one-half per cent. There has been also partial failure of crops. And yet it is said that the State added last year a million and a half of acres to its tilled area, and has reached the first rank in the yield of wheat and corn. The sure result of this will be to increase both the need and the promise of our church work, which during the year has been persistently active and steadily successful.

In Colorado, few vacant fields are reported. The Mexican work has been going on grandly, and the schools are full. A number of men are wanted. Wyoming is soon to be a State, and will need more laborers.

The work in the noble State of Nebraska goes quietly and steadily on, with constant if not brilliant progress. Our churches there have more than doubled in the last nine years. Men are needed at a number of points.

THE SOUTH.

Last year's Report told of the beginning of our work in northern Alabama. The new Presbytery of Birmingham is gaining size and strength in spite of hindrances, the chief of which is inveterate sectional prejudice. In Tennessee the rural churches do not seem to gain much ground. Poverty and prejudice and emigration hinder progress. The young people have largely gone away. And yet these weak churches are said to be furnishing more than their proportion of missionaries and teachers, both male and female. In Kentucky the work is hard and slow, and yet is steadily maintained. Florida has hardly recovered from last season's terrible visitation of yellow fever, and the work is retarded by the poverty of the people, and interrupted by absenteeism in summer.

SYNODICAL AID.

There is not much to add this year to what was said on this topic in the Reports of last year and the year before. The plan of the Synod of New Jersey has resulted in complete success. The Synod has cared for its own dependent churches, and has given the Board more than before for outside work. The Synod of Pennsylvania has not yet been able to shoulder the full burden, and the Board has borne a share of it; but the plan is resolutely pushed, and will probably succeed in time. The Synod of New York is still further behind. Somewhat less money has been raised for Home Missions than last year; while for the support of the feeble churches in the State the Board is at this time $28.551.33 in advance to the Synodical Aid Fund. The difference between success in New Jersey and partial failure as yet in New York, may probably be found partly in the fact that in the one case the Presbyteries have earnestly set themselves to carry out what the Synod had resolved on, and in the other some of them have not done so.

The Synod of Illinois has lately inaugurated a plan of Synodical aid which its authors claim to be preferable to any of the Eastern schemes yet tried, and as the result of which the Stated Clerk writes that "already twenty churches have been lifted out of the death-throes, and put upon their feet."

NEW ENGLAND.

No new churches have been organized during the year. Those previously organized hold on their way with varying degrees of success, yet on the whole with an evident growth and gain which justifies the work. It is the Board's settled aim and policy in this region not to build up distinctively American churches, or to attract members from other denominations to our own, but to put Presbyterian church ordinances within reach of new-comers, who from training and conviction prefer them, and are for the time unable to support them unaided.

OUR FOREIGN POPULATION.

One in every seven of the population of the United States is foreign-born. One in every three is of foreign parentage. One in every six is foreign-speaking. Of foreigners, as a whole, a large majority are Romanists, including most of the Irish, Bohemians and French. Of those of foreign speech, on the contrary, a majority are Protestants—the Scandinavians, the Dutch, and three-fifths of the Germans.

The Presbyterian Church has not accomplished as much in this direction as the German, Methodist, Baptist and Congregational. But a new interest in this work has recently been developed throughout the Church. New Presbyterian churches have been organized this year among Scandinavians, Bohemians and Germans. The main difficulty is that of finding fit missionaries speaking these tongues. Our struggling German theological seminaries are doing their best, which would be much better if their scanty means were increased. Several young Bohemians are already employed, and others are preparing. A young Spanish missionary of training and experience has lately begun work among Spanish-speaking people in New York City.

City Evangelization.

The list of cities in which church extension is earnestly pressed is larger this year than ever before. The work is both difficult and costly, but promising and fruitful, and at the same time more and more necessary. The Board stands ready to respond to all its claims and calls, to the full extent of the Church's will, as shown by the means it furnishes.

Woman's Work.

This department of the Board's work is entirely school-work, under the care of the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions, among the Indians, Mormons, Mexicans and Southern mountain whites. The schools, with a few exceptions, are all in the Indian Territory, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Alaska, North Carolina and Tennessee. There are 118 schools, 368 officers and teachers in charge, and 7478 pupils. The work has cost this year $286,371.84. The present grand dimensions of the work have been reached in less than twelve years. In 1878, the Woman's Executive Committee was organized, and in the first year the income was not more than $5000. Including gifts for Freedmen, it is now $337,841.89. A great enthusiasm has been kindled; the best women of the Church have been enlisted; societies have been formed in Synods, Presbyteries, congregations and Sabbath-schools, and information has been steadily distributed. The work is hard, slow and costly. Great care is taken to select teachers well approved and accredited in regard to character, piety, experience and aptness to teach. No part of the teachers' salaries can be looked for from the field, as in the case of most Home Missionaries, so that the expenditure is relatively large. The Indians, Mormons and Mexicans are hard to win and Christianize and Americanize. Great labor is expended very successfully on the Committee's organ, the Home Mission Monthly, which is self-supporting. It is not easy in a few sentences to set forth the magnitude and multiplicity of the work of the Woman's Executive Committee. The ability, zeal and persistent energy of those who have given heart and hand to this work have won, as they have deserved, the admiration and confidence of the whole Church.

The past year has not been less marked by progress and success in this work than those preceding it. The main drawback has been that the work has outrun the means. Large as has been the income, it has not met the demands of even the cautious and limited expansion which has been ventured on. The new work has in large part been both suggested and provided for by special gifts for the purpose—as, for instance, the Oakland Institute at Asheville, N. C., the purchase money for which was entirely thus furnished.

This work has encountered serious obstacles and some disasters during the past year; and yet it may be affirmed of it in general, that it has progressed and prospered. For instance, Old Dwight Mission, in the heart of the Cherokee forest, is a centre of elevating influence among the full-bloods. After an addition which will complete the main building this year, it is proposed to fit up an old cottage for the accommodation of a dozen more girls, and a teacher to superintend them. The next important step, if the work of this mission is to be perfected, should be the addition of a building with adjacent farm for boys at some distance from the present premises, and on a higher and better site. The outlay of $10,000 for this purpose would give to the men, as well as the women, the Christian training necessary to secure well-ordered households in the next generation. In New Mexico, the Albuquerque Indian School has measurably recovered from its two fires, occupies one new brick building, and is about to add another. The school for the Pimas at Tucson, Arizona, has lately received the unqualified encomium of the Rev. Dr. Dorchester, inspector of schools in the Indian Department at Washington. Gen. Armstrong, of Hampton, not long since pronounced our Good Will Mission School among the Sisseton Sioux in South Dakota to be a model school. The Mexican training school at Santa Fé has recently occupied its fine new brick building, a picture of which may be seen in the March number of The Church at Home and Abroad. The Sitka native training school has added new buildings for boys' hospital, boys' reading room, museum, and other purposes, and still further improvements and additions in both buildings and industrial training are under way or within sight. The Collegiate Institute at Salt Lake City is probably the best school in Utah. The new Academy building at Logan, the chief town in the beautiful Cache Valley, will soon be finished. All school and mission work in Utah has received a much needed impulse and encouragement from the "Gentile" victory a year ago in Ogden, which will probably be in time the chief city of Utah, and from the recent similar success in Salt Lake City. It is the beginning of the end. It is a grand relief and reward for the devoted missionaries and teachers who have held on and held out so long and so well on that hard field. Among the mountain whites of the South, the Home Industrial School at Asheville, N. C., with one hundred and forty girls, is admirably efficient and successful; and the Oakland Institute close by it, with its splendid site, buildings and equipment, opened last autumn with the hope and promise which it needs only time and opportunity to fulfill, of fitting young women, by a higher grade of training and instruction, not only for general usefulness, but for special work as missionary teachers.

We have given only a few specimens at random from the work in this broad field. As to the new work in sight. An industrial school is in contemplation on the quarter section granted some time ago among the Kiowas and Comanches, in the Indian Territory, if the means shall be forthcoming; and the United States Government has offered the Board an appropriation for a school for the natives at Point Barrow, Alaska. the northern-most point on the continent.

The following is a summary of the school work:

The above table shows the truly national character of the work of the Board. It has congregations and missionaries in forty-four of the forty-nine States and Territories of the Union. It will be noticed that out of the 1701 missionaries enumerated and classified above, no less than one hundred and ninety-nine are at work in Southern States. Our Church is national, and not sectional, and so is its Home Mission work.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board has suffered an unusual number of losses from its force during the past year. On May 22, 1889, Rev. James P. Wilson, D.D., who had been a member of the Board since the reunion of the Presbyterian Church, was called to his rest after a brief illness, leaving in the Board and throughout the Church a deep impression of the sincerity and earnestness of his character, and of the depth of his missionary interest. As pastor of the Park Street Church of Newark, which had been organized by his effort, and of which he had been the only pastor, he had greatly endeared himself to his people as well as to the members of his Presbytery and to the whole community in which he lived. His interest in the work of the Board of Foreign Missions was cherished to the very last.

On October 26, 1889, Hon. Hooper C. Van Vorst, a Judge of the Superior Court of New York, died very suddenly, entailing a great loss upon the Board, of which he had been for a number of years a member and a legal adviser. As an elder in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, as an active laborer in Christian work, as a man of strong faith and prayer, as a safe and wise adviser, always interested in every hopeful sign of progress, he had rendered himself trusted and beloved by all the members of the Board.

On December 28, 1889, Robert Carter, a name well known throughout the Church and the country, was called to his rest at the age of eighty-two. He had been a member of the Board since 1843. He was one of the supporters of the Board from the time of its removal to New York, and its adoption by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. He had been a large contributor to the Board, as well as a safe adviser in its counsels. His gifts were also extended to every form of missionary and charitable work. Though very quiet in his bestowments, it has been a matter of surprise to many, even of his friends, to learn the aggregate of his gifts and the proportion thereof to his means. Mr. Carter was preëminently a man of prayer, in the closet, in the home, in the Board, and in the ecclesiastical meetings of the Church. His faith and spirit of supplication were elements of power in the Board and in every form of Christian enterprise.

In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly authorizing the enlargement of the Board from fifteen to twenty-one members, the following have been chosen, and their names are submitted to the General Assembly for its ratification: Joseph R. Kerr, D.D., Rev. William M. Richards, Rev. J. Balcom Shaw, Edward Wells, Esq., Alexander Maitland, John Sloane, D. W. McWilliams.

Near the commencement of the year, Mr. William Dulles, Jr., entered upon his duties as Treasurer of the Board, and his administration has been found eminently satisfactory.

During the year the Board sent Rev. Arthur Mitchell, D.D., on a tour of inspection among the missions in Japan, Korea, China, Siam and India.

The year has been marked by general health in most of the missions under the care of the Board, though there have been some sad losses. Rev. William Calderwood, of the India Mission, died May 22, 1889, after a long term of service. Rev. C. De Heer, long a faithful and successful missionary in West Africa, died October 20, 1889, at Clifton Springs, N. Y. Also Miss Addie C. Ramsay and Prof. W. T. Findley, both of whom contracted yellow fever on their passage to the United States of Colombia. Miss Ramsay died at the home of her sister in Barranquilla, and Prof. Findley upon a river boat upon which he had taken passage for his mission field—Bogota. The untimely death of these two young missionaries, just at the threshold of their field of labor, has impressed not only the mission and the Board, but the whole Church.

The total receipts of the Board during the year have been $794,066.44, distributed as follows: From churches, $291,719.86; from Woman's Boards, $280,285.57; from Sabbath-schools, $36,062.56; from legacies, $112,877.68; from miscellaneous sources, $73,120.83. The Board necessarily feels no little degree of apprehension in view of the fact that while its work must of necessity grow, and that in every direction and in every department, the contributions from the churches as such show scarcely a perceptible gain. The obstacles which prevent an increase are many—such as the limitation of resources and ability on the part of certain classes of givers, and the disposition of many to turn from the regular and systematic lines of work under the care of the Assembly to various outside objects.

The Board would renewedly express its thanks for the faithful coöperation and generous contributions of the Woman's Boards of Missions. A large number of Sabbath-schools also, whose example is worthy of universal imitation, have generously responded to its needs.

In accordance with a recommendation of the General Assembly the officers of the Board sent out a circular to the Presbyterial Standing Committees on Foreign Missions, urging the importance of more systematic methods of gathering gifts for this cause. Many churches and a few Presbyteries have adopted the plan of aiming at a fixed amount of contributions, and with good results. Several individuals are supporting each a missionary on the field.

During the year eighteen missionaries and their wives have been commissioned. Also six unmarried men and twenty-two unmarried women.

The number of communicants added to the native churches during the year is 2714, leaving a present total membership of 26,755. The number of pupils in schools of all grades is 26,348, and of Sabbath-school pupils 23,935.

The contributions gathered on the foreign fields have amounted to $44,357.

The year has been marked by some important events affecting the cause of missions, particularly the political revolution in Brazil, resulting in the establishment of a Republic with a guaranty of full religious liberty, and the adoption of a constitutional form of government in Japan, attended with some degree of reaction in regard to treaty revision and the influence of foreigners.

The year has not been one of great advances on the whole, though in some fields, particularly Japan, Laos and West Persia, there have been large ingatherings to the churches. In North China, the famine of the previous year and the great sympathy shown to thousands of sufferers by Christians of all lands has led to a very remarkable awakening of inquiry, and many hundreds are interested in the truth.

The chief element of anxiety and depression has been found in the decline in the gifts of the churches for the great work of Missions to the perishing.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Board.

* The Board, having made the fiscal year of all its Missions to accord with its own, from May 1 to May 1, remitted to some of its Missions whose year would not have ended until after May 1, 1890, less than a full twelve months' account, thus reducing the expenditures below the full appropriation for the year.

† In addition to this, the Board has required the Mission Treasurers to reduce to lowest possible limit the current balances which must be maintained in their hands for the safety of the missionaries.

This explanation will account for the two items of $50,000 and $48,326.25 noted above, but it remains true that the expenditures for the full twelve months would equal the amount appropriated, say $900,000, that the work of the Board cannot be reduced below this amount without a positive abandonment of work already undertaken, and that the Church has failed, say by $100,000, to meet the annual requirement of the work.

ABSTRACT OF THE SEVENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT.

Grateful to God for a year of enlarged work and for the cordial support of many churches and of special friends, the Board of Education respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Seventy-first Report.

The Board reorganized at the beginning of the year by the election of the Rev. George D. Baker, D.D., for President, and the Rev. James M. Crowell, D.D., for Vice-President. The Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer were continued the same as before. The Rev. John Dixon, D.D., who was appointed to fill the term of Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, resigned, felt it to be his duty, after full consideration of the subject, to decline his appointment, which he did with much regret. In October last, Elder H. W. Pitkin, a much valued member of our body who had served it faithfully for twelve years, was removed from us by death, and a resolution commemorative of his worth was adopted and put on record. The vacancies thus made have not been filled. The meetings of the Board have been for the most part well attended and the business harmoniously conducted.

The carefully prepared Report of the Assembly's Committee, of which the Rev. Dr. Morris was Chairman, and which was read at its sessions last spring, seems to have awakened the attention of our young men to the question of their duty towards the ministry, and to have secured a larger number of enlistments than ever before by its startling facts and cogent appeals. In all 913 have been recommended for aid by their Presbyteries. Of these, 332 were new cases. Out of the whole number forty-seven were declined from apprehensions of incurring too heavy a debt at the end of the year. As a general rule, preference was given to those who were intending to take a full course of study, or were already in college or in the theological seminary. Academics were received only on strong representations of their worth and need. The professors' reports have always been carefully scrutinized, and every instance of failure on the part of a student to reach a fair standing on all the topics specified has been noted and inquired into. When no satisfactory explanation has been returned, and no good promise of usefulness testified to, the case has been reported to the Presbytery recommending and the scholarship withheld.

The main disheartening fact to be mentioned is that the contributions have not increased in proportion to the number of candidates, as was hoped.

While some churches have doubled their gifts, others have lessened theirs. 3511 have sent us nothing. Many of these are marked vacant on the Assembly's roll; others have only "stated supplies" in their pulpits who do not remain long enough in charge to take the causes well in hand. Some ministers, and those, too, of large churches, decline to present our cause altogether, or even to give their people an opportunity to contribute to it, on the ground that they do not approve of the policy on which it proceeds. Others find the opposition in their sessions. From the Synodical Reports on Education we learn that the lack of due interest in this Board is chiefly owing to the neglect of ministers to set forth its importance and its needs to their congregations. There is some reason to think that this is true.

In this connection we take the liberty of pressing one point of no little moment. Inasmuch as the Boards were designed to act as the organs of the Church in its united capacity, working as one body, undertaking its enterprises and incurring obligations in reliance on "that which every joint supplieth according to the working in due measure of each several part," it seems of the utmost importance that this design should be thoroughly understood and complied with; and that all officers of the Church, especially its ministers, should act together in all loyalty for the furtherance of the common interests; and moreover that the Presbyteries, with whom is lodged the oversight, or episcopate, with us, should see that it is properly executed. When such concurrent action is lacking, the Church naturally becomes hampered in its movements, often foiled by failure in the contributions which were counted on. Plain enough is it that the Church needs more system, more concert of action, and a deeper interest in all its measures awakened throughout its entire body if it is to accomplish anything worthy of itself with that ease and readiness which becomes it. Constant prodding is annoying; but indifference to obligations assumed is, on the other hand, both discreditable and harmful when exhibited to any extent. When churches are calling aloud for more educated ministers, and young men moved by the call are offering themselves to the service on condition of being aided somewhat in their preparation for it, a very discouraging set-back is it for them to be refused the required help, and the Church suffers from vacant pulpits in consequence. A painful necessity also was it for the Board to be obliged to decline several of the applications it has had for want of funds.

THE NECESSITY UPON US.

Here another important question arises. Can the Church afford to fail in this fundamental work of supplying itself with a sufficiency of educated men to fill its pulpits, and to carry on its educational and missionary enterprises? The "Minutes" of the last Assembly report 1148 churches vacant, of which fully 400 were, judging from their numbers, important enough to command the entire services of a minister. The others are small in membership and indicate a greater or less chance for living according to the amount of nurture they may get and the size of the place they are planted in. It must be remembered, however, that a small church is not necessarily a weak one. To these vacancies must be added our average net increase of churches annually which Dr. Morris puts at 150. Last year it was 188. To meet this large demand made by our vacancies and additions it appears from the same authority that aside from the 589 ministers without charge, of whom the number that can be relied upon for steady work may be reckoned at 300, we are producing from our seminaries an annual average of only 145 graduates, to which should be added an average of 30 per annum who are classed as "extraordinary cases," that is, not regularly educated. Besides these we are drawing from other denominations at the rate of 82 annually. Last year this number swelled to 105 in the line of a steady advance. "But when we have to deduct from the total of these supplies the number that die annually which may be put at 93, it will be seen that our annual rate of increase in ministers is inadequate to meet the denominational demand." So says the Report from which we quote.

THE PARTIAL COURSE.

The question as to the extent to which the Board should countenance those who are intending to take only a partial course of study is still under consideration. While it has kept in mind the opinion of the last Assembly that it should "aid all candidates recommended by the Presbyteries, leaving it with them to determine what cases should be regarded as extrordinary," it has been constrained by a regard for its Constitution as well as by the lack of funds to make a discrimination in favor of the regular cases. The number aided that were not in full accord with our rules is sixty-three, and for these in several instances special gifts were sent.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

The number of churches contributing to the Board was 3008, a little less than half of the whole number. Special sums have also been sent in by private and unnameable friends, with expressions of interest that were very gratifying. The whole sum received from all sources amounts to $84,963.34, an excess of $4001.65 for current uses over that of the previous year. Our accounts close with a deficit of $8700.

THE NEWBERRY SCHOLARSHIP.

In September of 1888, the Board of Education had the pleasure of receiving a check for $10,000, being the amount in full due under the will of the late John S. Newberry, of Detroit, Mich. This devise had been made "for the education of young men for the ministry, to be received and held in trust by the Board for investment, and to be called the 'Newbèrry Fund,' its income to be used exclusively for the education, in some theological institution, of one young man for the time being, and from time to time, for the ministry."

This trust was gladly accepted by the Board, and because of the close relations which the testator had sustained to Lane Theological Seminary, it was resolved " that the first award of the income of said fund be given to one of the students in that institution who, upon a competitive examination between three members of the Junior Class of 1889, recommended by the faculty, should seem the best deserving of it as combining the qualifications of high Christian character, good judgment and scholarship, fitting them for special usefulness in the Gospel ministry." A committee of the Board conducted this examination, and, after a trial in all departments of collegiate study required, recommended that the Newberry Scholarship be awarded to a student in the Junior Class of that seminary who had obtained the highest number of marks on their schedule of grades. This recommendation was unanimously adopted.

One advantage resulting from such prize scholarships is that it insures the direction of the funds to the worthiest, so far as rigid examination can ascertain who is the worthiest, and furnishes to such a candidate still further the means of cultivating his fine gifts and multiplying his attainments to the utmost, and thus of qualifying himself for some eminent position, either as pastor of some important church, or as professor or president in some of our literary or theological institutions. Such men are called for more and more as the population of our country increases; and we are not raising enough of them. Might not, therefore, the example of Mr. Newberry be profitably followed by others, and the number of these prize funds be increased, to the great benefit of our Church?

CANDIDATES AIDED.

The number of candidates under care of the Board has increased from 772 to 839. They were distributed through their course of study as follows: In the theological seminaries, 357; in colleges, 406; in the preparatory department, 76.

Classified according to their nationality and race, 36 are Germans; 110 Negroes; 5 Scandinavians; 4 Bohemians; 2 Japanese; 1 Spaniard; 1 Mexican; 1 Brazilian; 5 Bulgarians; 1 Turk; 1 Syrian. The rest are American, Scotch, Irish and Dutch.

In point of scholarship, 270 are marked high; 268 medium+; 234 medium; 14 medium—; 10 low. A few of those marked below medium have been retained on special information from their instructors that their excellence in other respects warrants good hope of success in the ministry; 6 have been obliged to suspend study on account of ill health; 4 have been dropped for marked disqualifications in ability and conduct; 7 have withdrawn, having found other means of support; 36, though accepted by the Board on Presbyterial recommendations, were not reported by their professors as needing the scholarships, and, therefore, they were not paid. One promising student has been called away by death.

Those who have completed their studies at the theological seminaries, and have been graduated this spring, are as follows: From McCormick, 31; Princeton, 29; Union, 16; Lane, 11; Western, 5; Auburn, 4; Newark, 5; Lincoln, 3; Dubuque, 2 = 106.

PROSPECT OF SUPPLIES FOR THE COMING YEAR.

The graduates from Princeton number 59, an increase of 6.
" " Union " 43, " 7.
" " McCormick " 37, a decrease of 4.
" " Auburn " 18, an increase of 9.
" " Lane " 17, " 3.
" " Western " 24, " 6.
" " Danville " 0, a decrease of 2.
" " Lincoln " 8, " 10.
" " Biddle " 0, " 5.
German Theo. School at Bloomfield, 5, same as last year.
" " " Dubuque, 2, a decrease of 2.

This shows a total of 213, a happy advance on that of last year by 18. Yet it must be remembered that all these graduates are not in our connection, and cannot be counted on as for us. How many are to be deducted on this score, it is not easy to ascertain.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

The Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Fifty-second Annual Report, covering the year beginning April 1, 1889, and closing March 31, 1890.

WORK OF THE BOARD.

The Board reports, with gratitude to God, that it has had vouchsafed to it a large measure of prosperity, and it trusts of usefulness, during the year. All the departments have been prospered. The Business Department closed the year with net profits amounting to $16,943.16, which enabled it to pay over to the Missionary Fund the sum of $11,295.44. Although the sale of books and tracts was somewhat less than that of last year, the circulation of the periodicals has largely increased. The Editorial Department has been privileged to add many interesting works to the list of its publications. The Sabbath-school and Missionary Department has been signally blessed. The contributions received have been greater than in any preceding year. It was enabled not only to place a large number of student missionaries in the field last summer, but also considerably to increase its force of permanent laborers. It has been privileged to establish 1139 Sabbath-schools, from which have already been organized a large number of churches. It closes the year with a balance of $30,125.35, which will justify it in employing a larger number of student missionaries during the coming summer than it has ever yet commissioned.

THE BUSINESS RELATIONS BETWEEN THE BUSINESS AND THE SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENTS.

In the year 1882, the General Assembly adopted the following resolution of instruction, under which the Board has continued to act to the present time—the Business Department being substituted for the Publishing, and the Sabbath-school and Missionary for that of Colportage, since the reorganization in 1887:

"Resolved, That the General Assembly instructs the Board of Publication to maintain a separation as complete as practicable between the Publishing and the Colportage Departments in their business affairs, so that the relation between the two in this respect shall be the same as between the Publishing Department and any other purchaser—the terms of sale to the Colportage Department to be as favorable as those offered to any other purchaser."

As the Business Department offers to its most favored customers in this country different rates of discount on different classes of books and tracts, it was deemed expedient, in carrying out the spirit of this instruction, for the convenience of both departments in the keeping of accounts, that a uniform discount, representing the average of the various rates of discount, should be established on all purchases by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department. After careful investigation it was estimated that a uniform rate of 30 per cent would place the latter department on the footing of the most favored purchaser, and the Board determined that that rate should be established. Subsequently the discount was raised to 33⅓, at which rate it has been continued for several years. As, however, misconceptions on this subject seem to have arisen in some quarters, the Board at a recent meeting adopted the following:

"Resolved, That the rule of allowing a uniform rate of discount to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department on all purchases of books and tracts be rescinded, and that hereafter the Business Superintendent be directed to allow to said Department on purchases of all classes of books, tracts and periodicals the highest rates of discount allowed on the same classes of publications to the most favored branch houses in this country."

The adoption of the new rule, it is believed, will not materially affect the interests of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department. It is proper to add that the discount on periodicals has always been that allowed to the most favored purchasers.

SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT.

The functions of this Department are four—1. Sabbath-school extension in the destitute portions of the land. 2. The distribution of our literature by grants and by missionary sales. 3. The elevation and improvement of the Sabbath-school work of our churches. 4. The collection and presentation to the General Assembly of Sabbath-school statistics.

SABBATH-SCHOOL EXTENSION.

This is effected principally through the agency of carefully selected Sabbath-school missionaries. This work, however, is largely aided by the distribution of religious literature.

SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONARIES.

Two classes of missionaries are employed, styled respectively permanent and temporary.

Of permanent missionaries there were in commission at the beginning of the year 34. Of these 6 have been retired, and 16 have been added to the force. The number now in commission is 44. These are stationed in 24 States and Territories.

During the last summer there were sent into the field (78) seventy-eight temporary missionaries—students selected from our theological seminaries and appointed to labor during their four months' vacation. These young men labored with fidelity and success.

The total number of missionaries, permanent and temporary, in our employ during the last year was (128) one hundred and twenty-eight.

RESUMÉ OF RESULTS.

During the year our missionaries directly organized 1139 new Sabbath-schools, with a personnel of 4542 teachers and 38,836 scholars—a total of 43.378 individuals.

In addition to the foregoing, 109 schools have been organized under the offer of the Board to supply hymn-books, lesson helps, papers and Bibles to any man or woman establishing a Presbyterian Sabbath-school. It thus appears that there have been organized during the year, under the direct or indirect agency of the Board, 1248 new Sabbath-schools, having a membership of over 47,000 teachers and scholars.

Our missionaries have visited and otherwise aided 2616 Sabbath-schools. They have delivered 5889 addresses, visited 65,920 families and traveled 302,493 miles.

PERMANENCY OF THE NEW SCHOOLS.

Will these newly organized schools live? From the outset, the Department, in its instructions to its missionaries, has laid the greatest emphasis on the direction not simply to organize, but permanently to establish, Sabbath-schools. It is not easy to estimate the difficulty of carrying out this direction. In many localities it is difficult to find a man qualified to superintend a school; in many it is scarcely possible to secure a sufficient number of competent teachers. In many northern regions the country schools, on account of blockades of snow and almost impassable roads, must suspend operation during the winter. In the spring, however, most of the suspended schools are reopened.

The missionaries are instructed, wherever possible, to place the new schools under the care of some neighboring Presbyterian church, of the committee of Presbytery and of the Synodical missionary.

We have received information concerning 695 of the 831 schools directly organized by our missionaries from April 1, 1888, to April 1, 1889. Of these, 474 are still maintained; 221 of them are no longer in existence. We have also received accurate information that from the 474 living schools reported, 85 churches have already been organized.

It should also be stated that, of the 117 schools indirectly organized during that year through the offer of grants of Bibles, hymn-books, lesson helps and papers, all are alive and active.

GRANTS.

In addition to the work done by living missionaries, as above reported, this Department makes use of the printed Gospel as a method of evangelization. In the last twelve months it has distributed 73,873 volumes of Christian literature, of which 6750 were Bibles. Of volumes, the missionaries sold 7118, and gave away, other than Bibles, 46,344; and the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee made grants of 13,661. The number of pages of tracts and periodicals given away by the missionaries was 2,703,755; the number granted by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee was 9,509,257; which, together, make 12,213,012. The net value of the grants made by the Department, through its committee and its missionaries (i. e., the exact cost to the Department), was $14,246.52.

The number of Sabbath-schools assisted during the year by these grants was 1376. The number of grants of books and tracts made to churches and individuals was 446; so that the Department has made, altogether, 1822 grants during the last twelve months.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The total receipts of this Department for its current fund, during the year, were $87,508.35—of which $68,020.64 came from churches and Sabbath-schools; $3511.63 from individual contributors; $4195.28 from interest on invested funds; $485.36 from profits on sales by missionaries, and $11,295.44 from the Business Department, being two-thirds of the net profits of that Department for the year.

The total expenditures of the year were $92,201.66—an excess of $4693.31 over the receipts.

Concerning the balance on hand April 1, 1890, of $30,125.35, it may be said that at the beginning of the field operations of the summer, the balance is always greater than in the autumn and winter, and it is proper that it should be. Already 88 theological students have been commissioned for work during the coming summer. This will entail for their support and expenses, and for the equipment of the Sabbath-schools which they will organize, an expenditure of over $30,000, which will exhaust the balance.

The Trustees of the Board, during the year, have received legacies, etc., amounting to $5976.06, which will be added to the permanent funds.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

It is difficult precisely to state the amount of contributions received from Sabbath-schools on last "Children's Day," because many of them were sent in with those of the churches, and many were not separated from the annual contributions of the schools. It amounted, however, to more than $28,000. It is also worthy of record that the efforts on Children's Day, instead of lessening, increase the regular giving of the Sabbath-schools and churches.

CALLS FOR EXTENSION.

Calls for increase of workers, and the enlargement of our work, come to us from the States west of the Mississippi and the Pacific slope. In the States of the South, during the past year, there have been organized 265 Sabbath-schools. Of these, 54 were established among the colored people; 118 in the mountain region of the South, and of West Virginia, eastern Kentucky and East Tennessee.

COÖPERATION WITH OTHER BOARDS.

It has been our privilege, in the year that is past, to assist the missionaries of our Foreign Board by favorably responding to all their appeals for donations of books and other publications. To Persia, at one time, were sent 76 volumes; to Brazil, of Portuguese publications to the net value of $40.17; to Lahore, India, 35 volumes; to Yokohama, Japan, 65 volumes. Most of these were for the use of foreign colleges.

The missionaries of this Board have worked together in harmony with the missionaries of the Home Board, and they have been of mutual assistance in their labors. Sabbath-school literature has been freely supplied to all schools established by missionaries in connection with our Church.

Encouraging letters have been received from the Secretaries of the Home Mission Board, and from its Synodical Missionaries.

ELEVATION AND IMPROVEMENT OF SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

This is one of the important functions of the Department. It is carried out by the following methods:

1. Bibles for Reciting the Shorter Catechism.—The offer of a Bible to every scholar who shall perfectly recite the Shorter Catechism is continued. During the year 2716 have been awarded. The total number that has been awarded since the offer was first made is 5821.

2. Institutes, Conventions and Assemblies.—A large number of such meetings to stimulate and instruct the workers have been held in various parts of the Church.

3. Missionary Letters.—To each Sabbath-school that sends a contribution to the Missionary Fund, a Sabbath-school missionary is assigned for part support. That school receives quarterly a letter from its missionary. Three thousand schools now receive such letters.

SABBATH-SCHOOL STATISTICS.

The Department in carrying out one of its duties, viz., that of collecting and reporting to the General Assembly the Sabbath-school statistics of the churches, published in the "Minutes" of the last General Assembly a tabulated statement, as follows:

Business Department.

This Department has charge of all the property of the Board, and conducts all its business operations. Of these operations, the most important are, first, the publication (manufacture) of books, tracts and periodicals, and, secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

PUBLICATIONS.

There have been published during the year 1,136,250 books and tracts and 20,764,822 periodicals, which, together with 8150 copies of the Annual Report, make an aggregate of 21,909,222 publications for the year.

PLACING ON THE MARKET.

This work continues to be performed, as was reported last year, by advertising in the leading papers of our own and affiliated denominations throughout the country, and through the agency of the main store in Philadelphia and twenty-two depositories and branch houses, eighteen of which are in our own land, three in British America and one in England. These agencies are as follows:

Toronto, Ont., N. T. Wilson, 31 King Street West.
Troy, N. Y., Smyth & Co., 286 River Street.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, W. D. Russell, 482 Main Street.

It should also be mentioned that our periodicals are still further brought to the attention of churches and Sabbath-schools through the medium of circulars addressed to pastors and Superintendents. Our Sabbath-school missionaries also perform an important work in bringing all classes of our publications to the notice of those who dwell in missionary districts.

PERIODICALS.

Our periodicals, including the lesson helps, designed primarily for the use of Sabbath-school teachers and scholars, form one great system which is not only of inestimable benefit to the Church at large, but is remunerative to the Board. Some of these are published at a pecuniary loss; the deficiency, however, is more than counterbalanced by the gains upon the others. Lists of both these classes will be found on p. 33, in the balance sheet. The explanation of the amount of balances against one of these classes is the same as that given in preceding years—they are the accumulation of losses since the establishment of the papers. They are retained upon the balance sheet as being of the nature of investments. All these, with the exception of the German Leaf, give promise not only of reaching a paying basis, but of ultimately liquidating the charge against them. The deficit in the case of each for the year is as follows:

Westminster Primary Lessons,	$74 54
Westminster German Leaf,	492 64
Forward,	27 62
Morning Star,	115 80
Total deficit for the year,	$710 60

SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were	$106,123 86
The sales for the year in periodicals were	134,981 89
	$241,105 75

This aggregate, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received.

The aggregate includes not only the ordinary sales of the main house and of the depositories and branch houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department for grants, and for all sales by Sabbath-school missionaries.

There has been an advance in the total amount of sales upon those of last year of $10,869.07—a decrease in the sale of books and tracts of $3086.28, but an increase in the sale of periodicals of $13,955.35.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts into the treasury during the year from all sources were $337,958.94. To this should be added the balance in the treasury April 1, 1889, making a total of $422,642.71.

The entire expenditures have been $352,999.29.*

The balance in the treasury, April 1, 1890, is $69,643.42. This balance includes not only the balance belonging to the different Departments of the Board, but also the one due to The Church at Home and Abroad. The total balance belonging to the Business Department alone is $29,671.85.

NET PROFIT.

The net profits of the year have been $16,943.16.

Of this sum, two-thirds, or $11,295.44, has been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining third, or $5647.72, has been added to the capital stock.

CAPITAL STOCK.

This, at the beginning of the year, amounted to $506,481.04; it is now reported at $512,128.76. Much of what is so reported is unproductive; the working capital does not exceed $200,000 (see "Minutes," 1888, pp. 342–43).

PROFITS AND BENEVOLENT CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

If the $8000 remitted in rent to the different Boards of the Church occupying rooms in the Publication House, be added to the net profits of the year, namely, $16,943.16, the aggregate amount would be $24,943.16, or ten per cent upon an active capital of $250,000.

If the $8000 remitted be added to the $11,295.44 contributed to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department, the total amount contributed by the Business Department to the benevolent operations of the Church would aggregate $19,295.44.

THE CHURCH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

At the request of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly, the Board continues to be the publisher of this magazine. The relations of the Board to this publication are, however, different from those which it sustains to other periodicals for which it is directly responsible.

The editor of the magazine is selected by the Assembly's Committee, and he works under its general direction, as does also the Board itself, in this particular. The Board is an agent, rather than the principal, in this connection, and assumes no pecuniary responsibility in the matter.

No charge has been made by the Board for anything except actual expenditures directly on account of the magazine, and every effort has been adopted, through the machinery of the Board, to further the success of the enterprise.

* The apparent discrepancy between the preceding statements of "receipts" and "expenditures" and those given in the Treasurer's Report, page 34 ("cash received" $433,938.15; "cash paid," $364,294.73), is due to the fact that, in the Report, each of the statements is increased by the amount paid over from the Business Department to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department, viz., $11,295.44.

*ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

Twice during the year the summons from above has made a vacancy in the ranks of its Trustees.

Upon the 15th of January, Stephen H. Thayer, Esq., and upon the 9th of March, 1890, Judge Bennington F. Randolph were called from earthly work to their rest and reward. Both had been long members of the Board, Mr. Thayer having been one of the original incorporators, and Judge Randolph having been elected in 1873; and thus closely associated in its work for many years, they were veterans and leaders in its service. Both were distinguished members of the legal profession, and as trusted counselors of the Board were alike ready to give freely in its interests, their time, their strength, and their professional skill.

I. THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The applications are usually from churches in the first or second year of their existence, and thus the number received tells the story of the advance during the previous year of our missionary army.

* This abstract is necessarily as brief as possible. Details and statements in full will be found in the Report itself, which will be sent to all ministers and churches.

Early in this present year it became evident that the year preceding had been one of very great activity in missionary work, with an advance all along the line. So rapidly did the applications come in, that it seemed as if it would be impossible to find means to meet them. Although in the later months the increase was not so marked, yet the number of formal applications approved by the Presbyteries and received by the Board probably exceeds that of any previous year since the Board has been in existence.

The total number thus received was for church edifices 200 and for manses 39, and the aggregate sum asked for was $120,870 for the church buildings and $15,675 for manses, or a total of $136,545—which is $19,288 more than last year and $22,118 more than the year before. These figures indicate a steady and marked advance.

II. THE RESOURCES COMMITTED TO THE BOARD.

To meet the growing demand as indicated above, it is necessary that there should be year by year a corresponding increase in the working income of the Board.

It is, therefore. a source of satisfaction to the Board that it can report an increase in its ability to redeem the pledges that its organization involved; it wishes that it could add that the increase has been commensurate to the demand. The contributions from the churches this year have exceeded those of last year $5060.48, and those of last year were $1031.64 in advance of those of the year before, which in their turn were $3168.50 in excess of the year still preceding.

The total of the working income is materially affected in successive years by the amount received from legacies, a very variable quantity, and not to be largely accounted in forecasting the resources of a new year.

To this it may be added that the number of contributing churches is slowly increasing—the total this year being 63 greater than last year and 213 in advance of the year before.

It is evident, however, in view of the new churches added to our roll that this slight increase hardly maintains the percentage of contributing churches four years ago. Making every allowance for the large number of weak and struggling churches, many of them without pastors, which have all that they can do to maintain a name and a place upon the roll, it is, if not startling, still a subject for grave reflection, that so many congregations whom God has blessed are content to spend so much at home while they send little or nothing abroad. Many of these are churches that were themselves aided in the days of their feebleness, and who then cheerfully promised to return again what they had received.

The actual receipts which comprise the working income of the Board have been for the year ending April 1, 1890, as follows:

Contributions from churches,	$62,975 21
Individual contributions,	1,962 36
Legacies,	6,539 23
Interest from invested funds,	12,475 10

Premium on sale of U. S. Bonds,	2,200 00
Sale of Western Lands,	684 00
Return Stuart Fund advance,	420 00
		$116,895 47
Contributions to Manse Fund,	$1,454 06
Repayments to Manse Fund,	6,956 42
Interest,	173 03
Miscellaneous,	634 44
		9.217 95

III. APPROPRIATION OF RESOURCES.

The funds entrusted to the Board are placed in its hands simply for distribution, but its Report is necessarily not a mere accounting. It is not in the position of a distributing agent who has simply to see that funds reach their appointed destination. It is accountable for the wisdom with which the gifts of the Church are distributed, and unfortunately too often there is added to its responsibility the necessity of deciding who, when resources are insufficient for all, will suffer least if they are withheld.

1. Churches.—Appropriations have been made during the year for 174 church edifices, distributed among twenty-five Synods and ninety-two Presbyteries. As is to be expected, the centre of distribution geographically, like the centre of population, is each year moving westward. Yet Kansas is so large a State, so nearly central to the Union, and so attractive a field for enterprise that for the last four years the centre has vibrated within its boundaries, and the State itself has claimed until this year the largest number of grants. Yet the number assigned even to this imperial State, is slowly decreasing, fourteen this year, twenty-three last year, twenty-five and twenty-four respectively in the years next preceding.

Naming now the States that have received more than ten grants in the order indicated by the number to each, the following is the succession: Minnesota, fifteen; Kansas, fourteen; California, fourteen; Iowa, thirteen; Nebraska, twelve.

In the aggregate the appropriations for church edifices have reached $96,394, being an increase of $8420 over last year from the general fund, and a falling off of $5113 from our now nearly exhausted special fund.

Adding to this the special gifts, the number of church edifices in whose erection the Board was permitted to aid, amounted to 207, and the entire sum thus promised reached $112,051.04.

The actual payments have amounted to $107,412.92, of which $15,657.04 were gifts designated by the donors to special cases, and $1324.88 were to make good losses by fire.

2. Manses.—The fourth year since the work of the Board was extended to include manses is now completed, and the results of the new departure can be estimated with a good degree of accuracy. The first year, as was to be expected, made the largest demands upon the fund. Many churches in all parts of the country were ready and waiting for the opportunity to build homes for their ministers. In each of the three succeeding years the number of applications has been about the same, ranging from thirty to forty-two. Probably the number would be largely increased were the fund sufficient to permit the Board to encourage the hope that it could, if it approved them, respond favorably to all that might be sent. As, however, the fund is only a little over $30,000, of which hardly a third is each year available, and as the amounts needed average about $400, it is evident that the number of loans in any one year cannot much exceed twenty-five.

Applications were received during the year from thirty-nine churches asking for gifts or loans to the aggregate amount of $15,675. Some of these requests came from churches that were building houses of a more expensive character than was contemplated in the plan of the Assembly, which directs the Board to fix "such limit as will confine the work to the feebler and mission churches;" and some were from congregations that were in a position to borrow elsewhere at a low rate of interest, but thirty-one of them were to provide very modest homes for missionaries in the region west of the Mississippi, and eleven of these were from New Mexico, the Indian Territory and the Pacific slope.

In response to these applications there were made twenty-six loans aggregating $10,050, and one absolute grant of $150 to a missionary church in Arizona.

There have been repayments from sixty-four churches aggregating $6956.42, and other contributions to the amount of $1454.06. The fund stands upon the books at the close of the year as $33,207.26.

IV. RECAPITULATION.

Looking at the work as a whole, accounting appropriations, both general and special, for church edifices and manses, and payments of losses by fire, the total number of churches thus reached has been 250; and the aggregate amount pledged $122,694.35.

All of the home Synods, excepting Baltimore, are numbered upon our roll, and all of the States and Territories within the bounds of our Church. In fact, the border has been overrun, for one little church aided by a special gift, although counted in the Presbytery of Los Angeles, is in Lower California and under the Mexican flag.

The receipts from all sources available in the different departments of the work amounted to $126,113.42; and the sum of all payments, including expense of administration, was $129,473.80.

V. BUSINESS DEPARTMENTS.

There are several important departments of the work of the Board which must be carefully maintained either to protect and conserve what has been done in the past, or to extend advice and assistance aside from pecuniary aid to young churches proposing to build. These departments, although essential to its successful administration, add nothing to the income of the Board, yet they are necessarily each year demanding more time and expense in their maintenance.

1. Mortgages.—As is well known, the plan of the Assembly requires that whenever a church receives an appropriation it shall give a mortgage to the Board. The mortgage draws no interest, and is never due unless the church is dissolved or abandons its house of worship.

The mortgage is to provide against such contingency. It serves also in the case of churches that grow strong, to remind them in their prosperity of the aid they received in the days of infancy, and to suggest that they return the gift to bless some other struggling congregation. To show the practical effect it is only necessary to say that during the year $4304.79 have been received from churches that have completed their work and have been dissolved, and $7412.50 have been repaid by others out of their present prosperity.

The number of mortgages now held by the Board exceeds 3000, covering grants to the amount of over $1,500,000, and securing property valued at, at least, four times the amount, and probably very much more.

2. Insurance.—Insurance policies to nearly an equal amount with the mortgages are also held, and as these must be renewed at their expiration, their care and protection is itself a large item of business—the expense of which must be added to the outlay of the Board.

3. Architectural Plans.—Under the direction of the General Assembly, the Board has procured many designs for churches, which it is always glad to send out for the benefit of congregations contemplating building. The most of these designs are for simple and inexpensive buildings. And when a design is chosen, there can usually be furnished at a very moderate expense (little more than nominal) the drawings, including the elevations, ground plan, specifications and details for working. Such are sent, and with advantage to the smaller churches, almost every day.

VI. GENERAL OUTLOOK.

The demands of the future are likely to be fully equal to those of the past, if they do not greatly surpass them.

The Church is constantly growing, and the admission of new States to the Union and the opening of former Indian reservations to the entrance of immigrants, has given an impetus to population in those young empires which can not fail to make itself felt in increased demands upon all our missionary Boards.

But how can the Board respond unless the Church that stands behind it puts the means into its hands? It has been already shown upon a previous page that for several years the demands have outrun the resources, and that disastrous inability to give aid has only been averted because a small reserve fund has come down from previous less exhausting years. That fund is now exhausted, and the Board enters upon the new year with a treasury practically empty.

It is proper here also to state that the special fund contributed some years ago by a generous friend of the Board is now also exhausted. The fund was of inestimable value in enabling the Board to extend aid in exceptional cases, which, although well worthy of assistance, were still outside of the explicit rules given by the Assembly. The Board would esteem it a signal blessing if the knowledge of the value of such a fund should prompt its replenishment.

All of which is respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

During the past year, the Board has sustained a great loss in the death of Rev. R. D. Harper, D.D., which occurred on the 3d of January last. Dr. Harper was a member of this Board for ten years, during all of which time he bore its interests upon his heart.

THE ROLL.

The number on the roll of the Board to whom remittances were sent upon the recommendation of the Presbyteries during the year from April 1, 1889, to April 1, 1890, was 624: that is, ministers, 241; widows of ministers, 358; orphan families, 24; and one widow of a medical missionary placed upon our roll according to the directions of the last General Assembly. The number of families provided for during the year at the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, N. J., was 18, making upon the roll of the Board during the past year a total of 642 families, an increase of 27 over last year.

*Died January 3, 1890.

The Presbyterial recommendations in their behalf came from 159 Presbyteries. Besides several withdrawals from the roll, owing to a change in pecuniary circumstances or restored health, which has rendered further aid from the Board no longer necessary, forty-four names have been removed from our roll by death—that is, twenty-six ministers and eighteen widows. There have been seventy-seven families added to the roll during the year; that is, forty-one ministers, thirty-five widows, and one orphan family.

THE MINISTERS' HOUSE AT PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

The number of families at the Ministers' House has been eighteen—in all twenty-one persons. For further information respecting this Home for the sick and aged servants of the Church the Board refers the Assembly to its previous Reports, and especially to the extended notice which appeared in the Church at Home and Abroad for last May. This account, containing also a picture of the Home, has been reprinted, and copies will be sent to any one who may apply, in person or by letter, to the office of the Board.

LEGACIES.

The Permanent Fund of the Board (see page 18 of the Report) has been largely increased during the past year by legacies. The total of bequests ($80,024) received during the year (all of which, unless the legatee directs otherwise, is placed in our Permanent Fund) is larger than the whole amount received by the Board from legacies for the last eight years. No doubt some of God's people have been influenced to remember this Board in their wills from the general interest in our work awakened during the centennial year, when many new friends were won to this cause, and this will account for some of the bequests received during the past year. More will doubtless follow. But among those whose names appear on page 18, from whom legacies have been received during the past year, there were some who, for many years, have shown their interest in the work of this Board by large gifts sent annually to our treasury. Our income will therefore not be so largely increased as this great addition to our Permanent Fund would suggest—unless indeed the places of these annual contributors, who have passed away to their reward on high, are taken by new friends of the cause whose special gifts to the treasury year by year will replace those that have now ceased.

THE TREASURY.

The past year has been exceptional in the history of the Board in one respect—our funds for current use have been sufficient to meet the demands upon our treasury without any special appeal to the churches, either through circulars or the columns of the press. But this, it must be added, is due to the large addition ($15,575) to our income from the Centenary Fund; for the appropriations last year were $18,732 more than in the year previous, while the contributions from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals, as will be seen from the comparative table given below, fell off $3176! It should also be noted that we began the year with $18,388 in the treasury—reduced, as was said in a foot-note to the last Report, to $639.80 by the payment of the appropriations for April and May.* This year we begin with a balance of only $15,263. We have, therefore, employed in

---

*This year the situation (after the payments made for these two months since the books were closed) is far worse. At our last meeting, May 2, not only was our balance of $15,263 entirely used up, but our treasury was short nearly $7000 of the amount needed to pay the appropriations voted at this meeting.

the expenditures of the year, besides the current contributions and the interest from the Permanent Fund, more than three thousand dollars of the receipts of the previous year.

This announcement will be read with sorrow by those who are interested in this cause, and who are impressed with the sacred duty the Church owes to it. They will justly regard as a calamity to the Church any endowment of the Board that releases God's people from annually contributing to its support.

Pastors and elders need therefore to remind the people that their efforts in the centennial year will result in harm both to the Church and to this cause should there follow any diminution of their personal interest in this work. The General Assembly has, year after year, recorded its conviction that at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars should be annually contributed for the use of this Board. Last year, the contributions from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals amounted to $105,369—a very little more than two-thirds of the amount named by the Assembly when the number of those upon our roll was but little over half the number we report now! The year before last, these contributions amounted to $108,586; the year before that (which was the Centennial year) to $110,736. This steady falling off in the annual contributions suggests the question whether the elders are really giving to the pastors the active aid on behalf of this Board which, all over the Church, they have so cordially tendered? The Board makes an earnest appeal to them to adopt measures to arrest this steady decline. If the eldership of our Church will move vigorously in the spirit of the action taken by them at the General Assembly of 1885 at Cincinnati, and repeated at successive Assemblies and at meetings of Synods and Presbyteries all over the land, there will surely be an increase, rather than a falling off, in the annual contributions to this Board; and we beg leave to call their attention to the action inaugurated by the Presbytery of Lackawanna with a view of giving greater efficiency to the work of the elders in behalf of this Board. (It is appended to the Report, page 14.)

THE NEW RULE OF THE ASSEMBLY.

The last Assembly ordered a change in the methods of the Board's administration with reference to honorably retired ministers over seventy years of age who may have served the Presbyterian Church, on mission fields or in the pastorate, for a period in the aggregate of thirty years. Such a minister under the new rule has only to certify once for all these facts to Presbytery for record upon its minutes, and the Board upon being officially notified of this record is directed to pay the veteran such an annual amount as he may need from the Board for his support—not exceeding $300.

This important action was not hastily taken. The subject was introduced in the previous Assembly (Philadelphia) by an Overture from the Presbytery of New Brunswick (see The Church at Home and Abroad, for June, 1888), requesting the appointment of a Committee, to devise some plan by which the honorably retired ministers who have served the Church for a long period, may draw from our treasury an annual sum for their support without being under the necessity of having their application for aid "renewed" by Presbytery year by year.

* This includes $15,575.51 interest from the Centenary Fund.

This Overture was referred to the Assembly's Standing Committee upon Ministerial Relief, Governor Beaver, Chairman, which recommended "that the subject matter of said Overture be referred to a special Committee of seven, of which the Secretary of the Board of Relief and one member of said Board, to be chosen by the Board itself, shall be members; the other five members of which shall be appointed by the Moderator, with instructions to report upon the whole question involved in said Overture at the meeting of the next General Assembly."

This recommendation was adopted by the Assembly, and the Moderator appointed as Chairman of this Committee Rev. John Dixon, D.D., pastor of the First Church, Trenton, N. J., with whom the Overture originated, and who brought to the consideration of the whole subject the results of wise and careful study. The other members appointed by the Moderator were: Ministers—D. R. Frazer, D.D., and Henry VanDyke, D.D.; Elders—Ezra M. Kingsley and Charles D. Morris. The Board appointed its President, Elder George Junkin. These brethren, with the Secretary of the Board as provided for by the resolution of the Assembly, constituted the Committee which held several meetings during the year, and recommended the following action, which was unanimously adopted by the Assembly:

"Every honorably retired minister over seventy years of age, who is in need, and who has served our Church as a missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or as pastor or stated supply for a period in the aggregate not less than thirty years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support without the necessity of being annually recommended therefor by the Presbytery. When such a minister shall certify to the Presbytery the fact and amount of his need, not exceeding $300 per annum, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to forward the application to the Board, with his endorsement thereon as to the years of service such minister has rendered, his field or fields of labor, with the term of service in each, and to report the same to Presbytery for record on its minutes. It shall then be the duty of the Board to pay such annual amount so long as the applicant shall live, unless otherwise directed by the Presbytery or the applicant himself, in view of a change in his circumstances that may make the appropriation in whole or in part no longer necessary."

This new rule, it need scarcely be said, renders more dignified and independent the position of many worn-out pastors and missionaries already upon our roll; and nineteen of these aged men have applied, during the past year, to be placed upon the new list.

These faithful men, worn out in the sacred office, and whose life-long services to our Church as pastors and missionaries are now a matter of honorable record in the Presbytery, are saved from the humiliation of appearing before their brethren year by year, with the pitiful story of their want, in order to secure a "recommendation" for aid from this Board. They are also saved from the embarrassing and painful delays in receiving their appropriations from the Board, as too frequently happens, owing to the failure through some mishap or other of their annual "renewals" to be promptly laid before the Board by the proper authorities.

Seven other honorably retired ministers, who had previously hesitated to avail themselves of the provision made by the Church for the support of its worn-out ministers, had the record of their pastoral and missionary services placed upon the minutes of the Presbytery, and their names were entered upon our new roll. It was well understood that the action of the Assembly would add a few more names to those already upon our roll. But the Board is persuaded that the Church will rejoice in the duty, as also in the privilege, of supplying the "need" of every one of its ministers who is over seventy years of age, and who is honorably retired by the Presbytery from the active duties of his sacred calling after serving the Presbyterian Church for thirty years as a pastor or missionary. And God's people will further rejoice that the veteran has been assured by this special and emphatic deliverance of the Church that "he is entitled by such service" to have his "need" removed; and that when all the facts of his long and honored service are, once for all, a matter of record in his Presbytery, he can depend upon receiving from this Board, his modest remittance for the few remaining years of his life, promptly and regularly, without the annual "renewal" by Presbytery.

The oldest of these ministers, placed upon the new "Roll of Honor," is in his ninety-fourth year. Eight are past four-score. The average age is seventy-eight, and the average number of years spent in the ministry forty-four. Nearly all of them have certified to Presbytery that they need from the Board for their support three hundred dollars—the limit of the amount fixed by the Assembly and which is the maximum appropriation made by the Board. Four asked for $200 and one for $150; and the entire sum paid by our great and wealthy Church to these twenty-six veterans during the year, amounts to only $7250—exactly three-fourths of the annuity paid to each of the judges of our Supreme Court, upon his retirement from active duties at the age of seventy.

The Board cannot but feel that they express the opinion of the whole Church when they record their gratification at this advanced step taken by the Assembly on behalf of these aged wards of the Church; and also in expressing the hope that, with the increasing interest manifested in this sacred cause throughout the Church and a more intelligent appreciation of the duty of the people to the ministry, a better provision can be made for these veterans and for all who are upon the roll of the Board. But a little study of the Treasurer's Report for last year will show that God's people must greatly enlarge their contributions to this cause before any advance can be made in the appropriations of the Board. For, notwithstanding the large amount of interest received from the Permanent Fund, had we begun the year with no money in our treasury, we should have ended it with a debt of $3125! In other words, the whole income of the Board for the year just closed—contributions from all sources and the interest from the Permanent Fund—was three thousand dollars less than the sum needed to carry on the work of the year, even upon the scale of the present small appropriations!

This fact should be clearly stated by all pastors to their people, and it should be a stimulus to the elders in supplementing the appeals of the pastor by personal solicitations throughout the congregation.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

WILLIAM C. CATTELL, Corresponding Secretary.

Abstract of the Twenty-fifth Annual Report.

Twenty-five years ago we had not a church or school among the Freedmen, not one educated colored preacher or teacher. To-day finds us with 245 churches, 78 schools, 117 colored preachers and 133 colored teachers. These churches and schools are now reaching not less than half a million of the Freedmen with their elevating and Christianizing influences.

From 1870 to 1890 there were added to the colored churches under the Board 22,253 persons on profession of their faith, and 4268 by certificate, making a total of 26,531. The reports for the first five years do not afford definite information on the points just referred to, but at the close of 1869 they report 5634 members as belonging to the churches, so that during the twenty-five years just ended, not less than 32,165 persons have been brought into the churches under the Board.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

This has certainly been most gratifying and in some regards the most prosperous year in the Board's history. The receipts of the Board during the year, as will be seen from the Treasurer's report, amount to $176,325.60, against $134,450.88 from the same sources last year, a gain of $41,874.72. It is gratifying to record also that the Freedmen have given $30,464.21 towards the support of their own churches and schools. Add to this the sum they have paid for scholarships in Scotia Seminary, $4961, and in Mary Allen Seminary, $2784, and we find they have given $40,209.21 towards self-support. These last-mentioned sums are not included in the receipts of the Board.

We have sustained in the field during the year 316 missionaries, of whom 252 are colored, an increase of 26 over last year. The following table will show the work of the year in detail:

TREASURER'S ADDRESS, P. O. Box 294, Chicago, Ill.

ABSTRACT OF SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

With the presentation of this report this Board ends its seventh year. This it does with the same officers and with a majority of the same members with whom its work began. Only two of its members have been removed by death; one of these, Rev. Dr. John F. Kendall, of La Porte, Ind., having died within the year just closing. During his brief relation to the Board he had shown such punctual and intelligent interest in its work that the loss of his counsels is as much regretted as of most welcome companionship. In other particulars this last year has added so much to the evidence of that divine favor which the Board has enjoyed from the beginning, that it may fairly be considered to have completed the first stage of its history. This report, therefore, may very properly make some record of the chief features of this advance, and of the point which it has reached.

1. REVIEW.

I. PRINCIPLES.

The principles of the Board's work were plainly announced in its organization. It was to be the agent of the Church in planting and establishing her truly necessary schools of Christian learning in those right places where they could not be expected to be so established by other agencies.

Within the needy field so specifically committed to it, the Board has, from the first, aimed at two classes of results: The early supply of Christian education to the youth already waiting to receive it, and the solid establishment of institutions that may continue the supply to all future generations. These two aims have never been separated. No school has been opened that was not thought to have the prospect of permanence and ultimate strength.

In order to such prospect, two conditions have been held to be indispensable: The right location, and an outlook to an adequate property. Of the property, one very important element (namely, the land) has been, in most cases, comparatively easy to secure. Indeed, the abundance of land within the Board's special field, and the obvious local motives for offering it, have created one of the Board's chief duties—of deciding what offers to approve, and what to discourage. No feature of the Board's work has been more marked or more constant than its effectual repression of local undertakings which it saw to be either needless or hopeless, and, therefore, without claim to the Presbyterial help which they would be sure to demand. The sum which, during these seven years, has been given by churches and individuals to the Board's work, can be reckoned exactly. But the sum of the saving which the Board has effected, both for churches and for individuals, by preventing seven campaigns of very earnest and persuasive, but wasteful, canvassing for abortive schools, cannot be reckoned.

Consideration should also be given to the practical value of those decisions of the Board under which the preferred offers have been seized and put to use. By such decisions, mere proposals, which would have melted into air, have been turned into valuable properties.

But local provision thus made for property has gone but a short way toward establishing a school. The Board has had to cope with a list of remaining necessities.

II. POINTS OF DIFFICULTY.

The very provision of property has in many cases been so incomplete that new expense has immediately grown up on that account. Few of the larger properties, especially, have come into being so complete and so completely provided for that they have not been encumbered to some degree. Thus, from the first, the Board has had to deal with debts and interest.

Its direct and constant work, however, has been to contribute to the support of the schools, and especially to the salaries of their teachers. Though their salaries have, for the most part, been very small, income from tuition fees has been quite insufficient for meeting them. Just at that point, according to the theory, the Board was to come in with its yearly appropriation, which, together with friendly local subscriptions, was to square the year's account. In very few cases was the theory met by the fact. The new Board's income was so far short of the aggregate demand made upon it, that, with many of the new schools especially, the year almost certainly ended with a deficit.

There have been two ways in which these debts, whether on property account or on account of current work, have embarrassed the Board and limited its success.

1. They have lessened materially the serviceableness of those contributions which the Church has yearly been making to the teaching work; for every dollar paid out as interest money has been a dollar out of some teacher's pocket. Even if the particular institution that paid the interest paid its own teachers in full, the money which it took from the Board on interest account was so much taken from the general supply, which at the best was too small for its legitimate office of supporting school work.

2. This payment of interest, therefore, has been steadily creating new debt, namely, in those unpaid claims of teachers which were growing up while the sterner claim of a note or a mortgage was asserting its precedence. Meanwhile, in many cases, yearly interest has no more been paid than the yearly salaries; and in those cases, crisis has come, in which the Board has been required to do its most anxious and difficult work—of securing personal benefactions, of large amount, for the rescue of the endangered properties. In some cases, such crisis has been reached under the pressure of property debts only.

III. OFFSETS.

These sombre details are to be offset by such facts as these:

The Trustees that have been liberal in their estimate of yearly outlay have, in most cases, only been carrying out a scheme of liberality which they have personally put to practice, first in producing their college property, and afterwards in coöperating for saving it. The rate of outlay which has proved beyond their means has generally been moderate enough when compared with the teaching ability on which it has been expended, and with the outlay of other institutions of like grade. Every rescued property has been valuable enough to reward all effort and liberality expended in saving it. In most cases the local outlay upon such property has been far greater than the total of contribution brought to it by means of the Board.

2. MEANS AND RESULTS.

Some knowledge of all the foregoing facts is necessary to any just comparison of the means which the Board has handled with the results that have been reached.

The Board's means have been of two sorts: Money which it has received into its general treasury, and chiefly from church collections, to be expended in yearly appropriations on teaching work; and money which personal givers have committed to it, sometimes in large amounts, to be applied to the increase or relief of the school properties.

I. GENERAL TREASURY AND ITS APPROPRIATIONS.

The giving to its general treasury was naturally moderate at first. But it increased with great regularity until the notable advance of the present year was made. The number of contributing churches which stood in the Board's first year at 480, reaches in its seventh 2030.

From this general treasury the Board made distribution in its first year of $10,984, which it appropriated among nine institutions.

Distributed in the second year,	$13,410
" " third "	23,962
" " fourth "	23,248
" " fifth "	25,847
" " sixth "	27,945
" " seventh "	41,900

This last distribution is made to thirty-five institutions (see the following table), of which twenty-seven are substantially new, since those that are not new in fact have begun the kind of work which entitles them to the Board's assistance either with or after the organization of the Board.

Of the large addition thus made to the roll of aided schools, by far the greater part dates from the Board's third and fourth years. Its policy has been to establish the institutions with which it has charged itself, rather than to increase its charge beyond the Church's readiness to provide for it.

II. PERSONAL GIVERS AND PROPERTY.

The means supplied by individuals for the relief or increase of school properties have been given in different ways: Sometimes directly to the institution, with the understanding, however, that the gift was to be reported to the Board, and to receive its acknowledgment. In the Board's first year gifts of this sort were reported to the amount of $13,603. The total of this sort of giving for the seven years has been $116,738. Other gifts to special institutions have been made through the Board's treasury. Such giving began in the Board's second year, to the amount of $19,000. The actual payments of this kind that have been made this year aggregate $34,235.62. The total of the Board's receipts for this purpose, from the beginning, has been $100,640.

III. PRESENT STATISTICS.

Some idea of the results that have been reached will be gained from the statistical tables (for which see annual report, only totals are here given). It must be borne in mind, however, that any material change in the list of aided institutions must make proportionate change in the tables and their footings. Thus, while the absence of the name of Park College, of Lenox, and of Carroll, indicates no arrest of these institutions' work, and therefore no loss of any outlay made by the Board upon them, the Board's show of totals is immediately lessened by the lack of their reports. That change leaves on the Board's roll but four colleges and four academies that may not properly be called new.

8. FUTURE POLICY.

The Board believes that the Church will look upon this showing with the same feeling of encouragement with which it is made; and it believes, as well, that one chief element of that encouragement will be the suggestion that must have come to every interested reader, of a great improvement to be made upon the Board's past methods. Has it not reached a stage of strength at which the element of debt, however unmanageable at first, can be early eliminated from its work, and thenceforth effectually excluded? As a Board, indeed, it has never carried over a dollar of deficit to a new year. But the foregoing pages show that it cannot present a similar balance on the books of all of its aided institutions. Yet it now sets out to prove, by recent notable advance towards that result, that it can be reached with little difficulty, and at an early day.

I. PAYMENT OF ALL EXISTING DEBTS.

The facts which look to the clearing up of all existing debts are such as these: Leaving aside three institutions which have this year come upon the Board's list, the remaining 32 have, within the last two years, been carrying among them an aggregate indebtedness of nearly $250,000. Of this gross amount, about $100,000 has, within two years, either been cleared off by payment actually made, or has been so provided for that the Board counts the early payment quite assured. Thus the total of debts on the 32 institutions now stands practically reduced to $150,000. But further movement is already making, looking less definitely but hopefully to the extinguishment of $50,000 of this remainder. The policy of the Board is to stimulate local self-help by the offer of conditional assistance from the "property fund," which individual contributors put at its disposal for that purpose. There is good reason for believing that the success which is so largely attending that process will soon be complete.

II. BALANCED CURRENT ACCOUNTS.

But the Board's best assurance that it will secure the clearing off of old debts lies in its hope, which it has this year substantially tested, of preventing the most insidious class of new ones—namely, those which result from unbalanced yearly accounts. (See in Annual Report recital of an arrangement successfully carried out between Board, Trustees and teachers.)

Such a recital shows, on its face, some things that cannot be incorporated into a standing method. Very plainly, the Board's yearly financial arrangements are to be made with Trustees, and not at all with their teachers. If, then, the Board shall henceforth inform the several institutions, at the end of each scholastic year, what aid they may severally expect for the scholastic year following, it may properly leave with the boards of trustees the responsibility of so arranging their contracts that the balance between outgoes and income shall be assured. To this end, the Board should promise to pay its entire appropriation, and not a percentage of it; with the understanding, however, that, in order to receive payment of the first half of it, the Trustees should present to the Board such an itemized schedule of contemplated income and outgoes as would show that the Board's promised aid would effect the desired balance between the two; and that, in order to receive the last half, they should afterwards present, certified by vote of the Trustees, at their annual meeting at the close of the scholastic year, an itemized balance sheet, showing that, with the exception of such outstanding bills as the Board's final payment would be sufficient to meet, all bills of the year had actually been paid, and accompanied with the Trustees' pledge that the remaining bills should be paid so soon as the expected remittance of the Board should be received. The question whether or not an arrangement so rigid would carry with it discouragement to the institutions and hardship to their teachers, is simply the question whether or not the Church will put the Board in funds for developing the schools which she shall know to be economically managed.

III. NO DEBT ON NEW PROPERTIES.

If any such provision can be made against deficit in current accounts, should it not be supplemented with some provision against the creation of debts for property? Will it be wise to stop small leaks and to pay no regard to large ones? The Board, without claiming to have reached any unchangeable conclusion on this grave matter, believes that, from this time forward, it should be able to do for any new school properties which are to come upon its list, just what the Board of Church Erection does for church properties. It should encourage such local foresight and liberality as truly deserve its coöperation, by giving help enough to allow their school work to start in a property that is paid for.

It is easy to foresee strenuous objections to this policy. Yet, after carefully weighing the question in all its aspects, the Board is persuaded that when exclusion of debt from the start shall be understood to be the Church's rule for all new institutions, this whole work will take on a reputation for solid advance which will more than compensate for any incidental evils of restriction or delay. Only let a proper proportion of our Church's wealth be put at the disposal of a Board which at all represents our Church's caution and steadiness, and as many schools of every grade as the Church will ever develop and endow can be begun and carried on without debt.

4. The Outlook.

No former year has compared with this in the amount of means put into our hands. To that increase of church collections that has been noticed on a former page, is to be added the larger increase received from personal gifts and from legacies. These forms of income all combined, our treasury which in our first year received less than $15,000, this year reports nearly $100,000. Our second week of years thus starts from a point quite different from the zero of seven years ago.

And larger than this difference in mere finances is the difference of regard by which the Church now looks upon a living cause which she has identified with her largest purposes for the nation and the world. The numbers directly taught in denominational schools and colleges will always be small in comparison with the numbers that receive education from the State. Hence the immense importance of the question, What can be done for keeping the influence of the State school from becoming unfriendly to the Christian religion? Any hopeful answer must point, not only to Christian schools and their alumni, but to the whole practical outcome of their work. That outcome will include particulars like these: A demonstration of the comparative moral and religious influence of distinctively Christian education; the production, in every region, of a good proportion of Christian scholars who will do their share of the teaching work of the next generation; the maintenance of a perpetual reminder to the secular schools that the eye of the Christian part of their community is kept upon the demeanor of their teachers towards the fundamental Christian facts. In proportion as the Christian schools gain in means and reputation, these effects may be expected to grow till infidel teaching in the public schools shall be impossible. Directly to that end is tending all that interest in Christian education, which, advancing with our Christian people into every newest region, forms a part of the common thought of pioneer congregations, Presbyteries and Synods. There is to be an immense education of our forming communities on this great matter. Good beginning of it is already made; but to carry it on, this Board of the great contributing Church must be the teacher.

For insuring to our Church and nation a complete provision of Christian schools with their best results, this Board has full confidence, under God, in the following rules:

1. Plant them only where they are needed.
2. Support them, not lavishly, but adequately, from the start.
3. Keep trustees, teachers, Board, and the whole contributing Church assured that there is to be no waste and discouragement by debt.
4. Secure every investment of church means by lien held by the Church's Board.
5. Concentrate upon this movement the giving of the entire Church, to the rejection of all appeals from schools or communities that evade these reasonable terms.

The past seven years have left no room for doubting the success of such a policy. The steady increase of the Church's interest in this cause, and especially the increase of those personal benefactions from which it must receive its chief supply, pledges for it such a growing record as shall befit this momentous and unreturning epoch in American things. What an executor writes concerning the giver of a recent unexpected legacy of $5000 will be said, in effect, of many more: "She found her thoughts turning to the destitute regions of the West and South." Mrs. McCormick's act of relieving and establishing Hastings College by her gift of $15,000 will be so approved by its manifest results that it will find many imitators. And Mr. Thaw's munificent legacy of $50,000 is to stand as such an attestation of a sagacious man's sympathy and confidence as might well have encouraged our hopes, even if we had been near to despair. But our hopes have been constantly encouraged; and this succession of great and hearty benefactions coming within a single year brings, not relief, but inspiration.

Respectfully submitted by order of the Board.

ABSTRACT OF ELEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence respectfully presents its Eleventh Annual Report, traversing the first year of a new decade in this work. We are thankful that our numbers are intact, that no record need be made, as so sadly in these recent years, of members removed by death.

A few years ago, the immense practical truth that God was to be worshiped by the offerings of his people, was only here and there accepted, with a few sporadic applications to practice.

Systematic giving was making some advance under special appeals from straitened Boards. The proportionate consecration of every Christian's income, as God has prospered him, was seen by some eyes to be Biblical, yet slenderly accepted in practice, and never vigorously enjoined by the Church, in practical modes of operation. Now, all three of these grand basic foundations of Christian beneficence are established in our Constitution, by deliberate action of the Presbyteries.

The new Chapter vi, in our Directory for Worship, is constantly aiding us, as we anticipated, in the efforts we have had in hand. The varied advantages and the flexible adaptation of the system of weekly worshipful giving, there commended, are pressing it upon the churches' mind with frequent successful adoption. Yet, in some Presbyteries, not a single church has turned into line as yet.

The latest efforts and most careful studies of your Committee for the past year have been expended upon the problem of Proportionate Giving, as the best individual rule of Christian giving and of financial policy for the Church. Our reports have for years indicated our conviction, which is in no wise weakened by lapse of time, or watchfulness of observation—that the great benevolent advances of our Church in time to come must largely run along that line. Very few Synodical or Presbyterial resolutions on the subject of Beneficence have come to our notice, where the matter of proportionate giving, as the rule for Christian life, is not prominently set forth, and none where it is in any way antagonized.

A year ago, your Committee asked the patient, judicious consideration of the Church in regard to a scheme upon which we were then just entering, viz., by a "Presbyterian Union of Proportionate Givers," on a severely simple plan, without expense or organization, for the purpose of encouraging and uniting persons who are beginning, or have already formed the habit of setting aside a definite percentage of income for religious and charitable purposes, and of enlisting their coöperation in the extension of this practice. For the purpose of economy and for comparison of results, we have employed this method tentatively in some Synods, and not in others, distributing a prospectus and simple pledge—our Document 28—to the number of about 40,000, by a plan for reaching individuals in each church supplied, and providing a method of knowing its results, through a return coupon to be sent back to us. In this endeavor we have been well aided by one of the members of our Committee, who has supplemented this general effort by disseminating large numbers of an identical document into many quarters not hitherto reached by our endeavor. The result of this effort has convinced us of its great utility.

Judging from the results of this investigation, by the returns made to your Committee during the year, in the field thus far traversed, about one in ten of our ministers, and not more than one in eighty of our Church members, have yet adopted any such definite rule of proportionate giving, as would insure to the cause of Christ any distinct and regular share whatever, of the means wherewith the Lord has prospered them. But so encouraging appears to be the local influence exerted, and so prompt and decided have been the favoring resolutions adopted by many Presbyteries and Synods, even thus early, in regard to this "Proportionate Givers' Union," that we should deem it the policy of your Committee, however constituted in future, to continue throughout the whole Church an effort, which, even in partial application, has showed itself so searching and stimulative in the wisest lines of our endeavor. We have tried to discover how the good seed was springing, how these principles were working—so novel, so untried, so unpopular, as yet.

We are happy to perceive that very many churches are adapting the pledges and the various literature issued by your Committee, to publications for their own local use.

Again, we acknowledge gratefully, the inestimable aid given in our effort by the Committeemen of Presbyteries and Synods.

The growing practice is greatly to be commended among our judicatories, of publishing their Beneficence Reports for general circulation, statedly reminding Sessions of their standing in benevolent gifts, inquiring as to their methods and ability, informing them of what the rest are doing. So kindling quickened interest and urging them to improve upon themselves. Such active supervision pays. Presbyteries and pastors could do wonders, if they would, in starting non-contributors and spurring up the laggards.

We look with favor upon the plans now partially in vogue in some Presbyteries and Synods, of wisely apportioning among the bodies represented, the sums needed for the work in hand. It might be wise for the General Assembly to make such a move itself, apportioning the minimum amount needed for our Church Boards among the Synods, and they among the Presbyteries, and so on, until the individual churches are all reached. Synodical Sustentation has been successfully carried forward by just such a method in the State of New Jersey. Still, back of any such assessment would be the question as to best methods of reaching it from the individual. All our plans of systematic, proportionate giving would still press as cogently as ever.

Your Committee has always publications in print, which are suggestive and useful to pastors and churches in reference to best methods and principles of giving. These documents we are glad to send gratis and postage paid, to any applicant who will faithfully use them.

Complaints still reach us that are deep, if not loud, as to irregular and independent canvassing of our churches, through various appeals for aid. Sometimes these applications are endorsed by officers of our Boards. If successful, injustice is done through partiality and the general work is so far crippled. It would seem to promise gain, if some just and wise method could be devised by the Assembly of lessening these special appeals; while securing every possible increase for the treasury of the particular Board, whose province it should be to deal with such cases.

It is one part of the duty of your Committee, each year, to present, in comparative tabulation, the financial statistics of our Boards.

The picture presented to a careful examination is calculated to impress anew upon the Church, both our splendid ability and our sorry lack. Instead of the constant advance that should be expected from the living, growing body, we find a decrease in those receipts which testify most surely, the Church's vital beneficence.

Here appears a net increase of only $27,162 in receipts of our combined agencies, from all sources. This shows a smaller gain than for many years past. Yet, in all fairness, there should be added to this the sum of $77,263, which was included in the Foreign Board's receipts of a year ago, as taken temporarily, for current expenses, from reserved funds. This amount has been reinvested now, and disappears from the current statistics of this year. So that the total gain is really $104,425. This will also render partial explanation of the immense comparative decrease in the year's entire receipts of the Foreign Board. With this correction made, the deficit is large enough—no less than $61,564.

The large gains for Freedmen and College Aid are the more encouraging since they obtain also in the gifts of churches and individuals. In Church Erection, payments on Mortgages and Manse Loans, to the amount of $14,368, are included under the head of total receipts.

In Ministerial Relief, the above statement does not include any part of the Centenary Fund. All the gain in total receipts is for permanent investment, of which only the interest is used. The large increase of $79,438, arises entirely from legacies, which furnished $65,409 in excess of last year. The other Boards have received from legacies as follows: Home Missions, $187,173; Foreign Missions, $112,877; Education, $16,932; Church Erection, $6539; Freedmen, $40,030; Aid for Colleges, $15,550.

Here is a most suggestive net decrease of $17,808. In Home Missions, while the women and children have increased in systematic giving, as they always do, the men of the churches have fallen off this year, to the extent of $19,814, in their support of this important cause. The embarrassing fluctuations caused by our more prevalent methods of Church contribution, are illustrated by the fact that while, on February 1, the receipts of the Home Mission Board were $97,000 in advance of the same date in 1889, in February, 1890, the receipts fell off $10,000, and in March, $85,000, as compared with the same months last year. The Board comes to the Assembly with a debt of $80,000.

In this table, Foreign Missions have received $26,045 less than last year—and report a debt of $60,275.

Freedmen also have a debt of $11,000, with balance of $4809, and Education reports a debt of $8700, with small balance. The debts of the Boards amount, altogether, to $159,975. Balances, without debt, are reported by Relief, $15,263; College Aid, $11,706, and Temperance, $409. Women's Societies have nobly swelled the amount credited to churches by their increased gifts of $286,627 for Home Missions—not including the value of boxes provided—$280,285 for Foreign Missions, and $26,117 for Freedmen. Sabbath-schools have aided to the extent of $34,319 for the Home Board, $36,062 for the Foreign, $2039 for Relief, and $31,264 for Publication and Sunday-school work.

A net increase of 1103 contributions.

In Home Missions the advance in contributing churches covers the last two years, from 1888, since the Board gave us no report under this table last year.

We again take pleasure in acknowledging another gift of $100 for your Committee, from Alexander Guy, Esq., of Oxford, Ohio, reducing to that extent our draft upon the Assembly.

ABSTRACT OF THE NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

It is with unexpected joy and satisfaction that the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance reports the work done and the general results attained during the past year. Indeed there seems to have been a steady, healthful and most hopeful advance made along the whole line, indicating a growing conviction on the part of our very best citizens that the iniquitous liquor traffic must by some means or other be brought to an end.

In order to test the feeling of the Church in regard to this matter, your Committee sent out a circular containing three points of inquiry. The first was in regard to methods of work and the efficiency with which they were prosecuted. The second was in regard to any noticeable change in the Christian sentiment on the subject of temperance, and the third was in relation to the acceptability of the past deliverances of the General Assembly.

We are happy to state that the answers to these inquiries were far more numerous, full and satisfactory than any similar reports have ever been, and, in addition, there was a snap, determination and aggressive spirit manifested in these reports which was most hopeful and far in advance of the average in times past.

In regard to the first inquiry, while no new methods of work have been suggested or adopted, nearly all of the reports speak of the unanimity and earnestness with which the ministers are advocating the cause of temperance in their pulpits. In some Presbyteries, they are required to preach on the subject at least once a year, and in others every quarter. Sabbath-schools in increasing numbers are devoting the last Sabbath of each quarter to the consideration of this subject. In some of them, Bands of Hope are organized, and in others temperance pledges are taken by the children when they reach a certain age. In nearly all the reports the good work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is spoken of and commended.

In relation to the second question, the reports assure us that there is no retrograde movement among Christian people, but in nearly every instance we are encouraged to believe that there is a steady undertone of feeling inimical to the liquor traffic which is gradually asserting itself, and which cannot but be felt and sooner or later be productive of very great good.

Among the causes operating to produce this result the following have been referred to, viz.: The high position taken by the Assembly in its various deliverances, the effect of which can scarcely be overestimated, the inherent wrong in the traffic, the utter rottenness of the whole business as revealed in our courts of justice, the iniquitous means by which it is promoted and the utter lawlessness of those engaged in it. It is becoming more and more evident that the reason why prohibition does not prohibit is, that the thing proposed to be prohibited is by instinct as well as practice not only a law-breaking but a law-defying business. Men are not prevented from engaging in it because they will not be. Of course, in an issue of this kind there is left to the Christian conscience no room for choice.

It is most gratifying to your Committee to learn how unanimously and heartily the past deliverances of the Assembly are endorsed by the several Presbyteries. The only exception noted is to the so-called explanatory clause added to the otherwise most admirable deliverance of the last year. The objection to this is not so much that action is wanted in favor of any distinct line of political action, but because, under the circumstances, that explanatory clause seemed to commit the Church against any political action, which is certainly not the voice of the Church. With this single exception, the past deliverances are referred to not only with approbation, but with evident feelings of pride and gratification. Not a few of the reports refer to the admirable results flowing from the distribution of our tract containing a summary of these deliverances among the people.

It is also interesting to note that not one of these reports refers to High License with approval as a remedy for the evils connected with the liquor business, but in every one in which it is referred to, it is with manifest disapproval, for the reasons that it is wrong in principle, compromises the State, does not materially lessen the amount of liquor sold, and that high-priced intoxicants are just as prolific in the production of drunkenness and its consequent pauperism, crime, taxation, lamentation, woe and ruin to the bodies and souls of men, so eloquently referred to one year ago, as that sold under lower license.

Another interesting fact brought to light in these reports is that, owing to the increasing light and recent discoveries in regard to the utter rottenness and diabolical character of the whole liquor business, it is rapidly being put under ban, and only tolerated as an evil to be gotten rid of as soon as possible. It is no longer considered respectable for men in good society to drink at an open bar. The wine cup, too, is rapidly being banished from all good society. The truth is that the drinking habit is rapidly coming to be regarded as an un-American institution.

THE WORK OF THE COMMITTEE.

In regard to the work of the Committee during the past year, we have to report that very soon after the sitting of the last Assembly we determined to take a new departure, and announced through nearly all of our religious newspapers that we would, to the extent of our ability, furnish gratuitously any of our publications that might be called for to those who would undertake to wisely distribute them, the applicants simply paying for their transportation. Our reason for making this announcement was that we found by experience, that the communities most needing information were the ones least disposed to seek it and especially to purchase it. Facts have fully demonstrated the wisdom of the course pursued. We have met to a very liberal extent every call made upon us. A very large amount of our literature has been sent into Nebraska and other States where it was especially needed, and while the general demand has not been as large as we anticipated, it has been constant and from almost all parts of the country.

We have during the past year, besides distributing a large amount of matter on hand at the close of the preceding year, issued a large edition of a new tract written by the Chairman, entitled, "The License System Wrong in Principle." We have also republished the deliverances of the General Assembly, bringing them up to the present time. Also, "The Temperance Catechism." Both of these latter publications are greatly sought after and appreciated.

We had made arrangements for the publication of a tract to be prepared by one of our ablest ministers on the "Moral and Legal Right of Prohibition," and had reserved funds for that purpose, but as yet the manuscript has not come into our hands, but this tract will be published as soon as it is prepared.

As will be seen by referring to our Treasurer's Report, the contributions have not been large, but they have covered a large district of country and have been sufficient to meet our necessary expenses, and we believe that should larger demands be made upon us, our treasury will not be found wanting. We believe, also, that there is a hearty readiness on the part of the Church to respond most fully to whatever the General Assembly will undertake in this direction.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

I. N. HAYS, Chairman.

JOHN F. HILL, Corresponding Secretary.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877 and 1884. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 8, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to four cents for mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all five and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee.

☞ See, also, Minutes of 1890, p. 92.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1890 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the Foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangements of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 293 of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. These Narratives should specify facts in regard to the particular churches, their state, trials, encouragements, and prospects; how many of them, and which, have enjoyed revivals of religion through the year; in which of them the Catechisms are taught, Sabbath-schools and Bible classes organized, with the number of scholars and teachers. Also, the various arrangements of the Presbytery for Church extension; stating the number of their ministers, and the particular manner in which they are employed; the number of their churches, and how they are supplied; the number of new churches organized, and new houses of worship erected; what itinerant arrangements have been adopted for preaching the Gospel; what and how much agency has been employed; together with all such other facts and suggestions as will show, from year to year, what has been accomplished, and what may need to be undertaken, to bring all the churches to a proper degree of effort to promote the kingdom of Christ. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1885, can be had from the Board of Publication, by whom it has been printed for the use of congregations and Presbyteries.

That the Secretaries and the Chairmen of the Standing and Special Committees be requested to make their statements within the limits of half an hour.

8. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly, shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

9. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

10. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning.

11. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution, hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

12. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be revised by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee.

13. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them, to the place of meeting of each Assembly prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

14. In all regions where, through the organization of Union Presbyteries, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

15. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is an executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108].

16. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies, may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

17. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the Judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion, to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely, A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable, that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause, as members of the judicatory.

XLII. But in cases of process on the ground of general rumor, where there is, of course, no particular accuser, there may be a committee appointed (if convenient), who shall be called the "Committee of Prosecution," and who shall conduct the whole course on the part of the prosecution. The members of this committee shall not be permitted to sit in judgment in the case.

XLIII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIV. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung, an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.
